Miss Baldwin Is Wed at Canby

Aurora—The First Christian church in Canby was the scene of the wedding of Miss Joan Francis Baldwin, and Howard Arnold Gardner, both of Canby, Saturday evening, September 10. Rev. John J. Stone read the service.

Pink and white gladioluses in floor baskets formed the setting for the wedding ceremony.

The bride wore a gown of white lace with train. Her full-length net veil trimmed in lace, fell from a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible topped by a lavender orchid tied with satin streamers with small Vanda orchids attached. She was given in marriage by her brother, Jerry Baldwin.

Mrs. Duane Zacher was matron of honor. She wore an orchid taffeta gown and carried a cascade arrangement of pink carnations. An identical bouquet was carried by Miss Alma Brown of Aurora, maid of honor, who wore yellow satin. The bridesmaids, Miss Carol Rose and Miss Roberta Schneider wore aqua brocade gowns. Their cascade arrangements were of yellow carnations.

Dale Plummer served as best man for Mr. Gardner. Kenneth Christensen, Don Stajgr and Byrl Plummer ushered. Mrs. Earl Oathes played the wedding music. Miss Betty Hostetler sang.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Eva Baldwin wore gray sharkskin with a corsage of Vanda orchids, and the bride's maternal grandmother, Mrs. Will Hodgson, wore gray-green sharkskin with a pink rosebud corsage.

At the reception afterwards, Mrs. Arthur A. Schneider served the bride's cake, Mrs. C. O. Lewis poured and Miss Gladys Johnson presided at the punch bowl.

Mrs. Gardner, who has made her home in Canby four years, graduated with the 1949 class of Canby Union high school.

Mr. Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner of Pine Ridge, S. D.; and nephew of Mr. and Mrs. Ed State Teachers' College in D. H. Gardner of Canby, attend-Nebraska and attended Washington State College last year. He will return to Washington State late this month to begin his studies in veterinary medicine. Pullman, Wash., will be the home of Mr. and Mrs. Gardner following their wedding trip to Lake Couer d'Alene, Idaho.

Mrs. Ross Home from Orient Trip

Being welcomed home after four and one-half months in the Orient is Mrs. Custer Ross, who arrived here the first of the week.

Mrs. Ross spent three months in Japan, visiting her son and daughter-in-law, Lt. and Mrs. Douglas Ross, and their little daughter, and touring Japan, Lt. and Mrs. Ross live in Washington Heights in Tokyo. Mrs. Ross visited other places in Japan and reports the country very beautiful and as one appearing not to be a nation that has been conquered. The people of Japan worship General Douglas MacArthur, she reports.

From Japan, Mrs. Ross sailed to Manila and Baguio and the party she was traveling with completely circled the Philippine islands. People there are very cheerful and determinedly going ahead, rebuilding and cleaning up after the war, Mrs. Ross reports.

After the Philippines trip Mrs. Ross' ship went by Hong Kong and on back to Japan and home, arriving at Seattle in the States.

Miss Irwin to Wed in Alaska

Aurora—Announcement is being made by Mr. and Mrs. George W. Irwin of Canby of the engagement of their daughter Miss Virginia Irwin to Richard H. Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Cole of Tacoma.

The wedding will take place early this winter at Fairbanks, Alaska, where Mr. Cole is now engaged in construction work and Miss Irwin has two-year assignment as a public health nurse for the Alaska territorial government.

Miss Irwin three weeks ago completed a post-graduate course in public health nursing at University of Washington. She was salutatorian of her class when she graduated from Canby Union high school in 1942. She attended Willamette University at Salem for two years and then entered University of Oregon Medical school for nurses training. She served at the Multnomah county hospital, and received her Bachelor of Science degree at the same time she completed her nurses training. After that she served 15 months at the Hilo Memorial hospital in Hawaii, returning to the mainland last spring to take the public health nursing course in Seattle.

Mr. Cole graduated from Tacoma high school and attended the College of Puget Sound for one year before joining the medical corps of the U. S. army, serving in the Philippine Islands for two years. Toward the end of the war he received an appointment to the U. S. Military Academy at West Point and started preparatory work at Amherst College in Massachusetts. After the war he resigned his West Point appointment and entered University of Washington from which he received his bachelor of science degree last June, then joined the construction company in Fairbanks.

Miss Irwin expects to sail from Seattle Saturday for Alaska. She will spend a week at Juneau, the territorial capital, and another week at Anchorage, before going on to Fairbanks. The date for the wedding will be determined after Miss Irwin arrives in Fairbanks.

SPANISH club announces its meeting for this evening at 8 o'clock in the Salem YWCA. Mrs. W. W. Chadwick is to show pictures taken on her recent trip to Alaska.

Miss Tish and Mr. John Wed

Grand Ronde—Roy Tish of Greenleaf, Idaho announces the marriage of his daughter Miss Leva Tish to Harvey John, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robt. John of Grand Ronde.

The wedding took place September 9 at 8:00 p. m. in the Friends church at Greenleaf, Idaho. A dark blue velvet background with white baskets of gladioluses and yellow roses adorned the pulpit, where the young couple were wedded by Evangelist Hubert Nordock. Organist was Mrs. Alva Tish of Greenleaf. Mrs. Harvey Kocher of Okanogan, Wash., and Mark Roberts of Greenleaf sang. As the young couple knelt at the altar, Mrs. Kocher sang, "Facing the Future with Jesus."

The bride was attired in white slipper satin with a nylon yoke, long pointed sleeves and train, with a fingertip veil held in place with a coronet of white pom-poms. She carried an arm bouquet of white carnations.

Mrs. Arnold Shaver of Molalla was matron of honor. Bridesmaids were Miss Louise Fivecoat and Miss Nadine Fodge, both of Greenleaf. They wore yellow taffeta gowns with picture hats to match and carried nosegays of pom poms, shaded from bright yellow to brown. Candelighters were Misses Dorothy and Violet John twin sisters of the bridegroom. They wore yellow gowns.

Alvin John was best man. Mervin John of Grand Ronde and Marvin Marwick of Greenleaf were groomsmen. Ushers were Glen and Ralph Tish.

Misses Hazel Beeson and Carol Gossard were in charge of the gifts. Mrs. John Roberts served the wedding cake to approximately 350 guests.
