Fashion Show Due Sept. 26

Late September features a number of fashion events, and of special interest will be the one on Monday, September 26, to be given by the Salem Woman's club's General Federation of Women's clubs convention fund.

A p.m. luncheon is planned at 1 p.m., followed by the fashion revue and cards.

The fall styles are being presented by Sally's and Schlesinger's stores.

Mrs. Grant Rogers and Mrs. Estill L. Brunk are co-chairmen for the benefit affair. Tickets may be obtained from committee members or at either Sally's or Schlesinger's.

The party is to be given at the Salem Woman's club house.

Mrs. Tripp Home From Convention

Mrs. Myrtle Tripp, department president of the Ladies auxiliary, Veterans of Foreign Wars, has returned from her trip to Miami where she attended the national golden jubilee convention of the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its auxiliary as a delegate.

Perhaps one of the most welcome announcements which Mrs. Tripp could bring back was the appointment of Mrs. Dorothy Hill, Springfield, as national color bearer No. 3, by the newly installed national president, Mrs. Evelyn Monaco. This high honor conferred on Mrs. Hill, junior past department president, was in recognition of the report of her activities which was read on the convention floor by Mrs. Tripp.

Accompanied by Mrs. Marie Dana, past department president, Mrs. Tripp stayed at the newly completed Margaret Armstrong guest lodge, situated on the campus of the national home for widows and orphans, maintained by the Veterans of Foreign Wars and its auxiliary at Eaton Rapids, Mich.

Mrs. Tripp will prepare her itinerary for her fall visitations to the various districts and auxiliaries throughout the state in order to promote membership, active participation in the various lines of service which the ladies auxiliary of the VFW maintains and encourage teamwork between officers and members.

Business Group To Form Here

Mrs. Jean H. Williams, registrar for the American Business Women's association, is in Salem to work in organizing a local group of the association. Mrs. Williams is at the Senator hotel.

The American Business Women's association is a group organized for office personnel, secretaries, bookkeepers, typists, etc., and has a three-fold program: employ training, professional advancement, and social participation.

Headquarters for the organization are in Kansas City and units are formed throughout the country.

LEAVING Salem, Thursday, to make their home in Portland were Captain and Mrs. Thomas E. Massey and two daughters. Captain Massey has been stationed there for some time with the Portland area army and air force recruiting office, commuting back and forth to his home here. The Masseys have been in Salem since January 1948.

Scout Event

Eight girls in Girl Scouts troop No. 4 who earned their child care badge this summer will be entertained at a slumber party Friday by Mrs. H. M. Randall at her Fir street home.

The awards will be presented at a fire place ceremony, Friday evening. The group will be entertained at a breakfast Saturday morning.

The eight honored are Joan Bale, Jane Barlow, Ann Berger, Charlotte Gruber, Sandra Larson, Lianne Leonard, Loanne Munding, and Carol Randall.

Wedding Is Home Event

Miss Nancy McLaughlan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur B. McLaughlan, and Donald Wayne Earle, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Earle, were married at the home of the bride's parents at 5 o'clock Sunday afternoon, September 11.

Dr. Chester W. Hamblin of the First Presbyterian church read the double ring ceremony. The bride was given in marriage by her father.

The wedding dress was of white marquisette with lace insets, designed with a round neckline, long sleeves and a medium train. The fingertip veil of tulle was held by a coronet of seed pearls. The bride carried a nosegay of white gladioluses and pink rosebuds.

Miss Mary Ellen McLaughlan of Portland, cousin of the bride, was the bridesmaid. She wore a dress of yellow marquisette over taffeta and carried a nosegay of yellow rosebuds.

Little Anne Moree Jones of Caldwell, Idaho, was flower girl. She wore a Kate Greenaway dress of pink organdy and carried pink rosebuds.

The best man was Robert D. MacLaughlan, brother of the bride. Ushering was William Laidlaw.

For her son's wedding Mrs. Earle wore a blue crepe dress with a gardenia corsage. The bride's mother wore a plum crepe dress with gardenias.

At the reception Mrs. Agnes Briedwell, aunt of the bride, cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Earl T. Jones served the punch.

Assisting were Mrs. Robert D. McLaughlan, Mrs. Rodney Ramp, Mrs. Stanley M. Jones and Mrs. Victor Koop.

After a wedding trip to San Francisco the couple will be at home at Salem. For going away the bride wore a cocoa brown gabardine suit with matching accessories and a corsage of orchids.

Out-of-town guests for the wedding were: Mr. and Mrs. Harry McLaughlan, Miss Mary Ellen McLaughlan, Mrs. Agnes Briedwell and Mr. and Mrs. Rodney Ramp of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Earl T. Jones of Boise, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. Stanley M. Jones and Anne Marie Jones of Caldwell, Idaho; Mr. and Mrs. William Jefferson, William Jefferson, Jr., and Miss Carol Gene Gilkey of Newport.

Club Hostesses

Mrs. Willis C. Clark was hostess today for her bridge club, inviting the group for dessert and cards. Mrs. M. B. Rudd was an additional guest.

Another club hostess this week was Mrs. Walter Bondell who entertained her group for dessert and bridge Wednesday. Sixteen attended the party, there being three additional guests, Mrs. Jacob Foss, Mrs. Hugh Range of Silverton and Mrs. Ernest John of Bremerton, Wash.

Betrothal Told—The engagement of Miss Elinor Danielson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Danielson, Minneapolis, to Ernest R. Meyer, son of Mrs. Marie Meyer of Salem, was announced recently.
