

Stars Clinch Sure Tie For Coast Loop Pennant

(By the Associated Press)
The Hollywood Stars have assured themselves of at least a tie for the Pacific Coast League pennant, but they had to work overtime to get it.
The situation grew hotter than a day on the equator last night, with second place Oakland losing to Portland in a 13 inning marathon and Hollywood taking 11 innings to dispose of Seattle.

By the time the smoke cleared, Hollywood was five games up on the Acorns with five games remaining on the schedule. And in both cases it was first class baseball, even by Major league standards.
Respected Gordy Maltzberger, who looks more like an accounting clerk than a baseball pitcher, toiled the full 11 innings for Hollywood, giving up eight scattered hits. Guy Fletcher, Seattle's 23 game winner, went 10 2/3 innings for the Rainiers.

Seattle punched across a freak run in the top of the 11th, but Hollywood came back in the bottom half to load the bases. Frank Kelleher singled the first pitch from Charley Schanz, Fletcher's relief, sending in two runs and winning the ball game, 2 to 1.
At Oakland, the proceedings were even more grotesque. Frank Austin's line drive single in the 13th drove in two runs to give Portland a 6 to 5 victory. Joe Brovia's pinch hit homer in the ninth tied the game up with three Oakland runs. Portland used three pitchers, the Oaks two.

Hollywood can win the flag outright by winning tonight.
Elsewhere on the circuit, the San Diego Padres edged Los Angeles, 5 to 4, and Sacramento dumped San Francisco, 5 to 3. Orestes Mino's long fly scored Bobby Wilson with the winning run in the ninth as San Diego's Kewpie Dick Barrett hung up his 11th triumph of the season.

Thursday night's schedule and probable starters:
San Francisco (Con Dempsey, 17-13) at Sacramento (Ken Holcombe, 18-10).
Seattle (Denny Galehouse, 10-9) at Hollywood (Willie Ramsdell, 17-12).
Los Angeles (Cal McAdam, 7-11) at San Diego (Red Adams, 8-6).
Portland (unavailable) at Oakland (Milo Candini, 15-9).

Crystal Gazer Selects Top West Coast Games

San Francisco, Sept. 22 (AP)—The Far West comes up with an impressive slate of top and what shape as close football games this week-end. Peering into a still gleaming (17 wins, 4 losses and 1 tie last week) crystal ball this is what we see—
In the important Saturday engagements, Southern California to trim Navy and Stanford to beat Harvard. It's the initial showing for both Navy and USC this season. They finished sky-high last year, Navy tying Army and USC holding Notre Dame dead even. USC by 13 points.
Stanford by 13.
Other selections—
Friday:
College of the Pacific over Loyola by 1.
Willamette over Central Washington by 7.
Saturday:
California over St. Mary's by 14.
Minnesota over Washington (at Minneapolis) by 6.
UCLA over Iowa (at Iowa City) by 6.
Washington State over Montana by 17.
Oregon over Idaho by 7.
Oregon State over Utah (at

Coach Takes Officials to Task

By DINK TEMPLETON
San Francisco, Sept. 22 (AP)—If the games in the San Francisco bay area are any indication, the new football substitution rule is going to become one of the most unpopular in the book.
The rule committee during the winter decided against the single substitution while the clock was running this year, but instead of prohibiting it, they just sock a five-yard penalty every time the coach runs in a new man.
It is called delaying the game. But the delay actually comes from the infliction of the penalty, and the crowds have booted lustily every time the referee started marching. In the Oregon-St. Mary's tilt, Coach Jim Alken received for the five-yard penalty 16 times, just so he could sent in a man.

The crowd was disgusted with the penalties.
It certainly makes the game look like more and more of an officials' procession.
After the week-end openers, the only real mystery in this region is: How can Cal get away with being off-side without ever being called? Why can't the headlinesman see Cal off-side?
It's been going on for three years now, but after what those Midwest officials did in calling the Bears at Pasadena on Jan. 1, no one thought they'd still be getting away with it at Berkeley.
Rival coaches have been unrolling the movies and crying their eyes out. Last Saturday all the scouts were upset, and generally they pay no attention to little things like off-sides. Some say the sun gets in the head linesman's eyes over at Berkeley, and why don't they get on the other side of the field?

Others are certain that the large and vociferous Cal rooting section right behind the linesman is enough to make him think three times before he throws his hankie—and the last think is too late.
It isn't a coached beating of the ball, because it's always just one or two men. Anyway, the other schools are getting a little riled with it and figure Ab Curtis, the new commissioner of officials, ought to get a look and then issue a special memorandum to Cal head linesmen.
In nine seasons under Gil Dobbie, Washington never lost a football game.
