Champoeg, Ore. Sept. 19 (1): —Take it from an expert from New Jersey, the Oregon Jersey is okay; in fact, amaring. Ed Lawrence of Whitehall, N. J. told the Marion county Jersey catfle club here Sunday that when he first came to the Willametic valley he was skently.

Willamette valley he was skepti-cal about the stories he had heard of Oregon Jerseys and heard of Oregon Jerseys and Oregon pastures, but he found both amazing. Then he intimat-ed that Oregon Jersey breed-ers appear to have an inferi-ority complex. Lawrence was unfavorably surprised at the showing Ore-gon Jersey cattle made at Ore-gon's own recent state fair Said gon's own recent state fair. Said the man from New Jersey: "You talk about the Canadian herds coming in mere and tak-ing all the prizes and so you don't come out to show. You have cattle right here in the valley that could beat the Can-adian herds so badly they'd nev-
