

Erwert-Kerr Wedding at Mt. Angel Church Saturday

Mt. Angel—Wearing a gown of off-white satin, Miss Marcelline Kerr of Mt. Angel, daughter of the late Mr. and Mrs. Fred Kerr of Portland and Salem, walked to the altar of St. Mary's Catholic church in Mt. Angel Saturday morning, August 27, to wed Clarence Erwert of Mt. Angel. The bride's gown was fashioned with sweetheart neckline, edged in Chantilly lace which continued at the low shoulder line to form a point in the back of the fitted bodice with self-covered buttons; long sleeves, ending in Calla points; and a full skirt topped by a peplum finished with Chantilly lace which was carried down to the back of the skirt to form a point on the full court train. The waist length veil of illusion was fastened by a band of braided matching satin. The bride carried a white prayer book topped by a white orchid, stephanotis and satin streamers, and for sentiment she wore her late mother's strand of pearls.

Mrs. Tony Nissl of McMinnville (Elaine Kerr) attended her sister as matron of honor, wearing a gown of Nile green taffeta. It was made with a collar on the square neckline, and cap sleeves on the fitted bodice, and a full skirt, floor length, with bustle back. Her headdress was orchid braided net fashioned into a halo, and she carried a heart bouquet of delphiniums, pink roses and yellow daisies.

Misses Rosemary Stupfel of Amity and Arlene Erwert, sister of the bridegroom, bridesmaids, wore identically styled gowns in orchid taffeta and carried heart bouquets of the same flowers at the honor attendant, tied in Nile green taffeta streamers, and they wore bands of braided Nile green net in their hair. All the attendants wore taffeta mitts to match each gown. Little Suzanne Hoffer, niece of the bride, was flower girl in a frock of Nile green taffeta made similarly to the other attendant's gowns. She wore a bonnet of taffeta tied with a bow under the chin, and carried a miniature heart-shaped bouquet of the same flowers.

Gene Hoffer, brother-in-law, escorted Miss Kerr to the altar, which was decorated with arrangements of white and orchid gladioli, greenery and lighted cathedral tapers. The Rev. Father Vincent Koppert, OSB, performed the 9 a.m. marriage rites at a double ring ceremony, and officiated at the nuptial high mass. Miss Helen Keber played the wedding music, and was accompanist for Misses Pauline Saalfeld, Laura Schwab, Dorothy Prosser and Lucy Van Cleef who sang preceding and following the ceremony and the mass.

The bridegroom, son of Mrs. Anna Erwert and the late John Erwert, chose his brother, Warren Erwert of Salem as best man, and brothers Charles Erwert and Alex Erwert as groomsmen. Ushers were Robert Erwert and Tony Nissl. Ronald Schmidt and Norbert Aicher, cousins of the bridegroom, served the mass.

Mrs. Gene Hoffer, sister of the bride, chose a watermelon-red two-piece afternoon dress, with green and white accessories for the ceremony. Her corsage was of white roses and stephanotis. Mrs. John Erwert attended the wedding of her son in a wine colored two-piece dress with black accessories, and a corsage of white rosebuds and stephanotis.

The bridal couple was honored at a breakfast at St. Mary's dining hall. Guests included the wedding party and officiating clergy, and the immediate families of the bridegroom and bride, covers being placed for 45 guests. Serving the breakfast were Misses Mary Lou Welsenfels, Vivian Vreeland, Marion Rickert of Woodburn, and Joanne Bochsler of Portland. During the breakfast hour Misses Lucy Van Cleef and Laura Schwab sang.

Miss Espe Wed On Saturday

Miss Amy Lou Espe, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Espe of Silverton, was married to Loren Rolie, son of Mr. and Mrs. Philip Rolie of Salem, Saturday at 2 p.m. at the Immanuel Lutheran church at Silverton. Rev. S. L. Almlie performed the ceremony.

The bride's father gave her in marriage. She wore a white lace gown, trimmed in white satin, with full skirt and train. Her fingertip illusion veil fell from a seed pearl trimmed bonnet. She carried a bouquet of carnations and wore an orchid corsage. Mrs. J. V. Epping, the bride's sister, matron of honor, wore a fuchsia taffeta gown. The bridesmaids, Misses Fay and Beverly Rolie, sisters of the bridegroom, were attired in yellow taffeta gowns. All three carried bouquets of gladioli. The candle-lighters were Misses Betty Baxter and Lila Dugan, wearing gowns of green taffeta. George St. Clair was best man. Ushers were Chester Hatter and Norman Patterson.
