Six School Buses Operate at Dayton

Dayton—There are six school buses serving the Dayton grade and high schools this year. The buses have been numbered and are lined up before school is dismissed at 3:30 o'clock on the parking on the school ground right of way. When school is dismissed the pupils go to their respective bus, without leaving the school grounds. The buses leave at 3:30 p.m.

A set of rules and regulations have been adopted and have been posted in each bus, and will be enforced by the drivers. The children are under the rection of the school until they arrive home.
