Miss Richards Recent Bride

Monmouth—At a beautiful ceremony read in St. Mary's Catholic church in Corvallis at 3 o'clock Saturday afternoon, September 3, Miss Marcella Richards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Richards of Suver, was married to Alfred Pfeifer, son of Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Pfeifer of Glide.

Lighted candles and baskets of white gladioluses flanked the altar. Father Reedy read the single ring ceremony. Mrs. Opal Martin Johnston accompanied Miss Marilyn Jowell of Corvallis, who sang, and later played the wedding march.

The bride entering with her father wore a white satin gown made en train. The bodice was fashioned with a wide berthia yolk of net and long sleeves. The double fingertip net veil fell from a coronet of white net and seed pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of pink roses and stephanotis with shower ribbons of white satin.

Miss Marian Templeton of Enterprise was maid of honor and Misses Ruth Lomash and Lita Jean McKinnel, both of Portland, were bridesmaids. Miss Templeton wore aqua satin and the bridesmaids wore identical dresses of yellow satin. All three, sorority sisters of the bride, wore matching braided head bands and carried bouquets of brilliant painted daisies with multicolored streamers.

Claudia Yung, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. V. Yung, and Judith Richards, the bride's nieces were flower girls. Eldon Pfeiffer of Beaverton served as best man for his brother, and Ralph Richards, the bride's brother, Suver; Calvin Massey; Weyn Oliver, Roseburg; and Keith Bisby, Corvallis were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding Mrs. Richards wore a navy blue crepe afternoon dress with navy and pink accessories. Mrs. Pfeiffer wore a black and white print afternoon dress with black and white accessories.

A wedding reception followed in the Alpha Sigma Phi fraternity where the rooms were decorated with coral and white gladioluses and silver candelabras with pale green candles. Mrs. Loren Lind of Creswell, the bridegroom's sister, and Mrs. Lloyd Cox of Prouser, Wash., the bride's aunt, posed, and Mrs. Ralph Richards, sister-in-law of the bride, cut the cake.

Assisting about the room were Misses Marleen Brown, Betty Jo Maxon and Mrs. Keith Bixby all of Corvallis. Miss Beverly Hathaway, Corvallis, had charge of the guest book.

Mrs. Pfeiffer wore for her wedding trip to British Columbia, a slate satin dress with matching accessories and a white orchid corsage. They will live in Corvallis.

Mrs. Pfeiffer was graduated from Corvallis high school and attended Oregon State college two years where she is a member of Alpha Delta Pi sorority. Mr. Pfeiffer was graduated from Glide high school and will be a senior at OSC this fall. He served 18 months in the army.

Mrs. Gray Honored At Birthday Event

Mrs. and Mrs. Elmer Worth entertained Saturday evening to honor Mrs. Worth's mother, Mrs. James H. Gray, on the occasion of the latter's birthday anniversary.

About 30 members of the family and friends were invited for an informal evening, late refreshments being served.

Mrs. Hagedorn Birthday Feted

Mrs. W. J. Hagedorn, who observed her 80th birthday Saturday, was honored at two events by her family over the week-end.

Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Hauser entertained at a dinner for Mrs. Hagedorn, those attending including Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hagedorn and members of their family.

Sunday afternoon an informal at home was given at the Hagedorn residence, some 80 guests calling. Assisting at the affair were Mrs. Glenn Adams, Mrs. Sarah Peterson, Mrs. Fred Lupp, Mrs. Charles E. Pratt, Mrs. Maye Butler, Miss Donna Hagedorn, Mrs. Leslie Kopschke, Mrs. Emma Ulery played violin numbers. Mrs. Laura Tandy passed the guest book.

Joining the Hagedorns for the observance honoring Mrs. Hagedorn were their three sons and wives, Mr. and Mrs. Dale Hagedorn of Myrtle Point, Mr. and Mrs. Ora Hagedorn of Prineville, Mr. and Mrs. Murrel Hagedorn of Portland, as well as the son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Hauser.

The reception following was in the church parlors. Mrs. E. Vigne cut the cake. Miss Berg Sandvik, Miss Marian Jorgensen and Mrs. K. Olson poured.

For traveling the bride wore a navy blue suit with matching accessories and a hat of pink, and with the costume the white orchid from her bridal arrangement.

The couple left for a wedding trip along the Oregon coast and and to be at home at 10 North Summer street, Portland, after October 1.

Beta Sigma Phi Groups Active

Alpha Epsilon and Eta chapters of Beta Sigma Phi, international educational and cultural sorority, soon will be resuming their fall and winter activities. Eta chapter meets Wednesday of this week and Alpha Epsilon chapter is to meet September 24.

The Beta Sigma Phi city council announces the close of a varied summer social season and resumption of the regular bi-weekly chapter meetings. The organization's planned cultural programs are featured at these regular meetings. Among the fall chapter activities is the official rushing program. This program is carried out in co-ordination with more than 3000 chapters of the international organization, throughout the United States, Alaska and Canada and is even participated in by chapters in England, Scotland, Hawaii, Guam, Cuba and the Canal Zone. Chapters established for American members living in Germany and Japan will also take part.

Mrs. William Collier and Mrs. Rodger Lewis who are vice presidents and official rush captains in charge of rushing activities for Alpha Epsilon and Eta chapters here in Salem, state that the September-October rushing events will include rush parties, model meetings, and a preferential tea. The membership committee in conjunction with the social committee is now completing plans for the rushing activities, which will be announced at an early date. The rush captains have indicated that the rushing program, which has for its theme "Vision," is being planned along lines which will more fully acquaint the community with the scope and achievements of this organization. The local chapter's officers are beginning their active term of office and Mrs. E. O. Bishop and Mrs. Burl Cox are presidents of the two local groups.

The international headquarters of Beta Sigma Phi are in Kansas City, Missouri and the organization has a total membership of approximately 100,000 young women including the junior affiliate group, Nu Phi Mu.

Beta Sigma Phi has its own international endowment fund for the benefit of humanity, of which the immediate project is sponsoring two scientists in can-

Miss Prosser Bride Sept. 3 At Ceremony in Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel—In candlelight ceremonies Saturday morning Miss Dorothy Prosser was wed to Alcuin Beyer, son of John Beyer and the late Mrs. Beyer. Setting for the nuptial high mass and doubling rites was St. Mary's Catholic church, where white gladioluses and greenery decorated the altar and sanctuary where the bridal couple knelt. The Rev. Damian Jentges, OSB, officiated at 8:30 o'clock, and read the vows before a large number of relatives and friends. James Prosser, brother of the bride, and Robert Frank, cousin of the bridegroom, served at the altar.

Daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred A. Prosser, the bride was escorted to the altar by her father. Her wedding gown was of traditional white satin, styled with nylon yoke, Chantilly lace at the portrait neckline, long sleeves ending in calla points on the fitted bodice which was buttoned with self covered buttons down the back, and full skirt.

The long train was encircled with the same Chantilly lace. The waist-length veil of illusion was held by a bonnet of pleated satin and lace, and the bride carried a bouquet of white tuberosus begonias and satin streamers. For sentiment she wore her mother's rhinestone lavalier which she had worn at her wedding nearly 30 years ago. Her father had chosen these rhinestone overseas during the first World War, had them hand cut in Kruft, Germany, and set in French silver at Andernach, Germany, and sent them to his wife before their marriage.

Mrs. Don Palmer of Tillamook attended her sister as matron of honor, gowned in candy-pink satin with three tiers forming the shawl collar on the fitted bodice and three tiers of tucks repeated on the floor length skirt below the hipline. She carried a colonial bouquet of painted blue daisies and wore a halo of the same flowers in her hair, and matching satin mitts.

Miss Mary Lou Wiessenfels was bridesmaid and was dressed identically to the honor attendant in a candy-pink ensemble and carried blue painted daisies. The organist, Miss Helen Keber, played the organ and was accompanist at the pipe organ for Mrs. Dale Plummer (June Ann Lucht) of Oregon City who sang before and after the services, and for the St. Mary's choir singing at the offertory.

Brother Attends—Ernest Beyer was best man, Carl Beyer was groomsmen, and ushers were Joseph Beyer, all brothers of the bridegroom, and James Bochsler, a cousin.

The bride's mother, Mrs. Prosser, was dressed in a steel gray afternoon dress with which she wore matching accessories and a corsage of pink gladioluses. The grandmother, Mrs. Mary Ficker was dressed in a maroon colored afternoon dress, with black accessories, and a corsage of Talisman roses. The bridegroom's grandmothers, Mrs. Michael Weinacht was dressed in a black ensemble, and Mrs. Susanna Beyer wore navy blue print and black accessories. Each wore a corsage of Talisman roses.

Breakfast was served for the bridal party and the officiating clergy at the home of the bride's parents. Serving were Mrs. Ed Gooley of Harrington, Wash., and Mrs. Joseph Ficker, aunts of the bride. The dinner was held at the St. Mary's dining hall with covers placed for 60 relatives. A large four-tiered wedding cake topped by a double-ring ornament, used on her parents' wedding cake, white tapers and white asters centered the bride's table. Asters and white wedding bells formed the decor for the guest rooms. Serving at dinner were the Misses Laura Schwab, Marguerite Schaefer, Violet Hoffman, Mary Diehl, Evelyn Purdy and Vivian Vreeland. During the dinner hour Miss Helen Keber was accompanist for Miss Laura Woodburn—The first dinner meeting of the fall season for the Woodburn Business and Professional Women's club will be a novel "walking dinner" which will start with cocktails at the home of Mrs. Ray Glatt, 488 Montgomery street at 7 p.m. From there the group will go to the home of Mrs. Clara Stange, 950 Young street, Alzar Courts No. 1, for salad; then on to the golf club house for the main course and dessert. A movie and talk will be the entertainment following the dinner.

No reservations are required but those planning to attend should call the president, Mrs. Eugene Stoller, by Wednesday evening.

No fixed price will be charged for the dinner but each person will pay whatever amount desired at each place and those attending are asked to bring coins to drop in the plate as no change will be made that evening. Members should also bring table service for themselves and guests to be used at the club house.

Practice is under way for the three act farce, "Look Who's Here," which will be presented by the club early in November.
