New officers for the Oak Knoll Ladies' Golf club were elected Wednesday as follows:

Mrs. R. G. McFarland, president; Mrs. Samuel Miller, first vice president; Mrs. Clinton Rutter, second vice president; Mrs. Tom Starbuck, secretary; Mrs. Don Huff, treasurer.

In the presentation of awards, Mrs. McFarland was given the Marge Fulgham cup, Mrs. LeLand LeFors being runner-up. In the consolation tourney on the cup, Mrs. Kenneth Jacobson won with Mrs. Randolph Hilton as runner-up.

The Oak Knoll tourney award went to Mrs. Hilda King with Mrs. Wesley Stewart as runner-up.

Following the day's play the group was entertained at luncheon by Mr. and Mrs. Robert Ashby at the clubhouse.

Miss Mansur Is Recent Bride

Dayton — Miss Lois Ardell Mansur, daughter of Mrs. Betty Mansur, and the late Carl Mansur of Stevenson, Wash., was married to Walter C. Shippy, son of the late Mr. and Mrs. John Shippy of Dayton, in a candlelight, double ring ceremony, performed at the Stevenson Methodist church, on Sunday afternoon, September 11 at 4 o'clock, before a large group of friends and relatives. Rev. Charles Molsee of Carson, Wash., officiated before an altar decorated with pink and white gladioluses.

The bride, given in marriage by her brother, Dale Mansur, wore a white wool gabardine suit with cocoa brown accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds and carried a white Bible with a cascade of red roses.

Mrs. Carl Cooper, Jr., of Vancouver, Wash., was matron of honor and wore a pink gabardine suit with a corsage of white carnations.

Jack Gell, Dayton, was best man and Ronald Shippy and Dick Phillips were ushers.

Miss Patsy Miller and Mrs. Ed Galloway sang before the service and during the ceremony, accompanied by Mrs. Erwin Kechn, who played the wedding music.

At the reception following the ceremony, Mrs. Floyd Shippy, and Mrs. Ray Mansur of Boise, Idaho, aunts of the bride and bridegroom, cut the four-tiered wedding cake. Mrs. Chester LeMarr of Mission Bottoms, and Mrs. Harold Stoutenberg of Unionvale, cousins of the bridegroom, poured. Mrs. Lois Beck on had charge of the guest book.

The bride, a graduate of the Stevenson high school class in 1947 has been secretary to R. C. Sly, attorney. The bridegroom, recently discharged from the U.S. navy after four years, has been electronics technician, 1st class, at Patupert River, Md.

After a trip around the Olympic peninsula the young couple will make their home in Corvallis, where he will enter Oregon State college.

Guests from Oregon were: Mrs. Jessie Vernon, Dayton, aunt of the bridegroom; Mr. and Mrs. Harold Stoutenberg, Unionvale; Mr. and Mrs. Chester LeMarr, and sons, Alex, Byron and Francis Lee LaFollette, Mission Bottoms; Mr. and Mrs. Cletes Gell and son Jack Gell of Dayton; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Parder of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Buzzell and family of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Conway, Portland; Donald Gordon of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Charles Black and family, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Frank Black, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Jack Spencer, Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Linus Linnscoot, Portland.

At Soroptimist

Soroptimist club members heard an interesting talk on city government by Miss Mary Brady at their luncheon meeting, Wednesday, in the Golden Pheasant. Miss Brady, a member of the club, is secretary in the office of J. L. Franzen, city manager.

Miss Gertrude Acheson, new executive director at the Salem YWCA, was a guest at the meeting.

A program is planned for next Wednesday's luncheon, also.

MRS. WILLIAM GARDNER was elected to take the degree of chivalry at Monday's meeting of Salem Rebekah lodge No. 1.

A memorial service was held in memory of one of the recently deceased members, Mrs. Jennie Knight.

The Three Links club will hold its meeting Friday at 2:30 o'clock. The Ladies auxiliary, Patriarchs Militant, will meet on Thursday night. The Past Noble Grands club will meet in the lodge hall instead of at the home of Mrs. Jeanie Morris as previously announced.

Women Voters Meeting

Notices are out from the local League of Women Voters for a tea to be given next Tuesday afternoon at the West Lincoln street home of Mrs. Bruce Spaulding.

Mrs. James West, Portland, state president, is to be here with the Salem group for the meeting, slated for 2:30 o'clock.

Engagements Announced

Several engagement announcements have featured the week.

The engagement of Miss Virginia Erb, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. V. F. Schmidt, to Charles Sherwood, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. Sherwood, is being announced. No date has been set for the wedding. Both young people are students at Salem high school.

Bisbee-Shepherd

Mr. and Mrs. Otis Shepherd are announcing the betrothal of their daughter, Miss Lois Shepherd, to Donald Bisbee, son of Mr. and Mrs. Carroll Bisbee of Independence.

No date is set for the wedding. The bride-elect is a graduate of Salem high school. Mr. Bisbee was graduated in June from Oregon State college.

Johnson-Reynolds

Announcement is made of the approaching marriage of Miss Mattie Reynolds, Salem, daughter of Mrs. Gertrude Reynolds of Fahlequah, Okla., to Jay W. Johnson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arnold S. Johnson of Salem.

The wedding is planned for October 23 in the First Presbyterian church with Dr. Chester W. Hamblin officiating.

Golf Event

At the Salem Women's Golf association day, Wednesday, winners in the day's play on low putts included: Mrs. J. H. Thompson, class A; Mrs. Glenn Stevens, class B; Mrs. Donald McCargar, class C; Mrs. Orval Lama, class D.

The final play on the captain's trophy will be next Wednesday, State Fair week having caused the play to be extended a week.

Next week, too, a group from here will be in Eugene for the Oregon Women's Golf association play.

AAUW Events

Mrs. F. A. Massee is the new fellowship chairman for the Salem branch, American Association of University Women, it is announced by the president, Miss Elise Schroeder. Mrs. Massee will be introduced at the luncheon meeting of the AAUW Saturday at the Marion hotel as will all the other committee chairmen for the new year.

Attending the state AAUW board meeting in Eugene this past week-end from Salem were Miss Schroeder, Miss Beryl Holt, state legislative chairman; Miss Eleanor Stephens, state historian; Miss Joy Hills, state education chairman; and Miss Constance Weinman, the local treasurer.

LYONS — Friends were interested to hear of the wedding of Jess Wasser Jr., former business man of Lyons, now residing in Portland, and Miss Nancy Jean Richards, also of Portland. The wedding was an 8 o'clock candlelight service Saturday, September 17 at the First Christian church of Portland.

Recent Bride—The marriage of Mrs. Rolland J. Van Cleave, the former Patricia Ruth Densmore, was solemnized September 16. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Densmore, Jr. of Scio and Mr. Van Cleave is the son of Charles Van Cleave, also of Scio. The couple will live in Salem. (McEwan studio picture).

Miss Cooper Is Bride at Morning Service in Albany

A wedding attended by several Salem friends took place in Albany last Saturday morning when Miss Mary Anne Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence L. Cooper of Albany, was married to James Francis Dombrosky, son of Mr. and Mrs. A. H. Dombrosky, also of Albany. The rites took place at 11 o'clock in St. Mary's Catholic church at Albany, the Rev. Lawrence J. Saalfeld of Portland, cousin of Ted Snyder received the guests in the vestibule.

Robert Cooper, brother of the bride, lighted the candles. Altar boys were Rudy Derrah and Dennis Barrett.

Wayne Meusey, Salem, was the musician and also sang before the nuptial mass.

Reception at Hotel — After the ceremony a reception was held in the large dining room at the Albany hotel, with more than 200 guests present. Decorations consisted of white gladioluses and yellow marigolds.

The refreshment table was centered with a four-tiered wedding cake edged with white asters and fern. Mrs. Robert Dove of Salem and Miss Mary Dombrosky, aunt of the bridegroom, presided at the table. Mrs. B. H. Saalfeld, Eugene, aunt of the bride, cut the cake and was assisted by Mrs. Martin Schlechter, Mrs. Teresa Cooper of Salem and Mrs. Frank Saalfeld. Those who served were: Misses Ethlen Tunison, Barbara Densmore, Shirley Osburn, Joan Saalfeld, Miss Wilma Cosler passed the guest book. Mrs. N. S. Allard and Mrs. Clinton Huffman had charge of the gifts. Music for the reception was furnished by Miss Adeline Ehrlich.

The bridal couple left, after the reception, on a wedding trip by automobile to be gone ten days. For going-away the bride wore a green tailored suit with copper accessories and pinned to her shoulder was a spray of copper shaded roses.

Both the bride and bridegroom were graduated from Albany high school. Mr. Dombrosky is employed by the L. E. Snell Co., at Albany, and the bride by the Albany branch of the U. S. National bank.
