

Salemite Weds Eugene Girl Sept. 18

From Eugene comes account of the wedding of Miss Rosemary McNutt and Lee F. Philpott, son of Mr. and Mrs. L. J. Philpott of Salem. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Ira McNutt of Eugene.

The ceremony was solemnized the afternoon of Sunday, September 18, at 4 o'clock in a garden ceremony at the summer home of the McNutts on the McKenzie river. The Rev. Harold E. Aalbu of Central Lutheran church at Eugene officiated at the service.

The bride wore a white gown of bands of lace and marquisette over taffeta, the dress having a boat neckline, cap sleeves and full skirt with train. The tulle veil was fingertip length and was arranged from a braided tulle headband with orange blossoms. For her bouquet the bride carried an arm flower of red rosebuds with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Lyle Jacobson was matron of honor for her sister and Mrs. Elmer Olson, also a sister, was the bridesmaid.

Edwin G. Heide was best man and ushers were Ted Allison, brother-in-law of the bridegroom, and John McNutt, brother of the bride.

The reception following was on the lawn also. Mrs. Vern Caldwell, aunt of the bride, cut the cake, and Mrs. Ted Allison, sister of the bridegroom, served the ices. Mrs. J. B. Pfouts poured, and at the punch bowl was Mrs. Robert Neumeister.

The couple will live in Eugene.

Drakeleys Visit Salem Relatives

Arriving by plane to spend a few days with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Drakeley, were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Drakeley of New York City, both of whom are professional singers on tour with the National company of "Kiss Me Kate," which has just completed a 12-weeks engagement in Los Angeles and San Francisco.

The couple stopped in Salem prior to going to Chicago, where "Kiss Me Kate" will open at the Shubert theater.

Ray Drakeley is a Salem high graduate and a former Willamette university student. He studied music with Prof. Cameron Marshall and received his AB and BM degrees from Central YMCA college of Chicago. At present he is studying voice with Luigi Giuffrida of New York. Mr. Drakeley interrupted his graduate work at Columbia university to go on this tour but plans to be in New York in time for the spring term.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Drakeley have done radio and concert work under Robert Shaw and appeared in several Broadway plays, including "Sleepy Hollow" and "Annie Get Your Gun."

Last Sunday the couple were honored at a buffet supper given by Mr. and Mrs. Bill Drakeley.

Guests for the supper were Mr. and Mrs. Ray Drakeley, Mr. and Mrs. W. C. Drakeley, Mrs. Jennie Chalmers, Mr. and Mrs. George Drakeley, Judy and Tommy, Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Pierpoint, Gary and Randy, Mrs. Bud Cochran, Mrs. Clarice Stewart and Diana, Donna and Everett Stewart, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Pepper and Dorothy and Caroline, and the hosts, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Drakeley and children, Billy, Janice and Linda.

Miss Hatfield Recent Bride

Turner—A double ring ceremony at Turner Christian church Saturday evening, Sept. 17 at 8 o'clock united in marriage Miss Allene L. Hatfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Hatfield and Byron L. Fortsch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lynne Fortsch, of Boise, Idaho.

The Rev. Mr. Carrey officiated and Mrs. Joe Harter sang, accompanied by Mrs. Margaret Boyer, who also played the wedding march.

The bride's gown was of ivory nylon, with fitted bodice and softly gathered full skirt. Her three quarters length veil was edged with lace and held in place with a silver Juliet cap. The bride was given in marriage by her father. The bride's bouquet was of deep pink asters centered by two gardenias.

Mrs. Eugene Van Antwerp of Salem was matron of honor and was gowned in orchid taffeta. Miss Mary De Rosa was bridesmaid and wore gold taffeta. Both carried nosegay type bouquets of shaded asters.

Little Miss Marilyn Miller of Salem was flower girl and wore blue taffeta.

Lighting the tapers before the ceremony were Mrs. Henry J. and Mrs. Edward L. Hatfield, sisters-in-law of the bride.

David Fortsch, brother of the bridegroom, was best man. Ushers were Henry J. and Edward L. Hatfield.

Natalie Hatfield, small sister of the bride, passed the guest book, while Miss Marcella Dow of Portland, presided at the gift table assisted by her mother, Mrs. Irene Dow.

The reception followed later in the church parlors. Pouring were Miss Gladys Lund of Eugene and Mrs. Edward Hatfield. Mrs. Henry Hatfield cut the cake.

Among those present were relatives from Pasadena, Calif., Seattle, Spokane, Walla Walla and Vancouver, Wash., Boise, Idaho and Lebanon, Ore.

Following a short trip to the Oregon and Washington coast Mr. and Mrs. Fortsch are at home in West Salem. Mr. Fortsch will attend Willamette University and Mrs. Fortsch will resume her position with Pacific Telephone and Telegraph company.

Boitz-Ross

Stayton — Miss Pauline Ross, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Ross of Cruzettes, who recently moved there from North Santiam, was married to Emmett E. Boitz, son of Mr. and Mrs. John R. Boitz of Stayton, in a ceremony performed by Elder A. N. Dugger of the Marion Church of God, Sunday, September 18, at 8 p.m. at the home of the bridegroom's parents. Mixed flowers and ferns decorated the home for the wedding. Wedding music was sung by Mrs. Leroy McGill of Marion.

For her wedding the bride chose a blue-green wool suit. She carried a white Bible, which was marked with rosebuds shading to deep rose, with pink streamers.

Miss Elaine Lyons of Marion was bridesmaid. Her suit was also of blue-green and her flowers were sweetpeas and snapdragons. Burdette Rice was best man.

A reception was held for approximately 75 guests following the ceremony. After the couple cut the traditional first piece, Mrs. Bruce Westerburg served the cake.

The couple will live in Salem.

DAUGHTERS of St. Elizabeth of St. Paul's Episcopal church are to meet Tuesday for a salad luncheon at 1 o'clock in the parish house.
