

Capital Women

Edited by MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

6—Capital Journal, Salem, Oregon, Thursday, Sept. 1, 1949

Sorority Groups Form City Council

Beta Sigma Phi chapters in Salem have organized a city council to coordinate work of the two groups. The newly formed council is to meet the first Thursday of each month.

The organizational meeting was held last evening at the YWCA.

Mrs. W. L. Flager was elected president; Mrs. Wayne Rose, vice president; Mrs. W. D. Troth, corresponding secretary; Mrs. D. L. Parker, recording secretary; and Mrs. Roger Lewis, treasurer. The two chapters here are Eta and Alpha Epsilon.

YW Staff Here

Miss Gertrude Acheson was due to arrive Thursday from Portland to take over her duties as the new executive director for the YWCA. Miss Acheson, who came west from a position with the YW at Rochester, N.Y., previously has been here to consult with local YW officials, September 1 being the date she was to begin her work here.

The other two new staff members have been here the past two weeks. Miss Joyce Lamoreux as the young adult program director, Miss Norma Wallace as the Y-Teen director.

Miss Austin To Be Bride

Woodburn—Miss Sally Austin, daughter of Col. and Mrs. Leonard Austin of Munich, Germany, will be married September 3 to Lieut. Marion Boswell, a flyer in the U.S. aviation service, Salinas, Kan. The wedding will be in the chapel at Fort Jay in Governor's Island New York.

Miss Austin returned to New York from Germany, August 18 with her mother. For her wedding she will wear the wedding dress of her sister, Mrs. Maurice Gardner, (Nancy Austin) of Richland, Wash. Mrs. Austin will return to Munich after the wedding where Col. Austin is stationed.

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Allen of Boston will be among those attending the wedding.

Birthday Event For Mrs. Stuckey

Woodburn—Mrs. Joe Fry was hostess at her home honoring her mother, Mrs. L. F. Stuckey, on the latter's 72nd birthday anniversary with a surprise party.

Guests honoring Mrs. Stuckey were Mr. and Mrs. James Bright, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Al White, Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Mills, Mrs. C. J. Weigel, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Low, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Paradis, Mrs. Perle Gibbons, Mrs. Earl W. Gibbons, Miss Betty Lechtie, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Henn, the honored guests, Mr. and Mrs. L. F. Stuckey and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Fry.

MISSIONARY society of the Calvary Baptist church is meeting Friday at the church, the

Styles for Cyclists

For Nippy Fall Days—This hooded poplin jacket with lamb's wool trim and zip-out lining is perfect for campus cyclists. Pleated plaid skirt, high-top socks and elkskin boodle shoes complete the picture.

day's events starting at 11:30 a.m. Luncheon will be at 12:30 o'clock, the Gleaners circle, Mrs. Charles McAllister, chairman, in charge. The program will be at 1:30 p.m. Victory circle members in charge with Mrs. George Raugust as chairman.

Dr. Victor Sword is to be guest speaker.

ANNOUNCEMENT has been received of the birth of a daughter on Tuesday evening, August 30, to Mr. and Mrs. J. Wesley Hansell, Jr., (Rose Ann Gibson) at McMinnville. The little girl has been named Lynn Christine. Grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Duane Gibson and Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Hansell, Sr., all of Salem. Great grandmothers are Mrs. L. D. Gibson of Salem and

Picnic Honors Mrs. Agnes Dutton

Mr. and Mrs. John E. Peterson were hosts at a picnic on their farm in the Lincoln district, Sunday.

Mrs. Agnes Dutton of Salem, mother of Mrs. Peterson, was honored with a large birthday cake on her 86th anniversary.

Those attending were Mrs. Agnes Dutton and John Dutton of Salem; Mrs. Harne Taylor, Falls City; Henry Dutton, Hubbard; Mr. and Mrs. Albert Dutton, Kenneth and Betty Ann, Molalla; Mr. and Mrs. Dan Vasbinder, Mr. and Mrs. Levi Hunt of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Earl Buell, Amity; Mr. and Mrs. August Knutson of Turner and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. John Peterson.

Mrs. M. C. Powell of Milton, Ore.

Miss Clark Is Betrothed

A surprise announcement featured the party and shower for which Miss Virginia Beall was hostess last evening to compliment Miss Beverly Wikstrom, bride-elect of Robert Mentzer.

During the evening Miss Shirley Clark told the group of her engagement to Fred Sproule. Three-year-old Billy Bannister, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Bannister of Portland and a cousin of Mr. Sproule, entered the party dressed as cupid, ribbons across his chest bearing the names of the engaged duo. He carried a corsage of red roses and white carnations to which was tied a ribbon with the engagement ring. At the dessert supper, served buffet, were two heart-shaped cakes; one with the names of Miss Wikstrom and Mr. Mentzer written on it, the other bearing the names of Miss Clark and Mr. Sproule.

No date is set for the wedding. Miss Clark is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Clark. She is a graduate of Salem high school. Mr. Sproule lives here with his aunt, Mrs. Kathryn Daniel, and he will attend Oregon College of Education at Monmouth this year. Mrs. Daniel, Mrs. Bannister, Mrs. F. E. Clark and Miss Jozann Clark were special guests at the party.

Miss Jones Feted At Recent Shower

Unionvale — Mrs. Ersel Gubser of Unionvale attended a miscellaneous bridal shower honoring Miss Doris Florene Jones of Dayton Monday evening. Miss Mary Lou Robinson and Miss Lois Rockhill were sponsors for the party held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harold Robinson in Dayton. Fifteen friends and classmates attended. Games were played. Refreshments were served.

Miss Jones is bride-elect of Sgt. Norman R. Gubser. The wedding will take place at the First Methodist church, McMinnville, at 4 o'clock Sunday afternoon, September 18. Rev. Lowell Ellis, pastor of the Nazarene church, McMinnville, will officiate, Rev. George Miller of the Unionvale Evangelical United Brethren church assisting. Sgt. Gubser will be home on a 30-day furlough.

For Golf Day

Winners for the day's play for the Salem Women's Golf association, Wednesday, included: Mrs. Mark Seale, class A; Mrs. Morris Crothers, class B; Mrs. George Hoffman, class C; Mrs. William Hamilton, class D.

Next week the members are asked to take their own lunch. DAYTON — A luncheon was given by Mrs. Alfred Ivie of Elegance After Five—Soft, eight-button doeskin gloves and small suede bag contrast with the glitter of the lame cocktail gown.

Sheridan and Mrs. Lloyd Shawver of Dayton, at the Shawver home, on Saturday, preceding the rehearsal for the wedding of Miss Peggie Ivie of Sheridan and Jim Shawver.

There were 16 present, most of whom comprised the bridal party. A silver bowl containing dahlias, pink and white tapers with white satin ribbons, decorated the center of the table.

IT'S A PEACH - for all canning and sweetening
Oregon's finest fruits and Oregon's Own and Only Sugar
PURE SUGAR FINE GRANULATED

Soroptimists Meet at Picnic

Twenty-four members and guests enjoyed the no-host picnic supper for the Soroptimist club Wednesday evening on the lawn at the country home of Mrs. Lee Eyerly. Mrs. E. H. Kennedy assisted Mrs. Eyerly in arranging the event.

Guests at the meeting were Mrs. Eileen Hartwell, Miss Joyce Randall and Miss Betty Jo Brannon. The members attending were Mrs. Carlton Greider, Miss Irene de Lisle, Miss Susan Feherty, Mrs. Don Reinke, Mrs. Leo Johnson, Mrs. Laura Pangle, Mrs. Nell Brannon, Miss Alice Crary Brown, Mrs. John S. Beakey, Mrs. Abner K. Kline, Mrs. Winifred Pettyjohn, Mrs. Ethel Lau, Mrs. Hope Randall, Miss Hattie Bratzel, Mrs. Eleanor Barbour, Mrs. Belle Niles Brown, Mrs. Marie Ling, Mrs. Paul Heath, Mrs. Walter Barsch, Mrs. Kennedy and Mrs. Eyerly.

Due from South

Mr. and Mrs. Richard (Dick) Jones and baby daughter, Pamela Gail, are expected to arrive by airplane, early in the week from Charleston, South Carolina. They will visit Mr. Jones' father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Gail Jones, his brother, Gary and other relatives.

MR. AND MRS. John J. Miller, formerly of Salem, celebrated their silver wedding anniversary Sunday at their home in Portland. Attending from Salem were Mr. and Mrs. Gail H. Jones, Mr. and Mrs. Karl G. Miller, Mrs. Edmund Clark, and Miss Clara Miller.

SUPERLATIVES

STYLED BY Coralie

CORALIE creates ageless flattery in a felt looking forward into fall at a most becoming angle.

Miller's

Gray is glamorous! The fashion spotlight is now poised on gray for year-round interest...because gray is sure flattery for any age...for sophisticate or coquette.

Here Youthmore shows how two shades are better than one, when light and dark gray worked are contrasted with sure designing genius...a knowing eye for giving you that slender, taller look.

69⁹⁵

YOUTHMORE Original

Miller's

YOUTHMORE Original

69⁹⁵

New slants on stripes

...Youthmore's high-fashion suit idea, of course! Top a reed-slim, sheen gabardine skirt with a long-line jacket of candy-cane stripes in a vibrant Ardross woolen. A sure eye-catcher, with striking bias stripes at the fitted hip-line, on dashing wide lapels.

YOUTHMORE Original

Miller's

Beautiful broadcloth... silky smooth and lustrous! Perfect foil for a luxurious ascot-scarf collar of mink brown or silver-blue dyed muskrat. Turn-back cuffs, slash pockets and jewel-like buttons highlight a Youthmore Original of impeccable beauty — elegant choice for your winter stand-by... value-wise and fashion-wise!

85⁵⁰

YOUTHMORE Original

Miller's

Button... unbutton... As you like it! It's a quick trick to unfasten the buttons, stow the belt in a roomy pocket, and watch the back of this stunning coat flare out in a full, flaring line. Heaped with beautiful beaver-dyed mouton, the cuffs interlaced with fabric. And notice those pockets! They hold a world of fashion interest!

72⁵⁰

YOUTHMORE Original

Miller's