

Reception For Students

Dr. and Mrs. G. Herbert Smith will be hosts this evening at an informal reception in University House to honor freshmen and new students at Willamette university. The reception, an "in welcome affair," will be between 8 and 10 o'clock.

Russell Tripp, president of the Willamette student body, is to introduce the students to Dr. and Mrs. Smith and others in the receiving line, including Dr. and Mrs. Robert Fenix, Dr. and Mrs. Robert D. Gregg, Dr. and Mrs. Raymond Withey, Dean Regina Ewalt, Dean and Mrs. Melvin Geist.

Mrs. Fay Owen, head resident of Lausanne hall, and Mrs. Harry T. Morris, head resident of Baxter hall, will pour. Assisting about the rooms will be Mr. and Mrs. Charles Paeth, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Jory, Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Roger Nelson, Prof. and Mrs. Herman Clark.

BPW Club's Dinner Event Last Week

Woodburn — The September dinner meeting of the Woodburn Business and Professional Women's club was held last week in the form of a "walking dinner." Cocktails were served at the home of Mrs. Ray Glatt, the salad at the home of Mrs. Henry Stange, the entree and dessert at the club house at the Woodburn Golf course.

Speaker of the evening was Kenneth Spies of Portland, assistant chief engineer with the state sanitary authority division of the state board of health. Following his talk colored movies were shown entitled "Clean Waters," showing stream pollution in the waters of Oregon and the necessity for action by the cities to cure this menace to health and wild life. Mr. Spies also spoke briefly after the showing of the picture on the acute problem in Woodburn. He was assisted by I. G. Lerman of the Marion county sanitation department and Howard Pyfer, health educator of the Marion county health department.

Mrs. Don Bell was chairman of the committee in charge of the dinner and was assisted by the president, Mrs. Eugene Stoller, and other members of the finance committee.

The October business meeting of the club will be held the evening of Thursday, October 6, at the home of Miss Gladys Adams.

STAYTON—Word has been received here by Mr. and Mrs. John Basl of the marriage of their son, Donald, who is stationed in Edgewood, Md., at the Army chemical center.

The bride is the former Miss Frances Norman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Norman of that city. The young couple are expected to arrive here in October after the bridegroom's discharge from the service. They will make their home on his father's farm, the former Charles Rossiter place.

Donald has been in the service three years, being stationed in Korea 19 months, and in Maryland for two separate six-month periods.

STAYTON — Miss Teresia Garbe was hostess at her home recently honoring Miss Joan Frost, bride-elect of Lawrence Silbernagel, with a shower. Refreshments were served following the opening of gifts.

Invited guests with the honoree included Misses Leona Weissenfels, Betty Lou Schumacher, Pat McGovern, Charlene Frost, Virginia Welter, Marguerite Frost, Shirley Kintz, Marcelle Forrette, Kathleen Etzel, LaVone Benedict, Sharon Gehlen and Marjorie Gries.

Miss Shirley Roth To Wed Mr. Nafziger

Central Howell—Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Roth are announcing the engagement of their daughter, Miss Shirley Roth, to W. Edgar Nafziger, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Nafziger, all of this community. Both young people were born and reared in this community. Both attended and graduated from the local grade school and Silverton high school. No date has been set for the wedding, which is understood to be an event of the coming winter. They plan to live on the farm owned and operated by Mr. Nafziger, west of Central Howell.

Miss Manning Recent Bride

Gervais — The wedding of Miss Anita Manning, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Manning, and Cyril Ferschweiler, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence G. Ferschweiler, took place at the Gervais Sacred Heart Catholic church, September 14, at 9:30 a.m., with Rev. Martin Doherty officiating. The vows were exchanged before an altar decorated with pink and white asters and candles. Darrell Ferschweiler, cousin of the bridegroom, and Jerome Manning, brother of the bride, served at the altar.

Misses Jean Manning, sister of the bride, Lucille Schindler and Carlene Clark were the soloists with Sister Mary Frances the organist.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Her gown was white net over taffeta, styled with a deep net yoke edged in lace, long sleeves and a fitted bodice buttoned down the back with self covered buttons. The skirt was made with a peplum of taffeta and the net over the foundation skirt ended in a long train. The bride wore a fingertip illusion veil edged in lace and falling from a pearl beaded coronet. The bride carried a white prayer book topped with a white orchid with shower ribbons of white satin.

Miss Clara Manning, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore pale blue taffeta and a headpiece of ruffled net and taffeta with a feather trim. She carried pink and white asters tied with pink satin ribbon.

Miss Donna Manning, sister of the bride, and Mrs. Donald Davidson, sister of the bridegroom, were bridesmaids. They wore identical peach taffeta gowns and matching headbands of net and taffeta with feather trim. They carried crescent bouquets of deep orchid and white asters tied with orchid ribbon.

Carol Hammer, niece of the bridegroom, was flower girl and her dress and flowers were identical to those of the maid of honor.

Thomas Ferschweiler, brother of the bridegroom, served as best man. James Manning and Donald Davidson were ushers and the groomsmen were Lloyd Ferschweiler and Dennis Manning.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Manning wore a brown fall dress with gold trim and brown accessories. Her corsage was yellow tuberous begonias. Mrs. Ferschweiler wore for her son's wedding a maroon crepe with maroon accessories and a white carnation corsage.

Breakfast was served for the

Meyers Hosts On Sunday

Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Meyer entertained with an informal open house, Sunday.

A large group of their friends was invited to call between 3 and 9 o'clock, among special guests being Captain and Mrs. Verden E. Hockett, who recently returned from Saipan.

The open house was given in observance of the 25th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Meyer.

MRS. WILLIAM DANERY was hostess for the September meeting of the TPM club at her home on Fruitland road. Asters and roses were used to decorate her guest rooms and the dinner table, which had places for Mrs. Charles Bottorff, Mrs. Fred Arisman, Mrs. Laura Pangle, Mrs. John Versteeg, Mrs. Ralph Hein, Mrs. E. E. Brandt, Mrs. Howard Ames, Mrs. Louis Neuman, Mrs. William McKinney, Miss Peggy Thompson, Mrs. Elmer A. Terrill, Mrs. Bette Hocker of Springfield, Ill., Mrs. William Hartley and the hostess. Birthday honors were given Mrs. Hein and Mrs. Hartley.

In the afternoon a reception was held at the Sacred Heart parish hall. Miss Freda Manning cut the cake and was assisted by Misses Lucille Schindler and Carlene Clark. Mrs. Carl Hammer presided at the coffee urn and Mrs. LeRoy Gardner at the punchbowl. Mrs. Clarence Grassman, Mrs. John Ruscher, Sr., Mrs. Martin Seifer and Mrs. Merle Lucas assisted at the reception. The gift table was in charge of Mrs. James Manning, Mrs. Marvin Flagg and Mrs. Dennis Manning. Misses Jean Manning and Patricia Dunn passed the guest book.

For her going away outfit the bride chose a gray suit with black accessories and a white orchid corsage.

The couple are graduates of Gervais Union high school and the bridegroom is a veteran of World War II. They will reside in the St. Louis district.

The wedding date was also the 58th wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Rubens, parents of Mrs. Lawrence Ferschweiler, and grandparents of the bridegroom.

Betrothal Told

Mrs. Grace Curtis announces the engagement of her daughter, Miss Leona Curtis, to Warren Paynter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Paynter.

No date is set for the wedding. Miss Curtis was graduated last year from the Mt. Angel academy. Mr. Paynter attended Salem high school.
