Silver Tea

Attracting many Tuesday will be the silver tea at the Salem Golf club, featuring displays of early farm life articles. Hours for the affair are between 3 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon and 7 and 9 o'clock in the evening.

Proceeds go to the First Christian church building fund. The general public is invited to the tea. Mrs. Erel W. Kay and Mrs. Ben Lambert are arranging the displays.

Plan Special Week

Committee chairmen planning for "National Business Women's week" to be observed by the local Business and Professional Women's club, are meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Charles Forrette, who is general chairman for the week.

The observance comes the fore part of October. A luncheon program for the Chamber of Commerce meeting, a public affairs banquet, a tea for past presidents, and a breakfast honoring the president, are some of the events on the calendar for the observance.

MRS. PAUL HEATH and son, Jimmy, returned Sunday from spending a week with Mrs. Heath's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. F. Breithaupt, at Cutler City.

Miss Hutchison, Mr. Holmes Wed at Church Service

The First Presbyterian church was the scene Saturday evening for the wedding of Miss Beverly Jean Hutchison and Kenneth Arthur Holmes of Albany, the ceremony being solemnized at 8 o'clock with the Rev. John Goodenberger officiating. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wyatt Hutchison of Salem, Mr. Holmes the son of Mr. and Mrs. G. Glenn Holmes of Albany.

White gladioluses and ferns decorated the church for the service. Lighted candles glowed in each window and at every other pew down the procession-aid aisle were white gladioluses tied with pink satin ribbons.

Robert Gwinn sang "Because" and "Ich Liebe Dich" with Miss Lois Gottwald at the organ.

Miss Kathryn Anderson of Arcata, Calif., and Miss Ellen Reynolds lighted the tapers. They wore Alice blue satin gowns designed with tight-fitting bodices, wide bertha ending in points at the back and full skirts. They wore wristlets of pink carnations and roses, and pink carnations in their hair.

The bridal gown was of pink satin. It had a pink net yoke, a bertha of wide French lace, long sleeves with cuffs in the French lace, a tight-fitting bodice, a row of buttons to the waist in back, and a full skirt ending in a train. Two double folds of the satin formed a bustle in back. The fingertip veil of pink net fell from a French lace cap. For her flowers the bride carried a cascading bouquet of white Ophelia roses and pale pink bouvardia, Mr. Hutchinson gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Marcelline Hutchison was honor attendant for her sister. Her gown was of orchid satin. Miss Barbara Bates and Miss Martha DuRette were the bridesmaids, both wearing rose satin gowns. The dresses of the three attendants were made alike with tight bodices, double bertha collars coming to a point in front and full skirts. The three wore pale pink tuberous begonias in their hair and carried cascade bouquets of the same flowers. Each wore mits matching her gown.

Hardin Holmes stood with his brother as best man. Ushering were Keith Holmes, Thomas Edwards, David Hamouris and Russell Tripp.

A rose crepe dress with rose accessories and corsage of orchids was worn by Mrs. Hutchison for her daughter's wedding and Mrs. Holmes, mother of the bridegroom, wore a gray crepe dress with gray and blue accessories and corsage of orchid. Following the ceremony a reception was given in the church parlors. Mrs. J. Parker Lineberry and Mrs. H. J. Plumer, the latter of Ponca City, Okla., an aunt of the bride, served the cake. Mrs. Ralph Wirth and Mrs. C. R. Tindale, the latter of Long Beach, Calif., poured. The bride's table was set with a pink satin cloth, Cecil Brunner roses and maiden hair fern encircling the heart-shaped cake. Baskets of gladioluses decorated the rooms. Assisting at the reception were Miss Patricia Zosel, Miss Helen Bonadurer of Portland, Miss Annabelle Kropp, Miss Eleanor Loveless of Eugene. Miss Carol Ann Tindale of Long Beach was in charge of the gifts and Miss Louise Ulvin passed the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a wine gabardine suit with gray coat and accessories and a corsage of white Ophelia roses.

The couple left on a trip to Yellowstone, then will go to Glenwood Springs, Colo., where Mr. Holmes will attend the national convention of Beta Theta Pi fraternity from September 6 to 10. The couple will be at home in Salem after September 13 in the Court apartments. Both will continue their work at Willamette university. The bride is affiliated with Alpha Chi Omega on the campus.

Circle Meets

Woodburn—The regular meeting of the Mothers' Circle of DeMolay was held at the Masonic parlors with Mrs. Lester Henn presiding in the absence of the president, Mrs. George Rogers. Plans for the cook book which the members are preparing were discussed, and Mrs. Lester Keller gave an appropriate reading, "How to Preserve a Husband."

Refreshments were served to the DeMolay members after the meeting and to Lester Keller and Harlow C. Dixon of the advisory board. George Rogers was a guest.

Plans are underway by the DeMolay for a swimming picnic at Settlemier park in the near future.

The next meeting of the circle will be September 22 and DeMolay will meet September 8.

Davidsons Leave For New York City

Loren D. Davidson, formerly of Salem, and an associate professor of music at Louisiana State university, Baton Rouge, has been granted a leave of absence from his teaching duties, so that he may pursue an advanced course of study at Columbia university, New York City, according to word reaching Salem.

Mr. Davidson, a well-known teacher of voice, has long been prominent in civic, church and college activities, and joined the L.S.U. staff in 1934. Holding a master's degree in music from there, in addition to the public school music certificate, and the bachelor of music degree from Simpson conservatory, Iowa, Mr. Davidson will take work toward

Mrs. Reed Entertained

Mrs. Cora Reed, former Salem resident, who is visiting here for a few days, will be honored at an informal afternoon for which Mrs. Lyle Rains and Mrs. John Van Santen are to entertain at the Rains home, 1580 Jefferson, Wednesday afternoon between 2:30 and 5 o'clock.

Mrs. Reed has been in Panama with her daughter and in a few days will leave for Ohio. She is a guest of Mrs. Emil Roth while in Salem.

All old friends of Mrs. Reed are invited to the Wednesday affair.

Don't worry if your muffin batter has lumps in it when you follow the standard muffin recipe; it's supposed to be lumpy. A smooth muffin batter means you have mixed too much and the hot bread will have tunnels after it is baked.
