

Miss Herr Wed Friday

Albany—Miss Marjorie Louise Herr, daughter of Mrs. Helene M. Herr of Albany, was married Friday afternoon to Willis T. Caldwell, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Caldwell, route 2, Salem, the ceremony being solemnized at 3 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church here. Gladioluses decorated the church for the service. Marvin Martz was soloist with L. Burggraf at the organ. The Rev. Morton L. Booth read the vows.

The bride wore a blue satin two-piece dress with corsage of rosebuds. C. K. Herr of San Mateo, Calif. gave his sister in marriage.

Mrs. P. C. McLaughlin of Woodburn was honor attendant for her sister. She wore a navy blue two-piece dress of faille with corsage of yellow rosebuds.

George Windedahl of Salem was best man. Ushering were Robert Willeford of Woodburn and Robert Webster of Corvallis.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Herr wore a gray dress with corsage of pink blooms.

The reception following was in the church. Mrs. C. L. Strome of Junction City served the bride's cake and Mrs. Robert Willeford of Woodburn poured.

Mrs. Loren Wilson arranged the decorations. Mrs. Vera Davis of Salem, Mrs. Frank Forrette of Stayton, Miss Mabel Howard, Miss Clara Voyer, Mrs. Helen Green, Miss Wilma Spence of Albany, Miss Betty Herr of San Mateo, Calif. assisted at the reception.

For traveling the bride wore a navy blue dress with gray coat and her bridal corsage. Following a wedding trip into Canada the couple will be at home in Salem. The bride attended Willamette university, University of Oregon and University of Washington. She is a member of Alpha Chi Omega sorority. Mr. Caldwell attended University of Oregon.

For Bride-Elect
Miss Yvonne Gray, who is to be married September 7 to Dale Crandall, was honored at a miscellaneous shower given Friday evening in Eugene by Mrs. C. Henry and daughter, Miss Mary Henry, and Mrs. Robert Ross at the Henry home.

Guests going from Salem for the party included Miss Gray's mother, Mrs. E. L. Gray, Sr., her sister-in-law, Mrs. E. L. Gray, Jr., and Mrs. E. H. Kennedy.

MISS VERA JONES, who has been in Salem the past year, left Sunday morning for her home at Tahlaqua, Okla. She will attend Northwestern State college there. She has been on the staff at the Capital Journal this year.

A good way to use up a little leftover rice is to put it into an omelet—about half a cup to a two-egg puffy omelet. Serve with hot biscuits and currant jelly or peach preserves.

AT THE beach over the weekend were Mr. and Mrs. D. J. McLellen and Mr. and Mrs. Max Rogers as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Cutsforth at Lincoln beach.

Engagement Told—The engagement of Miss Ruth Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Carl L. Snyder, to Jack Michael, son of Mr. and Mrs. Leo J. Michael of Richland, Wash., has been announced, the wedding being planned in November in Salem.

Shower Given

Miss Marlene H. ... and Miss Patricia Ditter were hostesses at a bridal shower in honor of Miss Jeanne Ruef at Sublimity, recently. The shower was given at the Ray Hartman home.

Games were played during the evening and refreshments were served. Invited were the following: Miss Marjorie Greis, Miss Betty Lou Schumaker, Miss Elizabeth Wolf, Miss DeLores Wolf, Miss Gloria Ruef, Miss Maxine Kintz, Mrs. Ida Hartman, Miss Angeline Hartman, Miss Kathleen Hartman, Mrs. Evelyn Etzel, Mrs. Dorothy Minten and Beverly, Miss Joanne Lulay, Miss Patricia Toepfer, Miss Laura Belle Fery, Miss Donna Susbauer, Mrs. Clara Boedigheimer, Miss Leona Wisengels, Mrs. Donna Lou McGovern, Miss Marguerite Frost and the hostesses.

CONGRATULATIONS are being expressed to Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kaser upon the birth of a daughter, Susan Mary, at Salem General hospital, Wednesday, August 24. Also welcoming the new arrival is an older sister, Karen Rae. Mrs. Alice Kaser of Portland and Mrs. Ilda Canoy of Salem are the grandmothers.

Engagement Told
Lebanon—Mr. and Mrs. E. J. Cray are announcing the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Virginia Cray, to Raymond E. Sedivy, son of Mr. and Mrs. Emil Sedivy of Tilden, Nebr.

Miss Cray and her fiancé are both employed at the Cascade Plywood corporation.

Date for the wedding has not yet been set.

For Friday fare dip fish filets in salted milk then in slightly crushed corn flakes. Bake in a very hot oven for about 15 to 20 minutes.

To Convention

Jack Slater, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. D. Slater, is leaving Wednesday via train for New York City and Boston as an official delegate to the 37th biennial grand convocation of Kappa Sigma fraternity. He represents Gamma Sigma chapter of the fraternity at Oregon State college where he will be a senior next year.

The convocation is to be held at New Ocean House, Swampscott, Mass. On the return west, Jack will travel with fraternity brothers by way of New Orleans and Los Angeles. He will be gone three weeks.

Ego-Ashton Rites In Lebanon Church

Lebanon—Scores of Lebanon residents, friends of the Dan Ashton family, former long residents of Lebanon, gathered at the First Presbyterian church Sunday, Aug. 21, for the wedding of the Ashton's daughter, Miss Donna Ashton, and Stanley D. Ego, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Ego of Newberg.

Rev. William Hobbs, pastor of the Sweet Home Methodist church, performed the rites at an altar banked with white gladioluses. Ivan Burnett was soloist.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of handloomed white silk, brought to her from China by her brother. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a Juliet cap and her flowers were white orchids on a white Bible.

Maid of honor was Miss Halie Ashton, sister of the bride. She was gowned in yellow and carried orchid gladioluses. Miss Carolyn Ego, sister of the bridegroom, Shirley Rathman of Ontario and Miss Leonard Nord of Sweet Home, were bridesmaids. They wore dresses of lime green and carried yellow gladioluses. Little Phyllis Smith, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl.

After the Lebanon ceremony, a reception was held at Fern Ridge home of the bride's parents near Sweet Home. The wedding cake was cut and served by Mrs. Fred Slate of Portland, and Mrs. Rice Ashton of Albany, aunts of the bride.

Pouring was Mrs. Kenneth Smith of Deer Island, sister of the groom.

After an extended wedding trip, Mr. and Mrs. Ego will make their home in the country near McMinnville.

NOTICES are out from the Salem Council of Women's Organizations inviting presidents of women's groups to affiliate with the council which acts as a central group for information and action on state-wide and civic affairs.

The council meets the third Thursday afternoon of each month, starting in October. Mrs. Robert Hutcheon is president of the group this year.

Wed At Mt. Angel—Wed recently at Mt. Angel were Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Meyer, the bride being the former Ora Mae Koch, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Koch of Monitor. Mr. Meyer is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John J. Meyer of Salem. (McEwan studio picture).

- Braised Veal Kidneys with Tomatoes

Ingredients: 3 veal kidneys, salt, flour, 2 tablespoons finely diced onion, 2 tablespoons butter or margarine, 1 cup cooked tomatoes.

Method: Cut kidneys in half lengthwise; remove white membrane. Soak in cold water for about 15 minutes. Drain and cut into 1-inch pieces. Roll in flour that has been seasoned with salt and pepper. Lightly brown the onion in the melted butter or margarine in a deep skillet. Add the kidneys and cook with the onions for about 5 minutes or until well browned. Add the tomatoes; cover skillet. Simmer for about 10 minutes or until kidneys are tender. 5 to 6 servings.

For an extra-special sandwich filling mix cream cheese, deviled ham, and finely ground pimento-stuffed olives. This filling may also be used with Parkerhouse rolls, and served with a luncheon salad.
