Four Corners, Aug. 29—Rickey Garden Club 4th Annual Flower Show will be Thursday night, September 1, at the Four Corners Community hall at 8 o'clock. No entry fee is charged and any resident of Four Corners area may enter exhibits. Exhibitors are to supply their own containers and accessories.

Cooking and Textile Deadlines Announced

Oregon housewives were reminded Monday that entries in the State Fair cooking and textile departments close at midnight, Saturday, September 3. This entry deadline also applies to the enlarged floral exhibit, which is expected to be the largest in recent fair history.

Meanwhile, all commercial space on the grounds has been sold out. Manager Leo Spitzbart reported this week "an unusual number of worthwhile and educational commercial displays for both farm and city population." Although several larger farm machinery exhibitors will be absent from this year's fair, the exhibition area is already full, according to Spitzbart.

Some of the 5,000 head of purebred livestock are already on the grounds. However, a majority of the show strings will arrive Thursday or Friday in preparation for judging which will begin promptly at 9 a.m. Monday morning.

McKenzie and Wife Honored

Philadelphia, Aug. 30—Leaders of the nation and leaders of the American Legion joined Sunday night in paying personal tribute to an Oregon boy whom they like and admire.

Vic McKenzie, formerly of Salem, for 14 years director of the Legion's National Convention corporation, with Mrs. McKenzie, was guest of honor at a dinner given by 450 of his friends in the Hotel Warwick here on the eve of the opening of the veteran organizations 31st national convention. He is a member of Capital post No. 9.

Senator Guy Cordon (R., Ore.) who was toastmaster, called McKenzie "a fellow who has been doing things for people both in and out of the Legion for 30 years, and though he holds no official title, probably has more friends and knows more people than anybody except Jim Farley."

Also lauding the McKenzies in addresses were Louis Johnson, secretary of defense and a past national commander of the American Legion; Senator Owen Brewster (R., Maine), Sen. George Malone (R., Nev.), Perry C. Brown of Texas, present national commander of the Legion, and former National Commanders Edward A. Hayes of Illinois and Harry Colmery of Kansas.

Singers Morton Downey and Jane Pickens appeared as soloists on the program. The McKenzies were presented with a Lincoln convertible and each was given an engraved wrist watch by the group. They now live in Carmel, California.
