

ONE of the Salem women's organizations launching the new fall and winter program next week is the local branch of the American Association of University Women.

Miss Elise Schroeder, president, has called a meeting of the board for Tuesday evening at her home, 388 North Winter. A new board member to be welcomed is Mrs. Robert Gangware, who is to be international relations chairman. The first general AAUW meeting is planned as a luncheon on September 24.

By Marian Lowry Fischer

FORMAL announcement is being made of the engagement of Miss Janet Rilea to Donald D. Farnam, friends of the duo previously having been told the news.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mrs. Marion Wheeler Rilea of Salem and Major General Thomas E. Rilea of Salem and Portland. She was graduated this year from University of Oregon and is a member of Kappa Alpha Theta sorority.

Mr. Farnam, who is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester B. Farnam of Salem, is a student at University of Oregon where he is a member of Phi Delta Theta fraternity. During the war he served in the army air force.

No plans are announced for the wedding.

Announcement is made by Mr. and Mrs. Howard Post of the engagement and forthcoming marriage of their daughter, Miss Shirley Post, to Harold McCauley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ray H. McCauley.

The wedding is planned for the afternoon of Sunday, October 23, in St. Paul's Episcopal church at 4 o'clock.

Both young people are graduates of Salem schools and Mr. McCauley is to be a student at Oregon College of Education in Monmouth this year.

Among events for tomorrow will be the informal at home for which Mr. and Mrs. Paul A. Hale are to entertain in honor of their son, Midshipman Paul Allen Hale, who is home from the U.S. Naval Academy at Annapolis. A large group of friends has been invited to call between 4 and 9 o'clock.

Mrs. William Dolf, Mrs. Henry Hansen, Mrs. William Connell Dyer, Mrs. David H. Cameron, Mrs. H. Lawrence Lister of Portland, Mrs. Adam Lefor, Mrs. Hugh Taylor, Mrs. John Powell of Turner, Mrs. Rex Kimmell and Mrs. Deryl Myers are to pour.

Assisting about the rooms and with the serving will be Miss Patricia Lister and Miss Jewell Buraker of Portland, Miss Patricia Myers, Miss Shirley Zahler, Miss Mary Scott, Miss Beverly Nelson, Mrs. Pauline Tidwell, Misses Doris and Patricia Hale, sisters of the honoree. Midshipman Hale is leaving September 13 for his third year at the academy.

Returning this week-end from a stay at Neskonwin are Mr. and Mrs. Richard Grabenhorst and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burrell.

Miss Donna Jean Pence, daughter of the Roy Pences, and Miss Betty Lee Waldorf, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Waldorf of Kimberly, formerly of Salem, left this morning for San Francisco where they will enroll in the dental

AT A DOUBLE WEDDING Saturday evening, September 3, these two sisters were wed. They are the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Hubbell W. Young. At left is Mrs. Stanley Ralph Underwood, the former Jane Young, who will live at McMinnville; and at right is her sister, Mrs. Frank Lauritzen, formerly Carol Young, who will make her home in Oakland, Calif.

School Bells Ring Monday, Meaning Fall Definitely Is Here

TOMMY PARKER

KATHRYN LANHAM

A NEW ADVENTURE—SCHOOL—begins Monday for hundreds of Salem's six-year olds, and the school administration reports a bumper crop of them. Overlooked perhaps in all the activities centering around vacation, State Fair and other events of the summer, these little folk have been doing a lot of thinking and wondering about the new life ahead. Representative of those who enter the first grade this fall are the two above. At left, Thomas Parker, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parker, waves to "Mommy" as he gets set to go to school. There is a flicker of doubt on Tommy's face, perhaps over "this picture business," or maybe about school. He will enroll at Bush. At right, Kathryn Lanham is about to race off the home steps in anticipation of school's first day, her big smile revealing another of the trials of six-year-olds—a missing tooth! Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Lanham, she will enter McKinley school.

nursing school. Their mothers accompanied them to the Bay City for a short stay there.

Students Returning to Colleges

It's back to school for the teen-agers and college youth as well as the little tots.

This week-end found a general exodus of college young men and women to Eugene to return to their work at University of Oregon, rush week and freshmen week opening Monday.

The Corvallis bound contingent goes next week, Oregon State college resuming its year September 13.

Among those heading for Eugene this week-end have been Miss Suzanne Huggins, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles H. Huggins; Miss Frances Baum, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. W. Baum; Jim and Bill Barlow, sons of Mrs. H. H. Barlow; Don Pickett, son of the Howard R. Picketts; Miss Roberta Tussing, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. S. Tussing; Miss Joanne and Jack Fitzmaurice, daughter and son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert M. Fitzmaurice; Miss Barbara Sundet, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Sundet; Miss Charlotte Alexander, daughter of the George Alexanders; Miss Jeanne Hoffman, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. G. S. Hoffman; Miss Crystal Huntington, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis W. Huntington; Miss Josephine Caughell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Caughell; Arthur Engelbart, son of the A. J. Engelbarts; Miss Irene McLeod, daughter of Mrs. L. C. McLeod; Don Farnham, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester B. Farnham; Miss Jane Carson, daughter of the John Carsons.

There will be quite a colony of Salem newlyweds living in Eugene this year, too, the young men completing their work at the university. Among them are Mr. and Mrs. Lester D. Green (Marylou McKay); Mr. and Mrs. John P. Maulding (Margaret-Jane Cooley); Mr. and Mrs. Oscar C. Christensen, Jr. (Mary Reimann); Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Steeves (Shirley Lukins); Mr. and Mrs. Dale Crandall, Jr. (Yvonne Gray); Mr. and Mrs. Raymond H. Crumme (Marilyn Hjort); Mr. and Mrs. Robert W. Strebig (Phyllis Schnell).

Return to OSC

Among Salem young folk planning to leave next week for Oregon State college to resume their studies there are Miss Merle Rhoten, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rhoten; Miss Mariann Croisan, daughter of the George W. Croisans; Miss Marianne Bonesteel, daughter of the Wallace Bonesteels; Miss Peggy Burroughs, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Julian Burroughs; Miss Janet Lindley, daughter of the J. C. Lindleys; Miss Jean Pickens, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Pickens; Misses Marilyn and Lois Burris, daughters of the W. D. Burris; Miss Marilyn Hill, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elmore Hill; Miss Nancy Buren, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Wolcott E. Buren; Miss Nancy Snyder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Snyder; Miss Janet Miller, daughter of the Carl R. Millers; John Reeves, son of

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Reeves; Carlos Houck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Houck; Miss Marian Carson, daughter of the Allan Carsons; Miss Claralyn Lee, daughter of the Lloyd Lees; Bill Rock, son of Mr. and Mrs. F. C. Rock; Ralph Lisle, son of Mrs. Zeda Lisle; Miss Patricia Flora, daughter of the Hal Floras; Miss Joanne Blaxall, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Blaxall.

KD Dance club has arranged a party for this evening in the Four Corners hall, dancing to be between 9 and 1 o'clock. On the committee are Mr. and Mrs. Tom Bowden, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Hughes, Mr. and Mrs. John Coomler.

Gaiety Hill Garden club will be entertained Monday by Mrs. J. N. Bishop at her home, luncheon to be at 1 p.m.

At Horse Show

The week-long horse show at the State Fair reaches its climax this evening and a brilliant event is anticipated. Many out-of-town folk are expected for this evening's program.

Topping the program in interest is the roadsters $550 bike stake, special attraction here centering around Sir Laurel Guy, prize horse of Senator Wayne L. Morse. The horse has consistently taken blue ribbons throughout the week in this division and was the 1948 grand champion for this event. Tonight brings the final performance for the division.

Senator and Mrs. Morse and their three attractive daughters, Misses Nancy, Judy and Amy, have been visitors in Salem for the entire State Fair week, many valley friends greeting them while in the capital. The senator and Mrs. Morse and the two younger daughters leave next week to return to Washington, D.C. Miss Nancy Morse to remain in Eugene. She will enter the University of Oregon this next week as a freshman.

Preceding this evening's horse show, Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay are entertaining at a buffet supper at their home for about 30, honoring officials here with Army day events at the Fair today.

Programmed for this evening at the horse show are the hunters class, the three-gaited saddle horses, the hackney harness ponies, the roadsters to wagon event, fine harness horses, the five-gaited saddle horses; and of course the rodeo acts.

Some horse show classes are booked in conjunction with the rodeo show Sunday afternoon starting at 2 o'clock.

Rushing Will Start Wednesday

With Willamette university opening a new year next week, several groups are busy with plans for "rush week," which begins on Wednesday among the four Greek letter sororities on the campus. The rush week events are scheduled for four days only, arranged by the Willamette group of Panhellenic.

Wednesday afternoon, each of the campus sororities, Alpha Chi Omega, Pi Beta Phi, Delta Gamma and Chi Omega, will entertain at an open house between 3 and 5 o'clock.

All Willamette women students now on the campus are invited to these open house events.

At 7 p.m. Wednesday the rushees will go to the Panhellenic office for their invitations to Thursday's parties.

Afternoon function Thursday will be between 3 and 4 o'clock at each of the four sororities, and the evening events between 7 and 8 o'clock and between 8:15 and 9:15 o'clock.

Friday morning at 11:30 o'clock the rushees will pick up their invitations for the Friday activities.

The afternoon functions for Friday will be between 2:45 and 3:45 o'clock at each of the houses, the second one between 4 and 5 o'clock.

Rushees will pick up their preference dates at 7 p.m. Friday in the Panhellenic office.

Preference luncheon is to be between 1 and 2 o'clock Saturday in each of the sororities, the formal preference dinner between 6 and 8 o'clock that evening.

The rushees will receive their bids in the Panhellenic office at 8:45 o'clock Saturday evening, going to the sorority of their choice at 9:15 o'clock. Each sorority is giving a pledge fireside between 9:15 and 11 o'clock that evening.

Miss Jackie Chute is acting chairman for Panhellenic during the rush week festivities. The four sorority rush chairmen in Panhellenic are: Miss Maxine Muckie, Pi Beta Phi; Miss Chute, Alpha Chi Omega; Miss Martha Brooks, Delta Gamma; Miss Bo Brooks, Chi Omega.

The officers of Panhellenic are Miss Chute as acting chairman; Miss Midge Newton, vice president; Miss Polly Pollock, secretary; Miss Dolores Banz, treasurer.

Mrs. C. R. Nelson is Panhellenic adviser on the campus and will be at her office throughout each day during rush week to give assistance and advice to the freshmen women.

Wed in the Christian and Missionary Alliance church at Dallas the evening of September 2 were Miss Beryl Ruth Pope, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Rollin O. Pope of Dallas, and Charles W. Mary, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Mary, Sr., also of Dallas. Yellow and orchid gladioluses, ferns and lighted tapers decorated the church, the double ring ceremony being solemnized at 8 o'clock with the Rev. Arthur Hoenisch of Coos Bay reading the vows. Mrs. P. W. Ediger played the wedding marches and Walter Schmitke was soloist. The Rev. Mr. Hoenisch sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the conclusion of the service, Mrs. Ediger accompanying.

Mr. Pope gave his daughter in marriage. Her gown was of white satin and net and the full length veil fell from a coronet of silk net and seed pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses centered with an orchid and tied with satin ribbons.

Miss Evelyn Neufeld was the maid of honor and Miss Stella Bookey and Miss Elvina Frey were the bridesmaids. They were dressed in identical frocks of taffeta in pastel shades of orchid, lilac-green and yellow. Miss Neufeld carried a nosegay of yellow rosebuds with lace and satin ribbons and the flowers of the bridesmaids were gladioluses in shades of cream and orchid tied with satin ribbons and lace.

Joan and Richard Mary, twin brother and sister of the bridegroom, lighted the tapers, Joan in a pastel blue floor length dress and Richard in white trousers and navy blue coat. Janet Krause and Joyce Ramsey of Salem, nieces of the bride, were flower girls, dressed alike in pink organdy frocks.

Burton Pope, twin brother of the bride, acted as best man and the ushers were Wayne Fleming, Harvey Schmidt and Vernon Pope.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Pope chose a two-piece dress of orchid crepe with black accessories and her corsage was of gardenias and yellow rosebuds. Mrs. Mary, mother of the bridegroom, wore a soft blue dress and a corsage of gardenias and pink rosebuds.

The reception following the ceremony was in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, which were decorated with bouquets of gladioluses and asters. The bride's table, covered with a white lace cloth, was centered by a three-tiered wedding cake made and decorated by her mother. While the guests were being served, Mrs. Schmitke played several selections on the marimba and Miss Eva Jean Miller of Rickreall sang.

Mrs. Vernon Pope served the wedding cake and Mrs. Harvey Ewert poured while Mrs. Gerald Morlan presided at the punch bowl. Miss Joyce Friesen, Miss Darlene Balzer and Miss Patsy Ediger served at the bride's table. Mrs. Harold Dickman passed the guest book. In charge of gifts were Mrs. Carol Krause, Miss Jean Ramsey and Miss Leola Wall.

Out of town guests attending the wedding were the bridegroom's grandmother, Mrs. Henry of Pasadena, Calif., F. L. Cunday of Sharpsburg, Iowa, an uncle of the bride, and Mrs. Mabel Coulthard of Kelso, Wash.

After a wedding trip to Mt. Rainier and into Canada the young couple will make their home in Salem. Mr. Mary to continue his work at Willamette university. He was in the navy during the war.

Planned for Saturday evening, September 17, is the wedding of Miss Barbara Hartman and George Flawn, the ceremony to be at 8 o'clock in the evening at the First Congregational church, Dr. Seth R. Huntington officiating.

Miss Bonita Hartman, sister of the bride-to-be, will be the honor attendant. Del Hartman, brother of Miss Hartman, is to be best man, and Miss Carol Flawn, sister of Mr. Flawn, will be the junior attendant for the bride.

The reception following will be in the church.

Miss Hartman is the daughter of Mrs. George Conklin of Portland and William Hartman of Coos Bay. Mr. Flawn is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Flawn of Salem.

Miss Marie Stabenow is vacationing in Oregon, arriving here by plane from San Francisco. She is guest of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stabenow, in Salem, and her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Van Orden at Grand Ronde. Miss Stabenow also plans to visit at the home of a brother in Portland before flying south.

Governor and Mrs. Douglas McKay will be among special guests attending the convention of Neighbors of Woodcraft circles of the western states in Portland Sunday evening, a special ceremonial being arranged at that time.

The board of directors and officers for Salem YWCA will hold its September meeting Tuesday morning at 9:45 o'clock at the YW.

WED LAST SUNDAY were Mr. and Mrs. John S. Horton, shown here at the reception following the service. The bride is the former Florence Duffy, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. P. Duffy. Mr. Horton is the son of Dr. and Mrs. H. J. Horton of Baker. The couple will reside in Baker, Mr. Horton to practice law there.