

At a double ring ceremony solemnized last evening in the First Congregational church, Miss Patricia Ruth Densmore, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Densmore, Jr. of Scio, was married to Rolland J. VanCleave, son of Charles VanCleave, also of Scio.

White gladioluses and asters and candlelight decorated the church for the service. Dr. Seth R. Huntington read the vows at 8 o'clock. Before the service Miss Gladys Quesseth sang "Thine Alone" and "The Lord's Prayer" during the ceremony, Jean Hobson Rich playing the organ.

Lighting the tapers were Miss Elinor Danielson, in blue satin, and Mrs. Elmer Niemi in a pink gown.

An ivory satin gown, fashioned with a long train, was worn by the bride, given in marriage by her father. The fingertip illusion veil was held in place by a headdress of pearlized orange blossoms. For her flowers the bride carried a cascade bouquet of white roses and stephanotis with an orchid in the center.

The matron of honor, Mrs. Jack McDonald, wore a pastel orchid gown and carried a nosegay of yellow rosebuds and gladiolus florets.

Miss Charlene Churchill, in pastel yellow, and Miss Shirley Nave, in pastel green, were the bridesmaids. Both carried nosegays of gladioluses and rosebud florets.

Loretta VanCleave, niece of the bridegroom, and Nancy McKomb were the flower girls, both wearing yellow satin dresses and carrying baskets of assorted flowers.

Terry Rockwell served as the ring bearer.

Richard VanCleave was best man for his brother. Seating the guests were Jack McDonald, Kenneth Greenly and Harry McDonald.

The bride's mother wore a black crepe gown with corsage of rosebuds centered with a gardenia.

The church fireplace room was the scene for the reception. Mrs. Karl Caswell and Mrs. Norris Rockwell served the bride's cake. Presiding at the coffee urn was Mrs. L. A. VanCleave, sister-in-law of the bridegroom. Misses Jean Matson, Louisa Kelley, Phyllis Morris and Caroline Caswell assisted, Miss Kelley having charge of the gifts and Miss Caswell passing the guest book, the others assisting in serving. Zinnias and dahlias in fall colors decorated the reception rooms.

A dark wine suit with gray accessories and a corsage of white orchids were worn by the bride for traveling. Following a tour of the Washington beaches the couple will be at home in Salem.

The bride attended Scio high school, Oregon State college, the Merritt Davis School of Commerce and Behnke-Walker Business college. She is with the telephone company. Mr. VanCleave attended Scio high school, OSC and Vanport college where he will continue his work this year.

AAUW Luncheon

First gathering of the fall for the membership of Salem branch, American Association of University Women, will be next Saturday, September 24, as a luncheon at the Marion hotel at 1 o'clock.

Prof. Paul Beal of Willamette university is to be guest speaker.

"A Visit to Missebourg" is the title of Dr. Beal's speech. Missebourg is the estate of Marie Gevers, author and member of the Royal Belgian Academy of Literature. The estate is situated near Antwerp and Dr. Beal was a guest there during his recent trip to Europe. Dr. Beal spent the summer months in Europe and visited Paris, Brussels, Antwerp and London. The visit to the estate was a highlight of Dr. Beal's trip and he says he feels that the author's interest in nature as displayed in her novels is partially explained by her childhood on the picturesque suburban estate.

Hostesses for the luncheon, appointed by Mrs. H. Gordon Carl, Jr., chairman of hospitality, include Miss Mirpah Blair and Mesdames Charles A. Cole, Maynard Nelson, Earl Pearcey and W. R. Newmyer. Mrs. J. A. Jelderks and Mrs. Walter Mills will be in charge of decorations.

Reservations for the luncheon should be telephoned to either Miss Elizabeth Russom or Mrs. J. M. Devers, Sr., by next Friday noon.

Miss Elise Schroeder will preside as president.
