The meeting for the coming year will be the last Sunday in August at one of the Portland parks.

A small white turnip peeled and diced, gives a tangy flavor to an ordinary vegetable soup. Add a bouquet of herbs to the soup, too; you can make it by tying a bay leaf, a celery top, a sprig of parsley, and one of thyme together. Remove the "bouquet" before serving.

Are Newlyweds—Mr. and Mrs. Jack Eugene Mudd (Laura Yvonne Bailey) were married in mid-August at Hood River. Mr. Mudd is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Russell Mudd of Salem. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William E. Bailey of Hood River. (Kay's studio, Hood River)

BERGMAN-RUSSELLINI ROMANCE

Friends Say Ingrid in Love Really for the First Time

(Editor's Note—Here is the first full story of the romance of Ingrid Bergman and Italian Director Roberto Rossellini, as told by sources intimately connected with the couple.)

Rome, Italy, Sept. 1 (AP)—Ingrid Bergman is deeply in love for perhaps the first time in her life. She and Roberto Rossellini, Italian director who has won her heart, will be married as soon as she gets a divorce from Dr. Peter Lindstrom, her husband for 11 years.

Hurt and puzzled by criticism of her love affair, she plans never to make another movie in Hollywood and may never appear on the screen again.

Sources intimately associated with the actress and her director-sweetheart say she cannot understand why her fans have turned against her.

The other day she took a letter from a batch of fan mail and handed it to a friend. It was from an outraged man in the states who said he had read of her intention to seek a divorce.

"I will never trust another woman as long as I live," the letter said.

The blonde Swedish actress shook her head sadly.

"People write me this way as though I did not have the same right they have—the right to happiness," she said.

In her eyes, she has done nothing that would not have been done by any honest woman who found herself deeply in love for perhaps the first time in her life.

As soon as she and Rossellini realized they were in love, she asked her husband to come to Sicily. There she told him frankly of her decision to ask for a divorce. Friends said she was too fond of him to remain under his roof once she found herself in love with someone else.

According to friends, her feeling toward Lindstrom, now a Hollywood surgeon, was and is composed of affection and respect. But for Rossellini, they said, she feels the love she had portrayed in such movies as "For Whom the Bell Tolls."

Massing—Russia is reported massing troops from Austria, Hungary, and Romania, near the Yugoslav frontier, only a day's drive across flat plains from Belgrade. Five armored divisions, estimated at 50,000 men, 500 tanks and numerous warplanes are along a 150-mile arc curving from Timisoara (1), Romania to Mohacs (2), Hungary. Hungarian troops are concentrated in the Keckemet area. (Acme Telephoto)

WEEK-DAY SUPPER
Tomato and Cucumber Soup
Swiss Cheese Souffle
Shoestring Potatoes
Sautéed Pineapple Slices
Buttered Asparagus
Bread and Butter
Vanilla Wafers Beverage
Swiss Cheese Souffle

Ingredients: 3 tablespoons of butter or margarine, 4 tablespoons all-purpose flour, 1 cup milk, ½ teaspoon salt, 1 cup coarsely-grated firmly packed real Swiss cheese, 4 eggs (separated).

Method: Melt the butter or margarine over low heat in a heavy saucepan; remove from heat and blend in the flour well. Add the milk slowly, stirring until smooth after each addition. Return to low heat and, stirring constantly, cook until smooth and thick. Add the salt and Swiss cheese and, keeping heat very low, stir rapidly until cheese is melted and mixture is smooth. Remove at once from heat and set aside. Beat the egg whites with a rotary beater or electric mixer until they form peaks that bend over slightly when beater is slowly withdrawn. Without washing beater, beat yolks until they begin to get pale and thick; add the beaten yolks to the cheese mixture slowly, stirring vigorously as you do so. Now pour the cheese mixture slowly onto the beaten whites, and cut and fold in as you do so; do not stir, but cut and fold until the two mixtures are well blended. Turn into a 6-cup casserole (do not grease it). Run the tip of a teaspoon around the top of the mixture one inch from the edge of the casserole, making a slight track, so souffle will have an attractive "cap" when it is baked. Bake in a slow (300F.) oven for 1¼ hours. Serve immediately. 4 servings.

Church Dedication Slated for Lebanon

Lebanon—President Oscar A. Kirkham will dedicate the building of the Lebanon branch of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints on Sunday, Sept. 4. The building was purchased a year ago, and has undergone extensive remodeling. In addition to President Kirkham, Joel Richards, president of the Northwestern States Mission will be a speaker. Arrangements are under the direction of the Lebanon branch president, W. Glen Osborn, and district president, Dr. Hugh F. Webb of Corvallis.
