MT. ANGEL—The Legion auxiliary held its first meeting last week, featuring discussion of the convention last month at Salem. Plans were made for installation of officers on Tuesday night, September 27, when the unit decided to have the auxiliary members seated by Salem unit No. 136. Mrs. I. N. Bacon, Salem, district president, was invited to be the installing officer.

Mrs. Frank Borgenhagen, chairman, and her committee, Mrs. R. Bisenius, Mrs. Howard Uetz, Mrs. Cletus Butsch and Mrs. Gordon Aman, were appointed to prepare and serve the lunch on installation night.

The auxiliary decided to again serve dinner to the 40 at 8 at Mt. Angel in October.

Civic Players Busy

Salem Civic Players held their first meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Agnes B. Drummond to outline plans for the new year. Fourteen attended. The meeting was a combined business and social one with Nathan Steinbock, president, in charge.

The Players expect to start rehearsals soon on their first show of the fall, Mr. Steinbock being named temporary director due to the illness of Miss Beulah Graham.

Public tryouts will be held for all interested, the date to be announced later.

Wedding Set For Oct. 15

Announced for Saturday, October 15, is the wedding of Miss Nellie Cook and Henry Henderson.

The ceremony is to be an afternoon one at 4 o'clock.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. M. Cook and is on the staff in the secretary of state's office. Mr. Henderson is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Percy Henderson and is in business with his father. Both young people are graduates of Salem high school.

Tea on Tuesday

Dallas — A "membership tea" honoring members and prospective member of the Dallas Woman's club will be given by members of the executive board of the club Tuesday afternoon, between 2 and 5 o'clock at the country home of Mrs. Delwin O. Reinemer at Fir Villa.

Music during the afternoon will be furnished by Bonnie Regehr and Geraldine Reinemer.

Year books, which will be issued this year for the first time since the war, will be available to members at the tea.

MONMOUTH — The Monmouth Junior Woman's club met last week. A letter was read from Mrs. William B. Chandler, president of Oregon Federation of Women's clubs, conferring membership on this newly organized group and asking them to send a delegation to the convention to be held in Portland, October 7. The second district convention, with Mrs. Gertrude Cault of Corvallis, president, extended an invitation to members to attend the convention to be held in Corvallis, September 16.

The object of the organization is education, philanthropic and civic service and social, with speakers and music planned for each meeting. The next meeting will be October 12, in the city hall.

Refreshments were served by Mrs. Harry Kester and Mrs. Robert Price.

LEBANON—Installation of officers of Sanitam unit, No. 51, American Legion auxiliary, will be held following supper on September 20 at the Legion hall.

Mrs. Vernice Schultz of Florence, district president, will be installing officer for the auxiliary. Officers of the Legion will also be seated at this meeting. A special program is being prepared and reports will be given on the recent state convention in Salem.

Other UO Names Listed

In addition to Salem young men and women pledging fraternities and sororities at University of Oregon at the week-end there are several in nearby communities. Names of the Salem pledges were reported Saturday.

From Silverton, Miss Patricia Rice is a new pledge of Alpha Gamma Delta.

Miss Elizabeth Olson of Dayton has pledged Alpha Xi Delta. Miss Dixie Reynolds, Sweet Home, pledged Delta Zeta.

In the fraternity list Richard Jones of Lebanon is listed as a pledge of Alpha Tau Omega. John R. Gill of Lebanon in Beta Theta Pi, Jack Cook of Dallas in Sigma Chi, Dick Haseaman of Idanha in Sigma Nu, and Darr Kappa Epsilon; Duane O. Mack, Albany, Kappa Sigma; Ron Abrams, Taft, Sigma Alpha Mu; Robert Abrams, Taft, Sigma Nu.

Miss Morse Pledges

Of interest to many friends in the state, too, is news that Miss Nancy Morse, eldest of the three daughters of United States Senator and Mrs. Wayne L. Morse, has pledged Delta Gamma sorority. Nancy was here with the Morse family during the recent State Fair week. Completing her junior high and high school work in Washington, D. C., after the family moved to Washington in January of 1945, Nancy chose "to return home" to enter the University of Oregon for her college work. The Morse residence is at Eugene.

Also of interest to Salem friends is news that Miss Mary Kay Dorris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ben F. Dorris of Springfield, has pledged Delta Delta Delta. The Dorris family are frequent visitors in the capital. Mary Kay is a niece of Mrs. H. G. Maison of Salem, and her cousin, Mrs. Kelton Lowery (Molly Jean Maison) also is a Delta Delta Delta at Oregon.

Past Presidents

The Past Presidents' club of the Veterans of Foreign Wars auxiliary, Marion No. 661, met last week at Mrs. Dave Furrough's home, Mrs. Willie Boone presiding.

A regular business meeting was held and plans for the sewing for Camp White hospital were made. The chairman of the hospital committee is Mrs. Ivelly Haley. Plans are also being made for the VFW convention, which is to be held here next year.

Those present at the club meeting were Mrs. Russell Mudd, Mrs. Willie Boone, Mrs. Henry Sims, Mrs. Leon Hansen, Mrs. James Beall, Mrs. Ivelly Haley, Mrs. Dale Mauk, Mrs. Dave Furlough, Mrs. Eva Rush, Mrs. Ed Van Santen and Mrs. Genevieve Olson.

Refreshments were served following the meeting. The next meeting will be with Mrs. Genevieve Olson, 5335 South 20th, October 20.

LEAVING Saturday by plane was Mrs. Robert Monismith for York, Neb., to visit with her mother. She will be gone two weeks.

Seelen-Sharp Rites at Bend

Wed in Bend Sept. 5 were Miss Frances Sharp and Gene Seelen, the latter of Salem. The ceremony was solemnized in the First Baptist church at Bend, the Rev. Roy Austin officiating at the double-ring service.

The couple honeymooned in Central Oregon and at Crater Lake, and will live in Salem, where both are employed at the state hospital. The bride is a surgical nurse, and Mr. Seelen is a member of the office staff.

For the wedding, the bride wore a wineberry suit, with gray accessories. Her corsage was a white orchid.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Rose, Meridian, Ida., attended the couple.

After the ceremony, a lawn reception was held at the home of the bride's grandparents, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Griffith. Fifteen relatives and close friends of the couple were present.

The bride is the daughter of Mrs. Ruth Sharp, Payette, and the late Mr. Sharp. She was graduated from high school in Payette, and took her nurses' training at Good Samaritan hospital, Portland.

Honor Cousins

Donna and Steven Strauch, children of Mr. and Mrs. Leo Strauch, gave a cowboy party in honor of their cousins, Billy and Bobby Carney, who recently returned from Midway Islands with their parents. M/Sgt. and Mrs. William Carney, Marybee, Philip and Robert Gruchalla, also cousins and children of Mr. and Mrs. George Gruchalla, spent the afternoon playing games. The refreshments were served after the games. All children are grandchildren of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Payseno.

Miss Beam Wed Saturday

The marriage of Miss Lenore Beam, daughter of Mrs. Ruth M. Beam, to Ralph F. Dungey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Dungey of Gervais, was solemnized Saturday evening at a pretty wedding in the First Christian church, Dr. Dudley Strain reading the vows at 8 o'clock.

White, ivory and coral gladioluses decorated the church for the service. Virgil Mason sang, Miss Gladys Edgar being at the organ.

Taper lighters were Miss Barbara Dungey, his sister, who wore pink, and Miss Marlene Brown, who was in blue. Their corsages were of the pink gladioluses and blue delphiniums.

Given in marriage by her uncle, M. G. Hickman, the bride wore a gown of white satin made with a short train. The fingertip illusion veil was arranged from a coronet of lace. For her flowers the bride carried a bouquet of pink roses and white stephanotis.

Mrs. Dean Trowbridge was matron of honor. She wore a peach colored gown and her flowers were peach gladioluses and blue delphiniums.

Dean Trowbridge was best man. Ushering were Robert Dungey of Gervais, brother of the bridegroom, and William Bernard of St. Paul.

The reception following was in the church also. Mrs. M. G. Hickman served the cake. Mrs. Virgil Mason, sister of the bride, and Mrs. John Leshar of Woodburn, sister of Mr. Dungey, poured.

For going away the bride wore a navy blue suit with pink accessories and corsage of pink roses.

The couple will be at home in Salem.

WCTU Meeting

Salem Central WCTU will meet Tuesday, at 2 o'clock with Mrs. Mayme Hill, 1724 Cheyetteka street.

Mrs. R. B. Leshar will give the devotional message, while election of officers, local reports from the county convention, also plans for the year's work will fill the program for the day.

OREGON GRAPE camp, Royal Neighbors of America, is to meet Wednesday at 8 p.m. in the Veterans of Foreign Wars hall.

SALEM F. L. CLUB No. 14 held its regular business meeting last week at the home of Mrs. Evelyn Hamby. Members present included, Mrs. Lawrence McClure, Mrs. Forrest Greenfield, Mrs. Keith Rebo, Mrs. Harry Way, Mrs. Harold Bressler, Mrs. R. L. Applegate, Mrs. Chester Lanktree, Mrs. Victor Koop and Mrs. Evelyn Hamby. The next meeting is to be held September 29 at the home of Mrs. Lawrence McClure, Rt. 1, Salem.

Wedding in Local Church

Bride Sunday afternoon at a ceremony solemnized in St. Paul's Episcopal church was Miss Ila E. Crittenden, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray L. Crittenden, who was married to Charles E. Hawkes, son of Dr. and Mrs. E. W. Hawkes of Salt Lake City.

Amid a setting of asters and dahlias in fall colors the rites took place at 4 o'clock, the Rev. George H. Swift officiating. Organ music was played by Miss Ruth Bedford.

Mr. Crittenden gave his daughter in marriage. She was attired in a brown tweed suit with red accessories and a corsage of green orchids.

Miss Marjorie Sinclair as honor attendant wore a brown suit and her flowers were gladioluses and Talisman roses.

Gabriel Martin of Eugene was best man.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Crittenden wore a gray suit with dark green accessories and a corsage of American Beauty roses.

The bridegroom's parents were unable to attend the wedding, having just moved to Salt Lake City from Glendale, Calif. Dr. Hawkes formerly was on the Willamette university faculty here.

The newlyweds will be at home in Eugene after September 26, both to continue work at the University of Oregon.

Plan Trip East

Leaving Tuesday for a trip to the east will be Dr. and Mrs. Leon E. Barrick and Mr. and Mrs. Charles Pratt, making the trip by car. They will go first to Poland Spring, Maine, Dr. Barrick to attend the convention of the National Selected Morticians. Later they will go to Nantasket, Mass., to visit the Barricks' son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. John French (Lois Barrick). Mr. French is working for his master of arts degree at Boston university.

The Barricks and Pratts also plan to tour the New England states.
