

AT THE First Congregational church this evening will be a wedding of interest to many friends, Miss Marjorie Tate, daughter of the Ulwin M. Tate of Sublimity, to be married to Lawrence Christian, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence R. Christian of Lebanon. The service will be at 8 o'clock; Dr. Seth R. Huntington officiating.

The reception following is to be in the church fireplace room. Mrs. E. M. Page, aunt of the bride-to-be, is to have charge of the dining room. Assisting at the reception will be Mrs. George B. Evans of Portland, Mrs. Chester Mulkey, Mrs. Lyle Rain, Mrs. John H. Rankin, of Portland, Mrs. Cora Hagedorn of Eugene, Mrs. Albert E. Tate of Portland and Miss Zelma King.

Miss Gloria Merten is to have charge of the guest book. Assisting with the serving will be Mrs. Wilfred E. Cole, Mrs. Donald Marshall, Mrs. Scott Adams of Portland, Mrs. Leonard Odum, Miss Jean Fidler, Miss Carolyn Carson, Miss Addy Lane, Miss Carroll Gragg, Miss Roberta Meyer, Miss Beverly Belle-Ise, Miss Carol Lee Tate.

In the wedding party are Mrs. Robert Bryant as matron of honor, Mrs. John P. Maulding, Mrs. John R. Gilbertson, Miss Virginia Nikand and Miss Patricia Christian as bridesmaids; Loret King as flower girl. Alan McEachran will be best man and ushering are to be John P. Maulding, Donald Van Zyl, Thomas Young and William Juz. Mrs. Scott Adams of Portland is to be soloist, Jean Hobson Rich at the organ.

Mrs. L. H. Mittendorf and Mrs. Al Lane are to be co-hostesses for a meeting of Rotana club, Monday evening, at 8 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Mittendorf, 2130 Myrtle.

Planned for next Tuesday evening is the recreation meeting for the Salem Business and Professional Women's club, the event to be in the Salem Woman's club, at 8 o'clock.

There will be entertainment. The members of the recreation committee for the event include Mrs. Effie King, chairman; Mrs. Mabel Clock, Mrs. Frank P. Marshall, Mrs. Henrietta Low, Miss Lois Ohmart.

Fall Brings Club Activities, Too; Salem Women's Groups See Busy Year Ahead

MRS. CARL E. NELSON

MRS. GORDON O. LEONARD

AMONG groups starting a new season is Chadwick assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, the first fall meeting being scheduled for next Tuesday evening in the Masonic temple. This is to be a formal event.

The majority degree is to be conferred upon Misses Patricia Long, Patricia Powell, Joan Schwarz, Joyce Smith, Lola Mae Windecker, Lola Mae Cantway, Barbara Hendrickson, Marilyn Hill and Margaret-Jane Emmons. Members of Mt. Scott assembly, Portland, will be guests.

The local assembly is to elect officers at this meeting. Miss Gladys Book is retiring worthy adviser.

A wedding of interest to many friends for this evening is that of Miss Janice Middleton and LaVern Hiebert, the ceremony to be solemnized at 8 o'clock in the First Methodist church, the Rev. Brooks Moore officiating.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mrs. E. L. Crawford and the grand-daughter of Mrs. Lelace H. Ellis of Salem. Mr. Hiebert is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Nels E. Hiebert of Salem.

Soloist is Ronald Craven, Joe Brazie and Mrs. Ronald Craven at the organ. Roger Middleton is to give his sister in marriage. Mrs. Allan Bartlett of Ocean-lake is to be honor attendant, Miss Lois Ruecker, Miss Patricia Carver and Mrs. Stanley Girod (Barbara Halvarson), the bridesmaids. Jerry Clay is best man and ushering will be Darwyn Hiebert, brother of Mr. Hiebert, Dan McCall and Richard Cole.

The reception is to be in the church Carrier room. Mrs. William Howard is to serve the cake. Mrs. Frank Hiebert of Dallas, aunt of Mr. Hiebert, and Mrs. John A. Graef of Spokane, aunt of Miss Middleton, are to pour. Assisting with the serving are to be Miss Patricia Long, Mrs. Jerry Clay and Mrs. Bryce White; and Mrs. Steven Anderson is to pass the guest book.

Miss Dona Adams of Portland is here for the week-end as guest of Miss Avis Roberts. On Monday she goes to Cathlamet, Wash. to begin work on the newspaper there. Miss Adams was graduated in June from Willamette university.

These Four Head Local Organizations

These next few weeks will find scores of the Salem women's organizations launched into a new year of activity.

Mrs. Carl E. Nelson, upper left, is this year's president of the Salem General Hospital auxiliary. Each year the auxiliary purchases some major equipment for the hospital through silver teas, rummage sales and membership dues, and this year is an especially important one with the Salem Hospital Development program under way.

Mrs. Gordon O. Leonard, upper right picture, is president of the Salem Memorial Hospital auxiliary. This group also carries on a comprehensive program of service to the hospital, assisting in buying equipment and also working in the program of hospital development for Salem.

Mrs. Ralph H. Cooley, left below, is president of the Women of Rotary for the coming year, the group meeting once a month for a social and program gathering. The group is for wives of Rotary members.

Mrs. Wayne Doughton, right below, is president of the Lions auxiliary, another active local service club auxiliary. The group carries on several community and philanthropic projects during the year, meeting once each month.

Sojourners club met Thursday afternoon at the Salem Woman's club. New members welcomed were Mrs. Louis Urtz and Mrs. Wallace Mills. Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Woodson Bennett, Mrs. Bruce Knapp and Mrs. R. H. Anderson.

Mrs. Frank Ward was named chairman for the nominating committee to report at the next meeting. Winners at bridge were Mrs. Lyle Dempewolf, Mrs. Harold Heiserman, Mrs. Frank Ward, Mrs. August Rigby, and in pinochle, Mrs. Louis Urtz.

The Jason Lee Wesleyan Service guild is meeting Monday at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Joe Bourne, 1625 North 19th. Mrs. Louis Lorenze, Mrs. Russell Bright and Mrs. C. Ward Davis are co-hostesses.

Soroptimist club's luncheon meeting will be Wednesday noon in the Golden Pheasant.

DAR Conference

Planned for next Saturday, September 17, is a conference for the second district, Daughters of the American Revolution, the event to be in Salem. Mrs. C. B. Wilson of Newberg is district chairman.

Chapters from: Albany, Lebanon, Corvallis, Eugene, McMinnville, Newberg, Woodburn, Salem will be represented, and an invitation is extended to all DAR members to attend the gathering.

The meeting will open at 10 a.m. in the Copper room at the Senator hotel, members of Chemeketa chapter in Salem assisting in greeting the visitors.

Luncheon will be at 12 o'clock in the Cherriam room at the Senator hotel. Charles A. Sprague, local publisher, is to be special speaker. Mrs. David H. Cameron is to sing and presenting piano numbers will be Mrs. R. T. Worley, regent of the Albany chapter.

Mrs. Ruth Herndon is regent of Chemeketa chapter here and reservations may be made with her.

MRS. RALPH H. COOLEY

Miss Crosby Wed This Morning

Wed this morning in St. Luke's Catholic church in Woodburn was Miss Florence Crosby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Cyrilus J. Crosby of Woodburn, and Norman Nibler, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. E. Nibler of Gervais, the service taking place at 9 o'clock with the Rev. Valentine Moffenbeier officiating. For the wedding music, Bernard Smith sang and Mrs. Marie Dennelly was at the organ.

Asters and dahlias decorated the church for the wedding.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a white slipper satin gown. It was fashioned with quilted satin motif in front and back, satin buttons down the back to the waist-line, long sleeves pointed at the wrists and a skirt extending into a full train. The fingertip veil of illusion, lace edged, cascaded from a satin and seed pearl crown. For her flowers the bride carried a cascade bouquet of pink Rapture roses and stephanotis, centered with an orchid and tied with net satin ribbon.

Mrs. Robert Crosby was matron of honor for her sister-in-law. Her gown was of yellow moire taffeta with matching yellow and white hand crocheted calotte. Her flowers were a colonial bouquet with ribbon petals and streamers.

Little Barbara Crosby, niece of the bride, wearing a dress identical to that of the honor attendant, was the flower girl and she carried a miniature bouquet matching the one carried by her mother.

Carl Nibler was best man for his brother. Ushering were Robert Crosby, brother of the bride and William Nebler, brother of the bridegroom.

For the wedding the bride's dress was attired in a navy blue crepe dress with black accessories and a corsage of pink roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a green silk dress with black accessories.

The wedding and corsage of Talisman roses.

The wedding breakfast following the ceremony was at the country home of the bride's parents. Serving were Mrs. Robert Reichenbach, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Vince Brus.

The reception following the breakfast also was at the Crosby residence. Mrs. Joseph McCormick, aunt of the bride, served the cake. Mrs. Gertrude Jensen, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Cora Miller poured. Mrs. Francis Kuensting, cousin of the bride, and Mrs. Charles Johnston, also a cousin, had charge of the gift table. Miss Helen Snyder passed the guest book. Assisting about the room were Miss Dora Barrett, Miss Doris Barrett and Mrs. James Steffen.

Varied colored asters and dahlias decorated the home for the reception.

For going away the bride wore a forest green suit with gray topper, black accessories and corsage of orchids.

Following a trip to California the couple will be at home in Woodburn, after September 20.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Potter of Los Angeles have returned to their home following a visit with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ed Potter.

Auxiliary Event

Salem Memorial Hospital auxiliary has arranged a meeting for Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the hospital chapel.

New officers to be installed are: Mrs. Gordon O. Leonard, president; Mrs. Ed Goekner, vice president; Mrs. Eugene Anderson, secretary; Mrs. Howard Doak, treasurer; Mrs. P. W. Geiser, Mrs. M. B. Rudd, Mrs. Richard Upjohn, board members.

THE MARRIAGE OF Mrs. James Paul Woodruffe was solemnized August 27. She is the former Constance Louise Coking, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Coking. Mr. Woodruffe is the son of Mrs. N. S. Woodruffe.

BRIDE ON September 3 at an afternoon ceremony was Mrs. Orville Wendell Kanner, Jr., the former Alicia Cover, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. B. Cover. Mr. Kanner is the son of Mr. and Mrs. O. W. Kanner.

MRS. WAYNE DOUGHTON

New Year for Junior Woman's Club

First business meeting of the new club year for the Junior Woman's Club is to be held Monday evening at the woman's club house with members of the hospitality and friendship committee in charge.

Dessert will be served and the evening will be informally following the business session. Mrs. Sam C. Campbell will preside as president.

Big event of the club for the early fall will be its dessert luncheon and style revue the afternoon of Thursday, September 22, at the American Legion club.

Fashion Event Interests

Already a large group has made reservations for the fashion revue. Among them are Mrs. George Patterson, Mrs. Mason DeNeffe, Mrs. Collis Johnson of Portland and a group of eight with her, Mrs. Fred Davis, Mrs. W. T. Waterman, Mrs. Clayton Foreman, Mrs. Hugh Adams, Mrs. M. K. Crothers, Mrs. W. N. Johnston, Mrs. Charles Campbell, Mrs. Jack Muller, Mrs. Robert E. Joseph, Mrs. Russel E. Pratt, Mrs. M. A. Pekar, Mrs. Gene Vandenevnde, Mrs. Robert Needham, Mrs. Roy H. Simmons, Mrs. Lenore Parks, Mrs. Paul Lardon, Mrs. Jack Kuhn, Mrs. William Crothers, Mrs. Lester Carter, Mrs. Chandler Brown, Mrs. J. N. Bishop, Mrs. Horace McGee, Mrs. John R. Wood, Mrs. Loyce Warner, Mrs. Forrest Bodmer, Mrs. Walter Cline, Jr.

Mrs. William Judson, chairman, Mrs. Milo Van Houten, Mrs. Frank Ward, Mrs. Maurice Walker, Mrs. Roy Mink and Mrs. Fred Gast are the committee in charge of the fashion show. Grace's shop is to present the fall fashions.

With the start of the new year for the group, announcement is made of the chairman for the standing committees: Mrs. Campbell will preside; Mrs. Wakefield Walker, hospitality and friendship committee; Mrs. Charles LeRoy Mink, membership; Mrs. Don Cannon, auditing; Mrs. C. M. Collins, club history; Miss Betty Jean Berger, Boomerang, the club paper; Mrs. Clinton Ault, yearbook.

Department chairmen include the following:

Mrs. Wallace Wilson, American citizenship; Mrs. Wesley Goodrich applied education; Mrs. Frank Ward, fine arts; Mrs. Terry Randall, American home; Mrs. Milo Van Houten, institutions; Mrs. Peery T. Buren, legislation; Mrs. James Mohatt, public welfare; Mrs. Fred Gast, international relations; Mrs. Ralph Atwood, youth conservation.

St. Paul—A silver tea and open house are planned Sunday in the new St. Paul's Catholic church parish house between 2 and 5 o'clock in the afternoon and 7 and 10 o'clock in the evening. The new parish house is located on the site of the old one that was built 103 years ago.

Mrs. John McKillip is president of the Altar society which is sponsoring the tea. On the committee are Mrs. Clement Van de Wiele, Mrs. Ray Manegre, Mrs. Bernard Brentano, Mrs. Lester Kirk, Mrs. Leo Ferschweiler, Mrs. Gerald Connor, Jr., Mrs. Carl J. Smith. A large group will be pouring and assisting in serving.

Invitation is extended to all interested to call.

The Rev. Brooks Moore, pastor of the church, is to be speaker for the meeting of Wesleyan Service guild of the First Methodist church Monday evening. The meeting is to be at 8 o'clock at the home of Miss Mildred Yetter, 1010 North 18th. The Rev. Moore will talk on "Our Faith." Co-hostesses are Miss Dorothy Butts and Mrs. Hallie Shard.