MISS MARGARITE E. HALL

Scout Worker Here Two Days

Miss Margarite E. Hall, member of the program division of the national Girl Scout organization, will be in Salem Wednesday and Thursday of this week to give a program development institute for scout workers of this area.

The event will be in the Chamber of Commerce from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. each day.

At present, Miss Hall is an adviser on the intermediate program at the Girl Scouts national headquarters.

Miss Hall received her MSS degree from the Richmond School of Social Work of William and Mary college, Richmond, Va. She also attended Marjorie Webster school in Washington, D.C. In addition to nine years of local professional Girl Scouting in Washington and Richmond, she has done social work for the YWCA and William Byrd Community house in Richmond.

The purpose of this workshop is to help leaders of brownie, intermediate and senior troops become more proficient in the leadership of girls. It offers an opportunity for leaders to obtain more experience in program skills in relation to the troop program. The workshop will include exploration of activities for girls of different ages; methods of discovering, stimulating and developing girls' interests; use of consultants and community resources; and current trends in the program.
