Parents Tell Of Betrothal

Announcement has been made by Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Bowerman of Astoria of the engagement of their daughter, Miss Barbara Mae Bowerman, to Ellis J. Teel, son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Teel of Salem.

Miss Bowerman is a graduate of the Northwestern School of Commerce and is employed by the city of Portland. Mr. Teel is in his senior year at University of Oregon and is affiliated with Tau Kappa Epsilon fraternity on the campus at Eugene.

The wedding is planned following Mr. Teel's graduation from the university next March.

Mrs. Holmstedt to Teach in Nebraska

Mrs. John W. Holmstedt, Jr. (Donna Liudahl), who has been engaged to teach the fifth and sixth grades at the Hooper, Neb. public school, has been specializing in English and education during the past two years at Midland college, Fremont, Neb.

While on the campus, Mrs. Holmstedt was active in several groups, being a member of the Dormitory board, Midland Puppets, Lutheran Student association, and Warrionettes. Also, she was vice president of Pi Epsilon sorority and secretary of the Campus Christian council.

Mrs. Holmstedt is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Liudahl of Salem. Her marriage was solemnized here August 21. Mr. Holmstedt is a student at Midland college.

Miss Kjelstad Is Honored at Party

Miss Sylvia Kjelstad of Oslo, Norway, was honored at a party Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Arneson and Mr. and Mrs. Nels Tonning entertained at the Arneson home.

Miss Kjelstad, who came to the United States with the Arnesons when they returned from a trip to Norway, is leaving soon for Seattle to study languages at the University of Washington.

At the Saturday party the group honored Miss Kjelstad with a travel shower. The folk dancing group of the Sons of Norway presented a group of numbers in honor of Miss Kjelstad. Sixty-five friends of the honoree attended the party and a smorgasbord supper was served.

Tea on Wednesday

An event of interest for Wednesday afternoon will be the silver tea for which the Salem Woman's club is to entertain in the gardens at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hanzen.

Hours are between 3 and 5:30 o'clock. Mrs. Grant C. Rogers and Mrs. Estill L. Brunk are co-chairmen for arrangements.

Tells Engagement — Miss Mary Anne Bothman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred W. Bothman, has announced her engagement to Larry E. Saunders, son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren M. Saunders of Twin Falls, Idaho. No date is set for the wedding.

White Shrine Picnic

About 60 attended the picnic given for Willamette shrine, No. 2, White Shrine of Jerusalem, Sunday, in the gardens at the home of Miss Mabel Savage, sister of the order's noble prophetess, Mrs. Al Rasmussen.

Following the dinner games were played and many of the guests viewed the gardens of Miss Savage. J. H. Booth, Kenneth Caughell, Mrs. Bess Shelton and Charles Morgan were the committee in charge.

Mrs. Wilbur Pintler, worthy high priestess, announced a social event for the group on September 14 with the regular meeting scheduled for September 19.

For her daughter's wedding, Miss Lora McClain, sister of the bride, was bridesmaid. She wore a pink net over satin gown designed with a shirred waist, sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves and floor length, full gathered skirt. She carried yellow gladioluses with pink satin ribbon.

Miss Katherine Ann Becker, honor attendant, wore a gown of blue satin with fitted bodice, cap sleeves, round neckline, and full gathered skirt with a bustle back. She carried salmon gladioluses with blue satin ribbon. Both attendants wore Mary Stuart headresses to match their gowns.

Walter Faulhaber acted as best man. Al Hautz was groomsmen and ushers were Robert Kindel and Tony Vandecoevering.

Miss McClain Wed Saturday

Mt. Angel—White and salmon colored gladioluses and lighted tapers decorated St. Luke's Catholic church at Woodburn on Saturday morning for the wedding of Miss Wildred Rose McClain, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. S. McClain of Woodburn, and Robert Kraemer, son of Mrs. Hugo Kraemer and the late Hugo Kraemer of Mt. Angel. Father Francis H. Hanley officiated at the 9:00 a. m. nuptial high mass. Mrs. Marie Donnelly was organist and Bernard Smith sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white slipper satin fashioned with a fitted bodice, with tiny but tons from the large bertha collar to the waist, a yoke of marquisette, long sleeves pointed at the wrists, and a full skirt ending in a court train. Her fingertip veil was lace edged and fell from a Mary Stuart head-dress. For her flowers the bride carried a pearl prayer book topped with an orchid and streamers.

For her daughter's wedding,

Mrs. McClain wore a pink afternoon dress with black accessories and a corsage of yellow rosebuds and white carnations.

Mrs. Hugo Kraemer, mother of the bridegroom, wore a black and white afternoon dress and white accessories, and a corsage of yellow rosebuds and white carnations.

Breakfast was served at the Laurel cafe in Woodburn with places set for 27 guests. The bride's table was centered with gladioluses and lighted tapers. The reception was arranged in the Legion hall in Mt. Angel.

The rooms were decorated in white, pink and blue streamers and all colors of gladioluses. Mrs. Tony Vandecoevering, sister of the bridegroom, cut the three-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Loraine Johnson of Salem was in charge of the gift table. Mrs. Robert Kindel, sister of the bridegroom, passed the guest book and Mrs. Gerald Zollner, Miss Rena Harper of Brooks and Miss Dolores Benson of Woodburn assisted about the rooms.

For going away the bride wore an orchid suit with gray accessories and a corsage of orchids. After a wedding trip to Crater lake the couple will make their home in Lebanon where Mr. Kraemer is employed.

ST. JOHN'S Lutheran guild is to meet Thursday at 8 p. m. in the parish house. Hostesses for the meeting are Mrs. William Fischer, Mrs. H. W. Gross, Mrs. John Gettman and Mrs. John Fox.
