

Miss Elliott Bride at Church Rites

Bride at a service in the First Congregational church last evening was Miss Patricia Elliott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Elliott, who was wed to John Basil Wallace, grandson of Mrs. Belle Park of Salem, the ceremony being solemnized at 8 o'clock with Dr. Seth R. Huntington officiating.

White gladioluses and candlelight decorated the church for the wedding. The processional aisle was roped off with white cord and the white gladioluses and lighted tapers were arranged at the pews.

Ronald Craven was soloist and Mrs. William East was at the organ. Mrs. Orville W. Kanner, Jr. (Alciea Cover) and Miss Joan Lanke lighted the tapers. They wore white taffeta dresses and at the bases of their tapers were gardenias with ribbons.

In White Satin
The bridal gown was of white satin, made with a square neckline filled in with rounded nylon yoke, triple panniers of the satin at the sides, and a train. The veil was full length with a fingertip over veil, trimmed in French lace and arranged from a crown of seed pearls. For her flowers the bride carried white roses and bouvardia on a net fan trimmed with French lace, the lower part of the arrangement being a corsage of the roses and bouvardia for a going-away corsage.

Miss Nancy Ringland was maid of honor. Her dress was of pink satin and with it she wore a crownless Dutch bonnet type of hat. Her flowers were a cascade of white gladioluses backed with green ribboned wire loops and net.

Miss Mary Ellen Petray, Miss Clara Belle Roth, cousin of the bridegroom, Mrs. Herbert Applington and Miss Louise Wriston were the bridesmaids. All wore apple green satin gowns made identically to that of the honor attendant, and their cascade bouquets were of salmon gladioluses backed with white ribboned wire loops and net. They also wore the crownless hats matching their gowns.

Jack McFarlane was best man. Ushers included Archie Elliott, Jr., brother of the bride, Robert Schwartz, Richard Easton of Forest Grove and Richard Wenger.

Reception Given
For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Elliott wore a dusty green gown with cinnamon toast accessories and corsage of Carrioca roses. The bridegroom's mother wore a royal blue gown with black accessories and a corsage of pink rosebuds.

The reception following was in the church parlors. Pouring were Mrs. J. A. Fehler and Mrs. Cecil Kernes. Serving the cake were Mrs. A. W. McKillop and Mrs. W. P. Karsten, both aunts of the bride. Assisting at the reception were Miss Rose Marie Gottfried, Miss Marylou Herndon, Miss Jahala Keys, Miss Donna Whitely. Mrs. Clarence Cherry passed the guest book and Mrs. Vernon Sorensen, aunt of the bride, and Mrs. Martin Ward, sister of the bridegroom, had charge of the gifts.

For traveling the bride wore a navy blue suit with wine accessories and the corsage from her bridal bouquet.

Following a trip to the beaches the couple will be at home at 309 South 25th, Salem.

Auxiliary Honors Gold Star Mothers

Silverton — Gold Star Mothers are to be honored in a program Monday evening, September 19, with the member of Delbert Reeves unit No. 7, American Legion auxiliary, as hostesses at the Legion hall. It was decided at Monday evening's meeting of the auxiliary.

The secretary, Mrs. Frank Porter, is asking any mother or stepmother of deceased veterans whose names have not been listed with the auxiliary, to get in touch with her by phone or in person. Stepmothers are eligible to Gold Star membership.

Members of the official group of the unit are to go to Aurora, Thursday evening, for formal installation of the Aurora officers. The group is to furnish refreshments for the blood bank here the afternoon of Monday, September 26, from 2:30 until 6:30 o'clock. Mrs. Robert Allen, sewing club chairman, is calling a meeting of her committee at her country home during the week to arrange for time, place and materials for the hospital and child welfare sewing during the coming year.

Awards were announced to the amount of $100 for Americanism essay contests by the state. Also cash awards for best poppy posters. The junior past department president, Mrs. Mitchell C. Thorn, is offering substantial awards for units getting the greatest number of renewals for 1950 memberships.

In charge of the rummage sale Saturday, September 17, at Legion hall, are Mrs. Ralph Francis, Mrs. C. E. Higinbotham, Mrs. Mayo Robison and Mrs. John Demas, who are asking others to assist. Either Mrs. Francis or Mrs. Higinbotham will call for material that cannot otherwise be delivered by donors.

Both members of the post and of the auxiliary favor giving a supper for the baseball boys and their immediate sponsors in the near future.

Hair Styles and Make-Up Moods Soft, Delicate

The spotlight remains on the short easy-to-manage, casual hairdo—hair pieces that give short hair the longer look are more and more the vogue. Falls, switches and clusters which augment the brief coiffures are becoming less expensive as demand and more European hair shipments increase.

Short hair wears a side angle—with soft, suggested waves, contour curls and breezy bobs hugging the shape of the head for greater flattery. These hair styles are highly dramatic and give stately elegance and femininity to the high collar and low plunge, jewel-frosted necklines.

In keeping with the coiffure trends—make-up is soft and pastel—lipstick is rosy-hued and highlights the natural shape of the mouth. Rouge is only suggested for daytime wear with darker tones used for evening, underlights emphasis.

Cream makeup foundations carry through for an over-all pastel look—used skillfully it is blended high into the hairline—and as low as your neckline descends.

That Added Touch
A note of brilliance at your throat—a sparkle at your wrist, and a burst of glory at the neckline—are the jewelry touches for autumn's frocks.

A shower effect, with large clip-on earrings, the bold button-type and the drop, pendant earring are all equally important in fashion significance.

Bracelets of all widths, of all metallic and jewelry finishes, dramatically set off the three-quarter sleeves of new tailored and dressy frocks.

Pendant necklaces, choker necklaces and rope or multi-strands of pastel-hued pearls are lavish touches to wear with either simple, high, untrimmed necklines, the square and low cowl or the deep V-plunge.
