

Gubser-Jones Wedding Sunday in McMinnville

Dayton—In a candlelight ceremony at the First Methodist church in McMinnville on Sunday afternoon, September 18, at 4 o'clock Miss Doris Jones, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Jones of Dayton, was wed to Sgt. Norman R. Gubser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ersel Gubser of Unionvale. The Rev. Lowell Ellis, pastor of the First Nazarene church in McMinnville, assisted by Rev. George Millan of Unionvale, pastor of the Evangelical United Brethren church, read the double ring service.

The church altar was decorated with an arch of white asters and greenery, with candelabras and baskets of pink asters and snapdragons. The wedding music was played by the church organist, and Willard Friesen of Salem sang.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, was gowned in a traditional white satin dress, designed with scalloped sweetheart neckline, low waisted, with fitted bodice forming a point in front and back, and shearing in front of the bodice. A full skirt formed a long train. The dress had long sleeves with pointed cuffs. The bride wore a tulle veil with a crown of orange blossoms. She carried a bouquet of white roses, pink carnations and stephanotis, centered by a white orchid. For something old the bride wore a ruby lavalier, a gift to her mother by her father, before they were married. She also wore three strands of pearls, a gift from the bridegroom.

Sister Attends
Mrs. Orville Neuschwanger, the bride's sister, was maid of honor. She wore a gown of aqua marquisette over taffeta and carried a nosegay of pink button chrysanthemums.

Miss Anona Gubser, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Mary Lou Robinson, were bridesmaids and wore dresses of pastel pink net over taffeta and carried pink button chrysanthemum nosegays. Mrs. Don Gubser, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, and Miss Lois Rockhill, also bridesmaids, wore pastel blue over taffeta and carried nosegays of pink button chrysanthemums. The junior bridesmaid was the bride's niece, Marlene Mitchell who wore a blue taffeta and net dress and carried a pink nosegay. All the bride's attendants wore halos of flowers in their hair matching the color of their gown. The flower girl was Susan Jones, niece of the bride, who wore a white taffeta gown. Gary Neuschwanger, nephew of the bride, was the ring bearer.

The best man was the bridegroom's brother, Donald Gubser. The ushers were Edwin Jones and Myrl Jones, brothers of the bride; James Richardson and Marvin Lorenzen.

Miss Estelle Schroeder and Miss Bette Friesen of Salem Bible academy, were the candlelighters.

The bride's mother wore for her daughter's wedding, a two piece burgundy suit with gray accessories, and the bridegroom's mother wore a blue and white crepe dress with navy blue accessories. They both wore rosebud corsages. Both the bridegroom's grandmothers, Mrs. D. Lynn Guber and Mr. Alvin Dickover, attended.

Reception Follows
The reception was held in the church parlors. The table, covered with a lace cloth, was centered with a five tiered wedding cake, decorated with pink rosebuds and silver leaves, topped with a soldier bridegroom and bride ornament.

Mrs. Paul Mitchell, sister of the bride, cut the cake and Mrs. Ivan Gubser, aunt of the bridegroom, and Mrs. Edwin Jones, sister-in-law of the bride, served the punch. Miss Beth Hamilton, friend of the bride was in charge of the guest book. Miss Gilda Richards, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Anna Marie Rundstrom had charge of the gifts. At the reception door a huge white wedding bell was hung. It was used at the bride's sister's wedding.

For traveling, the bride wore a two piece gray gabardine suit with pink and black accessories and white orchid corsage. The couple motored to Spirit Lake in Washington, after which they will motor to Fort Bragg, N.C., where he will be stationed for ten months.

The bride is a 1949 graduate of Salem College and Academy, where she majored in music. She was the spring music festival queen at the Academy. The bridegroom is a graduate of Dayton union high school, class of '46, and has been in the army two years.

Miss Bodeen Is Bride Sunday

Silverton—A beautiful wedding took place at the Silverton Methodist church chancel Sunday afternoon at 4:30 o'clock when Miss Verna Marie Bodeen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Harold R. Bodeen of Yamhill, and Byron Charles Fry, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Fry of Silverton, exchanged their nuptial vows before the candlelighted altar banked with pink and white dahlias and gladioluses amid lacy ferns. The Rev. Ben F. Browning read the lines of the double ring ceremony. Mrs. Robert F. Fry, sister-in-law of the bridegroom, assisted at the organ by Mrs. Betty Hagen of Salem, sang. Mrs. Hagen also played the wedding music.

Miss Gale Jackson and Miss Edythe Holland in matching floor-length gowns and wrist bouquets lighted the tapers.

The bride, accompanied to the altar and given in marriage by her father, wore an ivory slipper satin dress, fashioned with fitted bodice and sleeves pointed over the hands and a full length train. The fingertip length veil was edged in old lace and was held by a coronet of orange blossoms and seed pearls. The bride's only ornament was a single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. She carried a white Bible topped with a white orchid.

Honor attendant, was the bride's sister, Mrs. R. Chris Christenson, wearing pastel blue satin modeled on long lines, and a matching picture hat and long mitts. She carried a basket bouquet of pink daisies and pompom dahlias. The bride's junior attendant was a sister, Miss Patricia Lou Bodeen, in white lace net over gold satin with matching large hat and mitts. She carried a basket arrangement of yellow pompom dahlias.

The bridegroom was attended by his brother, Robert L. Fry, as best man. Ushers were George Hypes of Grants Pass and Richard Bodeen, brother of the bride.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Bodeen chose a burgundy two-piece crepe dress with gray accessories. Mrs. Fry, mother of the bridegroom, wore a deep blue wool two-piece suit with pink and white accessories. Each wore a corsage of cream baby gladioluses.

At the reception for more than 100 guests in the church social rooms, Mrs. Lamar Bupp of Monmouth assisted by Mrs. Chris Christenson, cut the bride's cake. Mrs. Ed Holden presided at the coffee urns. Serving punch was Mrs. Maurice VanSomeran of Idanha. Table and room decorations were in pink, white and bronze late summer flowers. Mrs. Tom Martin and Mrs. Albert Tipper assisted about the rooms. Miss Sylvia Lucht was in charge of the guest book. At the gift table were Mrs. Eugene Durschmidt and Miss Delores Fackler. Serving the guests were Miss Alice Miller, Miss Dorothea Scarth, Miss Shirley Foote, Miss Marilyn Cullison of Oregon City and Miss Barbara Smith of Yamhill.

For traveling the bride wore a mixture tweed suit with forest green and dark brown accessories. She wore her wedding orchid as a corsage. Following a trip to the coast resorts and through southern Oregon, Mr. and Mrs. Fry will announce their future plans.

Miss Rush and Mr. Case Wed Sept. 17 at Gervais

Gervais—The Gervais Sacred Heart Catholic church was the scene of the wedding of Miss Lucille Theresa Rush, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rush, and Ralph Case, son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Forsythe of Reno, Nev., Saturday evening, September 17, at a 9:30 o'clock nuptial low mass. The couple exchanged their vows before a high altar decorated with pink and white asters and ferns. Rev. Martin Doherty officiated at the double ring ceremony. Darrell Ferschweiler and Richard Leith served at the altar.

Miss Joann Coleman, Mrs. Joseph Coleman and Mrs. Richard Meier were soloists, accompanied by Mrs. Ross Coleman at the organ.

The bride, entering on the arm of her father, wore a white slipper satin gown fashioned with a long train, low square neckline and long sleeves. Her lace edged fingertip veil fell from a pearl beaded head wreath. She carried an orchid on a white prayer book from which fell streamers of white satin ribbon.

Miss Roseann Rush, sister of the bride, was maid of honor and wore a pink faille gown with drop shoulder effect bodice and a three tiered skirt. She carried a nosegay of white asters centered with a deep blue aster and tied with blue satin ribbon.

Mrs. Alfred Nolan, sister of the bride, and Miss Clara Manning were bridesmaids and they wore blue faille gowns made like that of the maid of honor. They both carried nosegays of white asters centered with a pink aster and tied with pink satin ribbon.

Joseph Coleman was best man and James Coleman and Lloyd Ferschweiler were groomsmen. Ushers were Leroy Rush, brother of the bride, and William McKay.

The bride's mother wore a maroon suit and black accessories and the groom's mother wore a beige suit with brown accessories. Their corsages were white gardenias.

A wedding breakfast for the wedding party, parents and officiating clergymen was served by Mrs. Sam Carter and Mrs. Ray Kuhn at the K.C. cafe.

A reception was held at the Sacred Heart parish hall. Mrs. Richard Meier cut the cake. Miss Barbara Jean Case, sister of the bridegroom, presided at the punch bowl and Mrs. Arthur Richardson poured. Mrs. Clarence Grassman, Mrs. William Koenig and Miss Jean Manning assisted. Mrs. Joseph Coleman and Mrs. Clyde Vachter had charge of the gift table. The guest book was passed by Misses Dorothea Andres and Mary Grassman.

The bride chose a green suit with black accessories for her wedding trip to Crater lake and the Oregon coast. To her suit she pinned an orchid corsage. The couple will reside in Salem.
