Hospitality—Mrs. Robert Brownell, chairman; Mrs. Farley Mogan and Mrs. S. D. Wiles.

Fort-Garner Wedding Sunday

In a simple ceremony at 2 o'clock Sunday afternoon, September 18, in the Four Corners Community hall Mrs. Lucille Garner was wed to Henry Fort, M. C. Cuthbertson officiating. Mrs. Viola Henne sang "Always" and Mrs. Opal Bayer sang "I Love You Truly." Mrs. Zella Lomax accompanied. Bob Roberts gave the bride in marriage.

For her wedding the bride wore a blue crepe afternoon dress and carried an orchid on a white Bible. Her attendant was Mrs. Arthur Frantz, who wore an afternoon dress of black crepe with a corsage of gardenias. Judy Frantz, dressed in blue taffeta, carried the ring on a white satin pillow. George Dwyer was best man. The members of the wedding party are members of the Chin-Up club of Salem.

Following the ceremony fellow members and friends extended congratulations. There were many out-of-town visitors from Portland and other places. The couple cut the cake and friends assisted with the serving. There were 170 present.

Following a wedding trip they will reside in Salem.

BARBIZON

the newest most distinguished Broadloom fashion in years

A masterpiece of design... a masterwork of weaving! Alexander Smith's Barbizon introduces a completely new fashion in textured carpeting. For the design is created, not with different colors, but with yarns of different texture, dyed the same subtle shade. The plume and scroll design of deep, plushy wools is set against a background of tightly twisted yarns. And, to add to the richness of the pattern, the design is sculptured, to further the bas-relief effect.

Now, for the first time, you can carpet your home with a broadloom that combines the beauty of textured pattern, and the luxurious depth of pile. Barbizon is so new that there is still not enough for all who want it. So come as soon as you can to make sure of securing enough of the color you want to carpet your home. Available in deep green, grey, beige, rose and blue.
