

Garden Rites At Woodburn

Woodburn — The garden of Mr. and Mrs. Max Holland of Silverton was the setting for a wedding September 2, when his niece, Miss Dorothy Herigstad, was wed to John A. Weber. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. Herigstad of Woodburn route 2 and Mr. Weber is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Weber of Canby.

The service was read by the Rev. E. Schilling of Monitor as the couple stood before a background of cedar boughs entwined with yellow and white gladioluses, in the presence of about 80 relatives and guests.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a light blue satin street dress with white accessories and carried a bouquet of white and yellow gladioluses, centered with a gold orchid with a fuchsia throat.

Miss Gladys Herigstad was her sister's only attendant. She wore a beige afternoon dress with white accessories and carried a nosegay of yellow and white gladioluses.

Joseph Weber stood as best man for his brother and ushers were Ralph Crawford, cousin of the bride, and Alfred Weber, brother of the bridegroom.

Mrs. Herigstad wore a frock of dark fuchsia crepe with black and gray accessories and corsage of Talisman rosebuds for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Weber, the bridegroom's mother, wore a dress of forest green with black and white accessories and corsage of red rosebuds.

A reception in the garden followed the ceremony. Mrs. Max Holland, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake; Miss Lucile Benson presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. Gene Holland served punch. Miss Edith Holland, cousin of the bride, was in charge of the guest book; Misses Phyllis Herigstad, cousin of the bride, and Miss Lucia Ann Weber, sister of the bridegroom, were at the gift table.

After a short wedding trip to the Oregon beaches, Mr. and Mrs. Weber returned to Woodburn where they are residing. For her wedding trip, Mrs. Weber wore a blue-green dress with white top coat and white accessories and her gold orchid. Mrs. Weber attended Canby high school and Mr. Weber attended high school at Milwaukie, leaving to serve two years in the army.

Miss Hackworth Is Wed at McMinnville

Dayton — Miss Roberta Maye Hackworth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Hackworth, Dayton, was married to Robert B. Dorsey, son of Mr. and Mrs. George L. Dorsey, Dayton, in a candlelight ceremony performed at the First Methodist church, in McMinnville Friday evening, Sept. 9, at 8 o'clock. Rev. Elmer Beckman, McMinnville, officiated at the single ring ceremony.

The church was decorated with baskets of white gladioluses and candleabras. The wedding music was played by Mrs. Jaydee Johnson, McMinnville, and Miss Shirley Todd, Dayton, sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Clarence R. Hackworth, Portland, wore a light blue gabardine suit, with black accessories. She carried a white Bible with an orchid.

The maid of honor, was the bride's sister, Miss Mildred Hackworth, who wore a darker blue gabardine suit with black accessories and carried a nosegay of pink sweetheart roses. The candlelighters were her sister, Mrs. Dorothy Anderson; and her niece, Miss Roberta Hackworth. Both wore pastel blouses and black ballerina skirts. They wore gardenia corsages.

David Dorsey, Corvallis, brother of the bridegroom, acted as best man. The ushers were Vaughn Dorsey and Jesse Hackworth, brothers of the couple.

For her daughter's wedding, the bride's mother wore an aqua crepe dress, black accessories. The bridegroom's mother wore a dress of black with black accessories. They each wore gardenia corsages.

The reception was held in the church parlors, which was decorated with baskets of assorted flowers. The table, covered with a lace cloth, was centered with a bowl of pink asters. The three-tiered decorated wedding cake was topped with a bridal ornament. The cake was surrounded with white and pink sweet peas. Mrs. Jean Williams served the cake, Miss Ellen Dundas poured.

Mrs. Donald Bouslaugh, sister of the bride, was in charge of the gifts and Mrs. Signe Smith was in charge of the guest book.
