

Bomber Crash—A few burning bits of wreckage are all that remain of a B-29 which crashed and exploded near Spokane, Wash. Fourteen of the 15-man crew parachuted to safety on instructions from the pilot. The body of the co-pilot was found near the burned wreckage. The Superfort belonged to the 327th Squadron of the 92nd Bomb Group. (Acme Telephoto)

TALK FROM THE WEST

Morse Is Most Talkative Senator From Far West

Washington, Sept. 1 (AP)—GOP statistics, gathered to prove that senate democrats talked more this session than republicans, show just the opposite for senators from eight western states. Senate library figures—ordered by Sen. Kenneth S. Wherry, R., Neb.—show that seven republicans from the west took up 428 pages in the Congressional Record from Jan. 3 to Aug. 15. During the same period, nine western democrats took up 180 pages.

School Improvement Bonds Are Purchased

Lebanon—The local school board accepted the bid of the First National bank of Lebanon for purchase of $85,000 in bonds for improvement and expansion to Green Acres school, reports Superintendent J. W. King.

The local bank's bid, one of three made, calls for a purchase price of $100.35, with the bonds bearing 1 1/2 per cent interest for those maturing from 1950 through 1954, and 2 per cent from 1955 through 1958. Second low bidder was the U.S. National bank of Portland, with price $100.14, two per cent interest for bonds maturing from 1950 through 1952, and 2 1/2 per cent from 1953 through 1958.

Third bidder was Blythe and company, with price $100.41, and 2 1/2 per cent interest for all bonds maturing from 1950 through 1958.

Make Trip in Style
Fairview—Pete Sliper of Lafayette and Toivo Bantsari of Fairview and Sam Whitney of Newberg flew to Pendleton in one of Whitney's airplanes, piloted by Bantsari, to attend the annual Round-up.

Most talkative western senator was Wayne Morse, R., Ore., whose remarks on 63 occasions took up 162 pages of the record. His page allotment, however, could be subtracted from the GOP total and still leave western republicans well ahead of democrats.

Wherry's figures—printed in the record without totals for individual senators—showed when added the following standings for senators from California, Oregon, Washington, Arizona, Nevada, Utah, Montana, and Idaho: (First figure represents the number of pages; second, times the senator spoke):
Republicans:
Morse, 162-63; Sen. Harry P. Cain, Wash., 82-35; Sen. Arthur V. Watkins, Utah, 63-21; Sen. George W. Malone, Nev., 63-32; Sen. William F. Knowland, Cal., 46-80; Sen. Guy Cordon, Ore., 8-18; Sen. Zales Ecton, Mont., half page, twice.

Democrats:
Sen. Elbert D. Thomas, Utah, 58-33; Sen. Pat McCarran, Nev., 28-47; Sen. Warren Magnuson, Wash., 27-38; Sen. James E. Murray, Mont., 13-8; Sen. Glen Taylor, Ida., 13-17; Sen. Sheridan Downey, Cal., 2-3; Sen. Ernest McFarland, Ariz., half page, twice; Sen. Bert Miller, less than half page, once.

Mother Bear Attacks Man

Anchorage, Alaska, Sept. 1 (AP)—Knutte Daamgard Peterson, 52, was near death in a hospital today after being mauled by a huge mother brown bear near Slana.

Peterson, a World War I veteran, left a neighbor's cabin Tuesday and was walking to his own home when he was attacked. The bear scalped him, nearly tore his jaw off, and bit and clawed all parts of his body.

He staggered to the cabin of Ole Hoagland who rowed the injured man down the Copper river to a highway bridge where he hailed a passing motorist. At the Chistochina air strip nearby, the 10th air rescue squadron was called and Peterson was flown to Anchorage.

Hospital attendants said the bear apparently took Peterson's face between her teeth and chewed.

Helens high school's newly organized Future Farmers of America chapter walked off with top honors at the Clackamas county fair yesterday.

The team led the judging of 22 other chapters from the northwestern part of the state. Bob Pease of the winning St. Helens team was high individual scorer with 855 out of a possible 1000 in the event.

Other chapters ranked behind the winner were: Newberg, Independence, Eddyville, Dayton, Hillsboro, The Dalles, McMinnville, Amity and Eugene.

Suspected Rapist Hunted by Police

Portland, Sept. 1 (AP)—Police were hunting today for a young man about 20 years of age who lured a girl to an isolated southeast area Tuesday night with a baby sitting job offer and raped her.

Detectives said the girl had advertised for the work. She said she was called and told to meet the prospective employer at an Oaks Park trolley depot. When she arrived, the young man said he lived in a houseboat. En route toward the river, he drew a knife and forced her into the brush off the road.

First Commercial Fishing Quotas Set

Portland, Sept. 1 (AP)—Commercial fishing quotas for silver salmon catches on five Oregon coastal streams—first in Oregon's history—were listed today by the state fish commission.

The plan calls for a cut of about 25 per cent from the average catch of the past two decades. It was explained that it was a conservation measure to preserve the runs. There were no limits previously.

The quotas: Nehalem river—300,000 pounds in 1949, 400,000 pounds in 1950 and 400,000 in 1951; Alsea—130,000; 220,000 and 180,000 pounds; Siuslaw—100,000; 150,000 and 150,000 pounds; Yaquina and Coquille—100,000 pounds each year.
