

Many Women Volunteers Aid Community Chest Drive Starting October 4

PRELIMINARY PLANS for the women's part in the Community Chest campaign were outlined this week at a luncheon for the leaders at the home of Mrs. Conrad Paulson, Wednesday. Mrs. Paulson was chairman for the women's division last year and is adviser for the group this year. Left to right: Mrs. Charles H. Wood, Mrs. Robert W. Gormsen and Mrs. Paulson.

ARRIVING TO HEAR instructions on the Red Feather or gavelian's campaign plans are these five leaders. Left to right: Mrs. Charles Hansen, Mrs. William Loewen, Mrs. F. W. Pickard, Mrs. Fred Snider, Mrs. Bert A. Walker.

FOUR OTHERS AT this week's instruction meeting for leaders are shown here at the Paulson home, talking over plans. Left to right they are: Mrs. Charles McElhinny, Mrs. M. H. Saffron, Mrs. Virgil Pade and Mrs. Kiony Smith.

THREE CHAIRMEN HEAD the women's division for the annual Community Chest campaign in Salem this year and next Tuesday evening in the Cave room at the Senator hotel, the dinner to be at 6:30 o'clock.

City's Dance Clubs Plan New Year

These next few weeks find the dozen dance clubs of the city busy with plans for starting their new year.

Among the first dances scheduled is the season's opening one for Tillamook club, next Saturday evening, October 1, at the Marion hotel. Dancing will be between 9 and 11 o'clock with Wulfer's orchestra playing. There will be a buffet set up throughout the evening.

Carl H. Cover is president of the club this year with Carl Jordan as secretary-treasurer.

Trouters club announces its first dance for Friday Oct. 7, at Glenwood ballroom. The officers, A. L. McCafferty, president; Joseph B. Felton, vice president, and Lee Ohmart, secretary, and their wives will be the committee for the first dance.

Wisteria club's first dance is slated for Friday evening, October 14, membership notices going out this past week.

Waverly club has planned a dinner dance for the evening of Saturday, October 15, as their first party of the new year, the event to be at the Marion hotel. Douglas Chambers is the club's president.

Monday Night Dance club will begin its new year on Friday, October 21, a buffet dinner dance being arranged at the Marion hotel that evening. Second dance is to be November 18, and after that the dances will come the third Saturday of the month. Claude Johns is president of the club this year.

Bonheur members have announced their first dance for the evening of October 21. A. J. Grose is president of the club.

Cama club also is planning its initial dance of the fall for October 21. William J. Sullivan is president of the group this year.

Town club members are planning their first party as a formal dinner dance the evening of October 22 at the Marion hotel. Robert Drager heads the group as president.

Arranged for the evening of October 29, Saturday, is the Subscription club's first dance as a dinner dance. John R. Caughell is this year's president of the club.

Another Halloween week-end dance planned October 29 is the Carousal club's first event. Melvin Bodanal is this club's president for the coming year.

The Cosmopolitan dance group continues its monthly parties throughout the year, usually the third or fourth Saturday of the month, and has been sponsoring dances through the summer. Next dance is to be October 15. Glenn Bowman is present. The club is concluding its fourth year and has a membership of 40 couples.

Mrs. Robert Letts Jones is visiting with friends in Pasadena, Calif., planning to return at the mid-week.

By MARIAN LOWRY FISCHER

MAYOR and Mrs. Robert L. Elstrom are to be hosts this evening at an informal reception to honor Mrs. Elstrom's nephew, Dale Roth Leisy, and the latter's bride, who are here en route to Corvallis.

The young couple were married September 4 at All Saints Episcopal church in San Diego. The bride is the former Jeanne Lupton, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Miller Murray of San Diego. Mr. Leisy is the son of Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Leisy of Portland. The visitors are on their way to Corvallis to live this winter. Mr. Leisy is to be a senator at Oregon State college.

About 50 relatives will attend the informal reception this evening at the Elstrom home, arranged at 8 o'clock. The evening will feature an informal program presented by members of the family. Mrs. Homer Leisy of Dallas and Mrs. Elvin Herr of Silverton, sisters of Mrs. Elstrom, will pour and assisting serving will be several nieces.

Mrs. Ernest C. Richards and Miss Lois Latimer are to be hostesses at the home of the former Monday evening for a meeting of Chapter AB, P.E.O. Sisterhood, at 7:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Sidney B. Lewis is to be hostess at her home, 340 Lane Place, Tuesday evening for Chapter BC of P.E.O. Sisterhood, the meeting to be at 7:15 o'clock.

Tea for Captains in Chest Drive To Be Tuesday Afternoon Event

Captains in the women's division for the annual Community Chest drive, opening October 4, will be honored at an informal tea to be given next Tuesday afternoon, September 27, at the Salem Woman's club house.

Hours for the tea are between 2 and 4 o'clock.

The club house has been donated under special dispensation by the Salem Woman's club as part of its community service interest.

Arranging the tea are the three chairmen for the women's division, Mrs. Robert W. Wilson, Jr., Mrs. George Spaur and Mrs. Elmer J. Church and their 15 leaders.

Charles A. Sprague, local publisher, is to be guest speaker for the afternoon. He is a past president of the Oregon Chest, Inc.

Pouring during the tea will be Mrs. Conrad Paulson, last year's women's division chairman in the campaign and adviser to the group this year, and Mrs. Charles McElhinny, active worker in the campaign.

Several hundred women, all volunteers as are the leadership corps, will be in the field starting October 4 to do the residential solicitation for the campaign—the doorbell ringing job of the drive.

Central division—Mrs. Sidney Schlesinger, Mrs. Richard Nelson, Mrs. Robert Cannon, Mrs. Horace McGee, Mrs. William Bush, Mrs. John Woods, Jr., Mrs. Russell E. Pratt, Mrs. Frank H. Spars, Mrs. E. M. Page, Mrs. James McClelland, Mrs. Joseph B. Felton, Mrs. Robert Gontzlow, Mrs. Wayne Ferdue, Mrs. Gayle Stoddard, Mrs. Eugene Oliver, Mrs. Edwin McEwen, Mrs. Glen Stevenson, Mrs. Malcolm Jones, Edward Roth, Mrs. James Schuler, Mrs. Vance Morrison, Mrs. Raymond Busick, Mrs. Richard N. Chase, Mrs. Claybourne Dyer, Mrs. Robert Letts Jones.

North division, incomplete list—Mrs. Edgar Morris, Mrs. Maynard Shiffer, Mrs. Ella Buswell, Mrs. J. H. Holt, Mrs. Kenneth Muller, Mrs. Carl Soos, Mrs. Archie Elliott, Mrs. Emery Lebold, Mrs. Glenn Blanton, Mrs. Robert Smith, Mrs. H. L. Gillette.

Leaders serving under the three chairmen include: Mrs. Charles D. Wood, Mrs. Kiony Smith, Mrs. Elmore Hill, Mrs. Fred Snider and Mrs. Robert W. Gormsen, all working with Mrs. Wilson; Mrs. W. C. Dyer, Jr., Mrs. M. H. Saffron, Mrs. Bert A. Walker, Mrs. Charles McElhinny, Mrs. F. W. Pickard, serving with Mrs. Spaur; Mrs. William Stortz, Mrs. Robert Upson, Mrs. William Loewen, Mrs. Virgil Pade, Mrs. Charles Hansen, working with Mrs. Church.

Among those in Eugene today for the University of Oregon and University of Idaho game were Miss Alene Phillips and Mrs. Raymond Williams, the latter of Portland. Mrs. Williams is to be house guest of Miss Phillips in the capital this week-end.

Delta Zeta Alumnae are to meet on Monday evening for their first fall gathering at the home of Mrs. Blaine Erickson, 404 S. E. 10th, at 8 o'clock, Mrs. R. L. Bradley assisting

Miss Dorathie Steusloff and her grand niece and nephew, Ann Louisa and David Chambers, and Mrs. George Alexander and grandson, Gregory Stader, are at the beach at Pacific City this week-end.

Leaving tomorrow for their home in San Francisco will be Mrs. Ray Worthing and son, who have been visiting here this week with her mother, Mrs. D. X. Beecher.

A recent visitor at the W. P. Fuoss home was Mrs. A. H. Kuepfer of Huntington Park, Calif.

In Portland this evening to see the play "Streetcar Named Desire" are Mrs. and William L. Phillips, Sr., and son, Don.

MISS MARILYN POWER above, is the new worthy adviser for Chadwick assembly, Order of Eastern Star, to be installed in the Masonic temple on Tuesday evening. She is the daughter of Dr. and Mrs. F. Kenneth Power.

HONORED QUEEN for the new Bethel of Job's Daughters to be instituted in Salem next Tuesday evening is Miss Edna Mae Manning, above, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James B. Manning.

Rainbow Installation Tuesday Evening

New officers for Chadwick assembly, Order of Rainbow for Girls, will be installed at a public ceremony next Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock in the Masonic temple.

Serving as the installing officers will be: Miss Gladys Ponek, the retiring worthy adviser, as worthy adviser; Miss Pebble DeSart, marshal; Miss Betty Cooley, chaplain; Miss Dorisene Shafer, recorder; Miss Virginia Benner, musician.

Miss Marilyn Power heads the incoming officers as worthy adviser and other officers to serve the term with her include:

Miss Dorothy Pederson, associate adviser; Miss Shirley Jones, charity; Miss Norma Hamilton, hope; Miss Donna Phelps, faith; Miss Dorisene Shafer, recorder; Miss Elaine Stanley, treasurer; Miss Elizabeth Johnson, chaplain; Miss Jean Blackwell, drill leader; Miss Marilyn Blakley, associate drill leader; Miss Beverly Benner, musician; Miss Roberta Graham, love; Miss Doris Helen Squandini, religion; Miss Heilestein, nature; Miss Joyce Armstrong, immortality; Miss Patricia Miller, fidelity; Miss Claudia Talmadge, patriotism; Miss Roberta Sjoding, service; Miss Vivian Chance, confidential observer; Miss Sharon Whiters, outer observer; Miss Beverly Graber, historian; Miss Joyce Garlick, flagbearer; Miss Patricia Elstrom, soloist.

For the program, Ronald Craven is to sing "The Lord's Prayer" and Miss Elstrom is to sing "Bless This House." and Miss Edna Mae Hill will play "Malguesna" on the piano. Others for the evening will be Misses Claudia and Clara Waters. In charge of gifts will be Misses Anne Forristal and Carol Fahr.

Refreshments will be served, Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Burris, Mrs. D. G. DeSart and Mrs. Glenn S. Paxson in charge. Mrs. D. M. Eby and Mrs. W. L. Lewis are to pour.

Nile Fall Benefit Due Thursday

Important event on the new week's calendar is the annual fall benefit to be sponsored by Salem club, Daughters of the Nile, next Thursday, September 29, at the Masonic temple.

The affair is a two-party one, cards to be played in the afternoon, starting at 1:30 o'clock, and again in the evening, starting at 7:45 o'clock. Both bridge and pinocle will be in play and a large number of prizes will be awarded.

All proceeds from the benefit go to the work of the Shriners' hospital for crippled children in Portland, a project aided by the Nile girls.

Mrs. Charles Boyer is president of the Nile club in Salem.

Among those making reservations for the Thursday parties are: Mrs. Douglas McKay, Mrs. Robert Cannon, Mrs. Carl Soos, Mrs. Vern Hasbrook, Mrs. John Dietz, Mrs. E. H. Kennedy, Mrs. Harriet Lietz, Mrs. Richard A. Meyer, Mrs. Wilbur Pinfiler of Stanton, Mrs. John S. Loehner, Mrs. V. E. Kuhn, Mrs. Grant C. Rogers, Mrs. Robert L. Elstrom, Mrs. James Bird, Mrs. A. A. Feltson, Mrs. D. M. Eby, Mrs. Claude Post, Mrs. Jason Frizell, Mrs. Robert Eyre, Mrs. Paul H. Hauser, Mrs. E. M. Page, Mrs. Errol Ross of Silverton, Mrs. Maurice Butler of Independence.

Visitors expected next week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Parker will be Dr. and Mrs. R. J. Jones of Pasadena, Calif. The two couples were together on a trip a year ago to Victoria, B. C., where they were in the home of Mr. Parker's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Parker of Los Angeles.

OSC Mothers Meeting

Calendared for Monday afternoon is a meeting for the Oregon State College Mothers' club of Salem, the event to be at 2 o'clock in Mayflower hall.

Invitation is extended to mothers of all present and former students with special invitation to the mothers of new students enrolling at OSC.

Mrs. Austin H. Wilson, Sr., president, will announce her committee chairmen for the year and plans will be discussed by the new year's program.

Among events being arranged by the club is a tea in October or November to compliment Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson of Salem, who is the state president for the OSC Mothers' club this year.

Past presidents of the local group are being honored especially at the Monday gathering and they will take charge of the social hour and tea with Mrs. Howard Smith and Mrs. John J. Casper, the first two presidents, leading the group. Other past presidents assisting will be Mrs. Oscar I. Paulson, Mrs. Elmore Hill, Mrs. G. A. Beecher, Mrs. Donald H. Upjohn, Mrs. Carl W. Enmons, Mrs. George Croisan, Mrs. L. O. Arens.

The DeMolay Mothers club will start its meetings this year with a luncheon at the Masonic temple, on the second Thursday in October. At this time the president, Mrs. Harry Bachle, will announce committee appointments and club plans for the year. Mrs. L. J. Stewart, vice president, has sent questionnaires to all mothers of DeMolay boys and as soon as these have been returned a list of the members will be compiled. Other officers are: Mrs. Ferdig Hall, secretary, Mrs. Lloyd Huggins, treasurer.

Salem Woman's Club Style Revue To Be Staged Monday Afternoon

A major social event to start of the new year will be the "Salem Women's Club Style Revue" to be staged Monday afternoon at the Senator hotel, the dinner to be at 6:30 o'clock.

The health and safety committee is in charge of the program, Mrs. Thomas E. Rilea, Jr., as chairman.

Earl D. Houck, president of Portland Beauty Supply, Inc., Portland, is to be guest speaker, his topic to be "Good Grooming as a Step Towards Good Health." Erich Laetsch, newcomer from New York City, will demonstrate hair styles. Mrs. Laetsch will be the model.

Mrs. John Versteeg will preside at the meeting as club president.

Salem friends received announcement this week of the engagement of Miss Madeline Keene, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy S. Keene of Corvallis, formerly of Salem, to James Swarbrick, son of Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Swarbrick of Idaho Falls, Idaho. The news was told at the bride-elect's sorority, Kappa Alpha Theta, during the week. No date is set for the wedding but it is planned to be this winter. Miss Keene was graduated from Salem high school and has finished her junior year at Oregon State college. Mr. Swarbrick was graduated from OSC last June and is affiliated with Alpha Tau Omega. He was a member of the football team and active in other athletics.

Chapter BQ of P.E.O. Sisterhood is meeting Monday at 7:45 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Gus Moore for the fall's first event.

Ten Salem women will be in Eugene Wednesday for the Oregon Women's Golf association tournament. Those going from here include: Mrs. Harold M. Olinger, Mrs. John Helzel, Mrs. Werner Brown, Mrs. Chandler Brown, Mrs. Ivan Marble, Mrs. Claude Johns, Mrs. Stuart Thede, Mrs. Howard Wicklund, Mrs. Rex Adelphi, Mrs. Marc Seale.

The regular weekly day for the local women golfers will be Wednesday at the Salem Golf club.

WOMEN VOTERS PLAN TEA

The Salem League of Women Voters will sponsor a membership tea at 2:30 p.m. next Tuesday, September 27, in the home of Mrs. Bruce Spaulding, 219 W. Lincoln street.

Members will have opportunity to meet the state League president, Mrs. James West of Portland. Mrs. West will outline the league's program for this year.

Mrs. Arthur Bone is chairman of arrangements for the tea, assisted by Mrs. Gordon O. Leonard, Mrs. Garland Simpson and Mrs. George Swartzley.

Guests will be received by Mrs. Hal DeSart, Mrs. Arthur Shiffle and Mrs. Mark Artray. Mrs. Harold A. Rosebraugh and Miss Eleanor Stephens will pour.

Newsletters to Salem are invited to the tea by Mrs. DeSart, president of the Salem league.

One of the league's principal activities this year will be a voter's service program in which non-partisan presentation of information on legislation and candidates for office will be made for both members and the general voting public.

New Bethel for Job's Daughters

Of interest to Masonic groups is the institution of a new Bethel of Job's Daughters next Saturday evening, October 1, Salem chapter, Order of Eastern Star, sponsoring the new group.

The meeting will be at 7:30 o'clock that evening in the Masonic temple and interested members of all Masonic affiliated groups are invited.

Officers of the new Bethel include: Miss Edna Mae Manning, honored queen; Miss Adeline Smithson, senior princess; Miss Helen Booth, junior princess; Miss Shirley Kramer, guide; Miss Joan Boyer, marshal; Miss Janet Lee Boyer, chaplain; Miss Claudia Waters, senior custodian; Miss Clara Waters, junior custodian; Miss Loured Herr, musician; Miss Marilyn Waters, recorder; Miss Marian Baum, librarian; Miss Ann Gallahay, treasurer; Miss Justine Lewis, Carol DeMetz, Joan Bale, Patricia Van Ottingham and Marcia Maple, the five messengers; Miss Judy Shrock, inner guard; Miss Shirley McCauley, outer guide; Miss Rean Fletcher, historian.

ONE OF THE MAJOR activities for Salem club, Daughters of the Nile, each year is the fall benefit card party to be given next Thursday afternoon and evening, September 29, at the Masonic temple. Among committee members attending the event are these five, left to right: seated, Mrs. Gregory Harffler and Mrs. J. Parker Lineberry, and in back from left, Mrs. Carl Quintad, Mrs. John Graybill and Mrs. C. Ward Davis.