Arsonist Ralp!

Gets Year More

John Edward Ralph pleaded guilty before Circuit Judge George R. Duncan Monday to third degree arson in connection with a flax fire at the State prison several months ago. He was given a year's sentence. But that isn't all of it. It is to run consecutively after Ralph finishes out 12 years he has yet to do on a robbery sentence. And there's still more to follow. When he came up here he was on parole from San Quentin, Calif., also on a robbery charge. With his conviction here his parole there was revoked so he'll be sent back to San Quentin when he gets all though here.

With Ralph's guilty plea, District Attorney Stadter says this is six out of the seven convicts implicated in the flax plant fire whose cases have been disposed of, either by conviction or pleas of guilt. Allan Brumfield, convicted last week by a jury, will be sentenced September 6. The seventh man, John O. Pinson, is still to be disposed of. He escaped a few months ago and is still
