Godoy Passes Up Bout; Gridman Can't 'Unlax'

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.
New York, Sept. 17 (AP)—Arthur Godoy, who was scheduled to fight Maynard Jones in Wilmington, Del., Monday, has decided to retire from the ring instead... maybe Godoy, who'll be 39 in a couple of months and who has been fighting since 1931, decided it better to be in Chile than to be chilled... of course, they could always match him with Jersey Joe Walcott for the veteran's singles championship... although Oklahoma U. is rated among the five top football teams this season by most observers, one of this corner's southwestern scouts offers a small bet that the Sooners don't do half as well as expected... The Detroit Lions squad has an average of one and one-tenth years per man experience in the National football league. That probably means a lot of unpleasant experiences for the rookies.

Rackety Rax, Unlax
Chief Boston, New Hampshire football coach, has emphasized relaxation this season even to the extent of giving his athletes special exercises to keep them "loose"... Boston had just finished an oration of the subject recently and turned to see a lad who was supposed to be playing defensive halfback catch a flying football directly between the eyes... "What happened to you?" roared the chief. "It's like this, coach," stammered the embarrassed player. "I was relaxing, and I couldn't unlax."

Fresno Defeats Portland Girls in Softie Meet

Portland, Ore., Sept. 17 (AP)—The 1948 champion Phoenix, Ariz., Ramblers and Fresno, Calif., Rockets today were the only unbeaten entries in the Women's Amateur Softball Association for the world title.

Fresno plucked last year's runner-up Portland Florists, 4 to 1, and Phoenix eased by the Peoria, Ill., Caterpillars, 1 to 0, to determine the semifinalists in the victors' bracket of the double-elimination playoffs.

In a crowded, rain-delayed schedule, seven games were run off last night, lasting into the early morning hours, after bad weather had postponed action for two days.

Sports Before Your Eyes

Eddie Compo, who fights Willie Pep in Waterbury, Conn., Tuesday, likes to have some 50 relatives on hand when he goes into action... Presumably they all get compo-mentary tickets... The Merion Golf club, where 15-year-old Marlene Bauer went to the semi-finals of the Women's National championship, is the same place where Bobby Jones first qualified for the men's amateur at the age of 14... Portland, Sept. 19 (AP)—A win-starved University of Portland team will be expecting more than two wins this year—in fact, the squad hopes to win almost as many games during the 1949 season as they won during the three postwar years combined.

In three years, the Pilots won only five games, tied in four and absorbed 20 defeats.

Although the Pilots will play on a tougher schedule this year, their prime worry is on the lack of reserves. Newly-appointed Head Coach Harry (The Horse) Wright moaned that a few injuries among any of the tackles, halfbacks, quarterbacks or fullbacks would prove costly.

On the brighter side, however, the 21 returning lettermen think their now-how this year will make up for their lack of drive and speed in 1948 when Portland won two games, tied in one, and dropped five.

Two Notre Dame alumni—Neil Green and Floyd Simmons—will work with Wright this year as line coach and backfield coach respectively, and the three-man combination has sparked Portland optimism.

Wright said the Pilots would like to upset one of the "Big Four" on this year's schedule—Nevada, Santa Clara, College of the Pacific, and Idaho—but the other four scheduled contests aren't going to be pushovers.

Wright will concentrate on a Notre Dame style of T-formation built around lightning-quick opening plays.

Three men stand out in the Portland lineup. Right-halfback William Kang of San Francisco drives for extra yardage after being tackled and may prove to be a consistent ground gainer. Quarterback Danny Christenson of Jersey City, N.J., is one of the most accurate passers in the Pacific Northwest.

Left-halfback John Freeman of Portland is rated by Portland fans as the greatest back to hit the campus since the days of Murel Nell of East-West game fame. The 172-pound junior was third in the nation last year in kickoffs returns, and he sprints the hundred slightly under 10 seconds.

Portland's schedule:
Sept. 25—Nevada at Portland.
Oct. 1—Montana State at Bozeman.
Oct. 9—Santa Clara at Lodi.
Oct. 15—College of Pacific at Portland.
Oct. 22—Pepperdine at Los Angeles.
Oct. 22—University of Idaho at Boise.

Wolves' Football Squad Stocks Surprises, Speed

Oregon College of Education, Monmouth—End of the first two weeks of pre-season training finds the OCE Wolves in strong shape and rapidly rounding up into a squad which may well surprise many grid fans before the season is finished.

Coach Bill McArthur is building a fast backfield around rabbit halves Robin Lee and Corky Van Loo. Both are excellent pass receivers but will see more service on overland drives, since McArthur is blessed with five other good snatch-men, all ends. Hank Decker leads the quintet, with Bruce Hamilton, Tom (the Bomb) Hill, Marv Hiebert, and Mighty Mite Lyle Hay ready to go.

Wide open play built around plenty of passes and readiness to punt, with a strong defensive platoon in reserve, will characterize the Wolves.

Record for Royalty George Clark tosses a 22-pound hammer 97 feet 6 1/2 inches, a new record, in the Highland games at Braemar, Scotland, before members of royal family.
