Chambers-Van Horn Rites Sunday Afternoon at Amity

Amity—A garden wedding took place at the J. B. Abraham home on West Fifth street Saturday afternoon, August 20, at 2 o'clock, when Miss Vida Van Horn, daughter of Mrs. William Richter, Amity, was married to Frederick Chambers, son of Mr. and Mrs. Reed Chambers of Salem.

Rev. S. James Osborne, McMinnville officiating at the double ring ceremony. Preceding the marriage, Mrs. Robert Shields, sang two solos, accompanied on the organ by Mrs. Ivan Shields.

The couple stood before an altar if white lattice, with garlands of English ivy and tall baskets of salmon shaded gladioluses, near the fireplace.

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle, Hugh Shields, wore a blue and white gabardine dressmaker suit, white hat and white accessories. She carried a white Bible on which was arranged an orchid and shower of white satin ribbons. In honor of the bride were sprigs of white Heather, sent by friends from Scotland, as a token of "good luck, good health and happiness."

Mrs. Lyle Williams, was matron of honor for her cousin. She wore a pastel pink suit, white accessories, and carried a nosegay of white carnations.

Ladd Chambers of Salem acted as best man for his brother. Following the ceremony a reception was held on the lawn. The damask covered reception table was all white with a floral centerpiece and white candles.

Mrs. Donald Shields cut the wedding cake, and Mrs. George Shields, presided at the coffee urn, while Mrs. Ladd Chambers presided at the punch bowl, with Mrs. Hugh Shields and Mrs. Ivan Shields assisting. At the gift table were Mrs. Robert Shields and Mrs. Etric Farmer, who also passed the guest book.

Only close friends and relatives were bidden to the wedding. From out-of-town were: Mr. and Mrs. Reed Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Ted Chambers, Mr. and Mrs. Ladd Chambers, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Vernon Romig, Portland; Mrs. Darrel James Newberg; Rev. and Mrs. S. James Osborne, McMinnville; The Carl Shields family from Port Angeles, Wash. Amity
