

Senators Drop Opener to Chiefs

Wenatchees Pinch Off Ninth Inning Rally to Win, 11-9

Wenatchee, Wash., Aug. 31.—If the rules called for paying off on being close, then the Salem Senators would have cashed in last night. The Solons, trailing, 11-6, came on with a rush in the last frame but were subdued 11-9 as Cal McIrvine, in the role of a pinch hitter, struck out with the bases loaded.

Bob Cherry hit for the circuit as he opened the fourth. Five of the other Solons' 13 hits were doubles — one each by Beard, Bartle and Cherry and two by Hedington.

Short scores:
Yakima 11, Spokane 5.
Vancouver 9, Tacoma 8.
Wenatchee 11, Salem 9.
Victoria 21, Bremerton 2.

The Chiefs salted the contest in the sixth when 12 men went to bat to drive in seven runs off Stu Fredericks and Bill Osborn. Osborn came in with one out only to be greeted by a home run by Nick Pesut with two men aboard.

Wenatchee was held rusee after that uprising, but insofar as the Senators were concerned, the damage had been done. Osborn gave way to a pinch hitter in the eighth and Johnny Burak hurried the final inning.

Cy Greenlaw, veteran Chief moundsman, was credited with his 11th win of the season, although he was driven out in the ninth before he had been able to retire a single batter. Richie Myers came in from his short stop assignment and squelched the uprising after forcing in a run by issuing a pass to Art Pennington. With the bases all populated Myers then retired Wayne Peterson, Jim Olson and Cal McIrvine.

The Chiefs salted four times in the first inning after Fredericks had downed the first two men to face him. The Senators struck back in the middle innings and by the time the Chiefs came up in the sixth were nursing a 5 to 4 advantage. Then the storm broke over Fredericks.

Bearcat Coach to Teach Grid Kids

Coach Chester Stackhouse of Willamette university has agreed to give the fundamentals of football to younger boys who will meet with him on Sweetland field at 1:30 Friday afternoon.

The program is being sponsored by the YMCA with Roth Holz, boys' work secretary, in charge. All Y boys and their friends, who want to take part, are asked to meet at the Y before going to the field.

Birds of Peace To Be Fair Game Throughout State

Portland, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Oregon State game commission announced today that the entire state will be open this season for dove hunters.

Dove season extends from Sept. 1 through Sept. 15 with bag limits 10 in any one day and not more than 10 in possession.

The season in Oregon this year for band-tailed pigeons will be Sept. 1-30. In Multnomah, Washington, Clackamas, Yamhill, Polk, Marion, Benton and Linn counties, and that part of Lane county east of the summit of the coast range mountains, the limit on band-tails will be eight in any one day and eight in possession. Also in these counties there is a season limit of not more than 24.

Beginner's Luck Can Be Tough, Too

Portland, Aug. 31 (AP)—Mary Ellis caught a 52-pound salmon the first time she ever went fishing but her luck could have been better.

The 110-pound Portlander caught the big chinook near the Columbia's mouth just after a $500 prize derby ended and just before the $2000 prize Astoria derby opened.

The 30-minute battle will be her last, she said. She figured she used up all her luck the first time.

Coach Chester Stackhouse meets with a half hundred candidates for the Willamette university football squad at 7:30 Wednesday night and the following morning the serious task of building a brand new Bearcat machine will begin.

New to the campus, having succeeded Jerry Lillie in the head coaching position, Stackhouse has been busily engaged in laying the foundations for the approaching season since arriving here in early August. He has cleaned out and rearranged the equipment room and in other ways taken care of the preliminaries.

Tuesday, Coach Stackhouse met with his assistants, Johnny Lewis, Buck Smith, Ambrose D'Earle and Jim Johnson on the field where the group worked on basic offensive strategy. The system will embrace quite a bit of Michigan tactics with Stackhouse variations. A quarterback will be stationed behind the center at all times except for punts. However, there will be direct passes to the halfbacks, hand-offs and spinners. No players were involved in the workout.

Practice sessions will be held on a two a day basis through-

Hundreds of Sick Ducks Rounded Up For Vaccinations

Klamath Falls, Ore., Aug. 31 (AP)—Local sportsmen today were rounding up hundreds of sick and dying ducks for vaccinations here.

Thousands of ducks in the Tule Lake, Calif., and Klamath Lake, Ore., areas are dying from a bacterial infection found in polluted water and mouldy grain.

The outbreak was first noticed Sunday when a few birds were affected. By today, however, Art Reinhardt, Klamath Falls game commission representative, said 1500 birds have been found dead and many others sick.

That came from owner P. K. Wrigley, who estimated yesterday that the Cubs have spent $2,000,000 on player material over a four-year period, including this season.

"That's a lot of money," Wrigley conceded, but added: "Grimm (Vice President Charley Grimm) is now in the east talking with other clubs and there's no limit on what he can spend."

Wrigley Opens Purse in Search For Cub Talent

Chicago, Aug. 31 (AP)—The Chicago Cubs may be wallowing in the bottom of the National league, but the sky's the limit on money for fresh talent.

That came from owner P. K. Wrigley, who estimated yesterday that the Cubs have spent $2,000,000 on player material over a four-year period, including this season.

"That's a lot of money," Wrigley conceded, but added: "Grimm (Vice President Charley Grimm) is now in the east talking with other clubs and there's no limit on what he can spend."

Junior Winners

brich, Salem, first flight winner, Stan Samuels, Salem, second flight winner, Hay, Don Anawalt, Eugene, boys' division winner, and Jerry Clausen, Corvallis, runner-up in the boys' division. Bill Wittenberg of Lake Grove, who won the Championship flight trophy, finished early and was not available for the cameraman.

Amateur Hotshots Vie for National Golf Supremacy

Rochester, N.Y., Aug. 31 (AP)—Two hotshot favorites, Robert (Ske) Riegel and Frank Stranahan, met today in a third round match that many predicted would decide the national amateur golf championship.

The winner of this 18-hole bout might go on to take Willie Furness's title on Saturday.

But Turnesa is still around to say something about that. He edged Harold Foreman of Glenview, Ill., one up, yesterday.

It was another bad day for the British as that country's two main hopes, British Amateur Champion Max McCready and Ronnie White, were sent to the sidelines.

But most of the other favorites survived, including Ray Billows, the 1948 runnerup, who was forced two extra holes by Gene Bales of Portland, Ore. Three of the English Walker tappers—Ken Thom, Art Perowne and Joe Carr—also survived.

Five Trophies Awarded To Junior Golf Winners

Five young Oregon golfers were in possession Wednesday of trophies awarded for junior and boys' division golfing in a tournament sponsored by the Salem Exchange club.

A Lake Grove youth, Bill Wittenberg, shooting in the junior division for boys from 15 to 17 years of age, captured the championship flight trophy on a 54-hole card of 217. He scored 72, 71 and 74 in the three rounds.

Bob Albrich and Stan Samuels, both of Salem, collected the two other junior division trophies. Albrich took the first flight hardware with an 87-83-74—244 card while Samuels grabbed the second flight trophy with a 91-90-90—271 tally.

For the youngsters under 15, Don Anawalt of Eugene set the fastest pace with an 81-94-87—262 card for the first trophy in that division. Jerry Clausen of Corvallis rated the runner-up award with a 272 card.

Golf ball awards were made to Don Krieger, Redmond, championship flight runner-up, as well as to Kent Myers and Leonard Sebern, runner-ups in the first and second flights. Other awards went to Skip Nagler of Eugene for sportsmanship, while Jim Humphreys (Junior) and David Wright (Boys) received awards for the most improved play during the tourney.

ing such an untimely defeat, the Brooklyn Dodgers rode to a 4 to 3 victory over Pittsburgh on Gil Hodges' one on home run in the ninth.

The St. Louis lead thus was cut to a game and a half.

While Brooklyn whittled down the Cardinal lead in the National league, the Boston Red Sox did the same to New York in the American.

Bruised after their three-game dump to Cleveland, the Sox shut out Detroit, 3 to 0, on Ellis Kinder's five-hit pitching while Al Papa's six-hitter beat the Yanks for St. Louis, 6 to 2, cutting the Yankees lead to three games.

Ed Yost scored from third on a long fly in the 10th to give Washington a 1 to 0 win over Chicago.

Philadelphia at Cleveland was rained out in the only other major league game scheduled.

Rejuvenated Heath Clouts Braves to Win; Yanks Skid

New York, Aug. 31 (AP)—A broken ankle was Jeff Heath's tragedy last September, but a spirit which will not break in his triumph today.

Things were black for the muscular man they call "The Monster" when his ankle bone snapped in the final week of last season, just as the Boston Braves won the National league pennant. And they got blacker at the start of this campaign when the unmenaced bone forced the Braves to send him on a tour of farm clubs with some vague scouting assignment, and that, it seemed, was the end of Mr. Heath—at least for this season.

Jeff didn't see it that way, however. So throughout his scouting assignment he kept in shape, and nursed that naughty limb along until the time came this month for him to inch limorously into the lineup for a comeback.

The rest of the story is emblazoned in the record books. There's a .313 batting average, for example. And there are 18 runs batted in in 27 games plus eight home runs.

Yesterday in a game with the St. Louis Cardinals, team which has given the Braves fits all year, Heath slugged his way to more glory. He hit a single, a double and a home run in four tries. He batted in four runs and scored two himself for a 12 to 4 rout of the Redbirds. While the Cardinals were lasting such an untimely defeat, the Brooklyn Dodgers rode to a 4 to 3 victory over Pittsburgh on Gil Hodges' one on home run in the ninth.
