

Yankee-Red Sox Weekend Set Stage for Payoff Game

When Tom Yawkey, millionaire owner of the Boston Red Sox said, "Those darn palookas of mine are going to be the American league champs," everyone thought it was a good crack.

Well, those palookas are tied with the New York Yankees for first place in the American league today, a position they expect to better by nightfall.

Lefty Mel Parnell pitched the rumpaging Red Sox into a flat-footed tie yesterday as he downed the Yanks, 4-1, with a neat four-hitter before a howling mob of 35,517 fans at Boston.

The Red Sox take on the Yanks in the stadium today with Lefty Maurice McDermott (5-4) scheduled to go for the Palookas against New York's Tommy Byrne (15-7).

A triumph for either party would just about settle the issue. Following today's battle both teams will have five games left to play including two at the New York park next Saturday and Sunday. In between meetings the Red Sox play three games with last place Washington and the Yanks three with the pesky fifth place Philadelphia Athletics.

half game lead over the Brooklyn Dodgers in the National league race. The Cards beat the Chicago Cubs, 6-1, while the Philadelphia Phils slit the Dodgers, 5-3.

St. Louis and Brooklyn, marking time today, have five and four games left to play, respectively. The Cards have three dates with the last place Cubs and two with sixth place Pittsburgh. The Dodgers have two meetings with the Phils and two with Boston.

Should the Cards win only three of their remaining five games it would assure them of no worse than a tie, providing Brooklyn takes all four of its games.

Parnell's triumph was his 25th of the season against seven defeats. It also was Boston's ninth straight and their 21st consecutive at home. Parnell and Kinder, who has won 23 games, have accounted for more than half of Boston's 93 victories.

Allie Reynolds pitched well for the Yanks but not good enough. The Sox reached Reynolds for two runs in the second when Johnny Pesky singled with two out and the bases loaded.

Reynolds hung on gamely until the seventh when Ted Williams ended the Yankee hopes with a 400-foot homer, his 43rd, into the rightfield seats. Johnny Pesky preceded Williams' lone hit of the game with his third hit.

Harry (The Cat) Brecheen tamed the Cubs on six hits and collected four of the Cards' 12 safeties. The crafty lefthander batted in three runs and was only ruffled in the fourth when Rookie Bill Serena homered.

Ralph Branca started for Brooklyn and pitched seven brilliant innings. Branca allowed only five hits and fanned nine but a blister forced him out of action.

Jack Banta took over and the Phils quickly went to town. Richie Ashburn beat out a bunt and raced to third on Gran Hamner's double. Dick Sisler singled both runners home to tie the score at 3-3. Del Ennis popped out attempting to bunt. Seminick, hitless in three previous swings, then whaled Banta's first pitch out of sight to break up the game.

In other National league games the New York Giants downed the Boston Braves, 3-2 and 5-2 and the Pittsburgh Pirates clipped the Cincinnati Reds, 7-3, and 5-3.

Bob Lemon turned in his 21st victory for Cleveland as he pitched the Indians to a 7-1 victory over the Detroit Tigers. In other American league games the Philadelphia Athletics beat Washington, 8-5, then bowed, 4-0, to Dick Weik of the Senators in the seven inning final. The Chicago White Sox defeated the St. Louis Browns, 7-5, and then lost, 6-2, to the Browns.

Carson Rated 'Man to Beat' in Golf Tourney

Harry Carson appeared the man to beat in the currently operating Salem Golf club championship tournament as he took Walter Cline, Jr. out of contention 3 and 2 as a result of second round competition. Carson had previously beaten medalist Harold Olinger. He will engage Leo Estey in one-half of the semi-finals.

Harv Quistad and Jim Russell will battle it out in the other part of the semi-finals. Quistad beat Ralph Mapes, 2-1 while Russell was eliminating Ned Ingram, 2-1.

First flight results: Putnam over Olinger, 3-2; Sheldon over Waldman, 2-1; Needham over J. Johnson, 3-1; B. Johnson over Victor, 3-2.

Second flight: Nikita and Goodwin unplayed; Alley over Eggleston, 6-5; Lemgren over Clark, 3-2; Powell over Schafer, 5-4.

Third flight: Baxter over Waller, 1 up; Kimball over Sedstrom default; Shafer over Mae, 2-1; Thomson over McCallister, 3-2.

Albany Shooter Takes First in Sunday Blasting

Lloyd Templeton of Albany, by breaking 94 out of a possible 100, took first place in the handicap of the registered trap shoot Sunday. Hank Peters of Sublimity registered a 98 x 100 performance to win the 16 yard event while George Miller placed first in the doubles with a 44 out of 50.

Runners up in the handicap were Peters and George Boyd, each with 92. Cal Ray, H. C. Patton and V. White each broke 91.

In the 16 yard event, Lloyd Templeton and A. McKee each broke 97 while Jim Bird, E. Brickey, George Miller and Harold Stone cracked 96 each.

Cal Ray and R. Welty placed second to Miller in the doubles event, each breaking 43.

Vikings Plot for Big Six Starter; Study Waters Park Grid Problem

Salem high's Vikings began workouts Monday in preparation for their first Big Six league football contest Friday night at Waters Park when they meet the Albany Bulldogs.

Salem victimized twice by tough opponents, is expected to catch Albany on the rebound from an unexpected defeat by Lebanon.

The game Friday night may find the gridiron layout at Waters Park changed to switch the playing field alongside the ball park's third base line.

The problem of finding the best solution for utilizing the baseball layout for football has resulted in considerable study by school authorities.

"We put the playing field in the outfield to enable us to separate the student groups from the general public and in such a manner that all could see," Vernon Gilmore, Viking athletic director pointed out.

"The third base line idea might prove to be better from the spectator point of view if it doesn't rain. But if it rains, the uncovered bleachers won't be desirable, and the boys will be playing in the mud of the uncovered infield," he summarized.

Weston, Oliver Pace Northwest Open Golf Meet

Walla Walla, Sept. 26 (AP)—There was lots of variety up at the top today as two tall, two small and two ponderous persons led the surviving field of 57 into the final 36 holes of the $2,000 northwest open golf tournament.

At the top of the heap, each three under par with 139, were the lightly constructed Spokane amateur, Ray Weston, and Porky Oliver, sturdily stacked pro from Seattle.

A small dynamite from Vancouver, B. C., Stan Leonard, and pudgy Harold West of Portland had 140s. So did Ted Neist, Walla Walla, and Chuck Congdon, Tacoma, the tall one-third of the sextet.

While the problem of the park and preparation for the Albany game Friday occupied the spotlight, the Salem Jayvee griders were busy with final preparations for the first game of the season Wednesday.

The Viking Jayvees will play Sacred Heart's Cardinals on the Leslie field at 7:30 p.m. Wednesday. The game opens a six game schedule which Gilmore hopes to expand to eight by filling dates on October 28 and November 4 or 7.

Northwest Loopers See Non-League Grid Action

(By the Associated Press)

Five Northwest conference football teams saw action in non-conference clashes Saturday, marking up three victories against two losses.

Most one-sided was Pacific university's 33-13 shellacking of Western Washington college. Touchdowns in the second and third quarters gave Western a 13-6 lead, but it was short-lived. Pacific bounced back to score twice in the third period on Allen Olsen's 30-yard run and a 46-yard dash by Stan Russell, then pushed over two more tallies to turn the game into a rout in the final frame.

Whitman jumped on another Evergreen conference opponent in dropping the University of British Columbia 6-0. The Missionaries powered their way 68 yards on their first five plays of the game to score. From there on out the two elevens stayed close to the midfield stripe, neither side threatening.

Linfield scored twice in the first quarter in defeating Humboldt State college 22-6. A 58-yard run by Carl Wickham set up the first counter and Jim Luoto ran back a punt 53 yards for the second.

Lewis & Clark suffered one league setback, a 20-7 defeat by Southern Oregon College of Education. Two first quarter scores set up by a fumble and pass interception put the Pioneers in a hole that a 63-yard scoring drive in the third quarter couldn't lift them from.

College of Idaho bowed 14-6 to Idaho State in the fifth contest.

OCE Wolves Top Navy Team, 39-0

Monmouth—The Oregon College of Education Wolves defeated the Whidby Island navy team Saturday night 39-0 with Roger Dasch, quarterback from Salem, opening the scoring with a first period touchdown.

Dasch went over from the 1-yard stripe on a quarterback sneak. The Wolves scored in every period.

Aiken has Makings of New Coast Champion Squad

By FRED ZIMMERMAN

He may not be ready to take on Notre Dame and Oregon fans should not as yet send in their applications for seats in the Rose Bowl for next January 1, nevertheless Coach Jim Aiken undoubtedly has the makings of another Pacific Coast conference championship ball club.

This was amply demonstrated at Eugene Saturday when the Webfoots exploded the contention that "this is Idaho's year" by a smashing 41 to 0 decision over the Vandals. Aiken's club looked a bit on the poor side at times but the occasions when they sparkled far outnumbered the others.

The acid test comes next Friday night at Los Angeles when the Webfoots meet the UCLA Bruins under the light of the Coliseum. If they can get over that one, then the opposition had better start looking for bomb-proof cellars.

In Earl Stelle and Jim Calderwood, Coach Aiken has a pair of boys who can pitch the pigskin—probably not as far as Norm VanBroeklin—but both give evidence of approaching the former star's ability. They didn't seem to have the protection given VanBroeklin in other years but then perhaps Jim Aiken felt he didn't need it against the Vandals.

Oregon is fairly deep in the matter of backs who can run—Bob Sanders, George Bell, Johnny McKay, Woodley Lewis and Jack Gibilisco. The last named, a 165-pound Los Angeles junior college sophomore, is an expert at hitting the line and will be heard from on more than one occasion.

But it was Sanders who beat a path around the Vandals' left end as he got up full steam in a couple of steps.

The Webfoot line isn't impregnable as the statistics will show, but the right side proved extremely tough for the Vandals who made little or no yardage on that flank.

The score probably doesn't represent a true picture of the comparative strength of the two clubs. Idaho's insistence on throwing desperation passes cost the Vandals at least two touchdowns. If they had scored on that first drive when they caught the Webfoots off-balance the game might have been close. They didn't show too much after that.

Schroeder Holds Hardcourt Title in Straight Win

Berkeley, Cal., Sept. 26 (AP)—Ted Schroeder, the "comeback kid" of tennis, was on his way to La Crescenta, Cal., today with two more trophies to put on a living room mantel already crowded with cups and medals won on courts all over the world.

The 1949 Wimbledon titlist and veteran Davis cupper successfully defended his national hardcourt singles and men's doubles crowns at the Berkeley tennis club yesterday.

Schroeder spent less than an hour disposing of Eric Sturges, the lanky South African, in the single's finale. His aggressive play kept the former RAF fighter pilot at back court throughout as Schroeder won in straight sets, 6-1, 6-3, 6-1.

The two men combined to defeat the Czechs-in-exile Jaroslav Drobný and Vladimir Cernik, 5-4, 6-3, 4-6, 7-9, 6-4 in the men's doubles. The crowd roared its approval as the two Europeans put up a game rally in the most thrilling match of the tournament.

Labrador Wins Open Retriever Field Trials

Helena, Mont., Sept. 25 (AP)—Rip of Holly Hill, a black Labrador owned by Mrs. Grant Mahood of Whitecroft, B. C., and handled by Roy Gonia of McKenna, Wash., won the open all-gate stake at the Helena retriever club field trials yesterday.

Black Labs dominated the windup of the American Kennel club sanctioned trials.
