

Wedding Is Sunday Event

The marriage of Mrs. Betty Montgomery Blackburn, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Montgomery, to Thomas J. Richey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd T. Richey, was solemnized Sunday afternoon at a simple service at the Ben Lomand park home of the bridegroom's parents.

The service took place at 1:30 o'clock with the Rev. Wesley Turner officiating, the couple standing before the fireplace which was banked with an arrangement of American Beauty and orchard colored chrysanthemums combined with burgundy cockscombs.

The bride wore a dove gray suit with navy blue accessories. She carried a white Bible and a nosegay of pink roses and white hemboldtii bonvardia. Miss Martha Montgomery was her sister's only attendant and Robert Richey stood with his brother as best man.

A reception for members of the immediate family followed the ceremony. Mrs. R. A. Montgomery, Jr., poured and Mrs. Albert Lindbeck cut the bride's cake. The table centerpiece was of white, orchid and maroon chrysanthemums flanked by white tapers.

The couple will make their home in Salem and have a house in Orchard Heights. Mr. Richey is with Western Paper Converting company.

Rainbows Install

Woodburn—Evergreen assembly No. 12, Order of the Rainbow for Girls, will hold open installation of officers Wednesday evening, Sept. 28, at 8 p.m. in the Masonic temple when Miss Patricia Houseweart will be installed as worthy adviser.

Miss Betty Jo DeHaan, the retiring worthy adviser, will be the installing officer and will be assisted by Miss Jackie Berkeley as installing marshal, Miss Hazel Hermanson as installing chaplain, Miss Frances Mills as installing recorder, Mrs. Edythe Ticknor as installing musician and little Virginia Lee Erwert as gift bearer. Woodburn chapter of DeMolay will put on the crowning ceremony.

Parents and friends of the girls, and all Masons and members of the Eastern Star are invited to attend.

LEAVING Monday for an extended stay in Pasadena, Calif. were Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd T. Richey. During their absence, their son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Lindbeck, are to occupy their Ben Lomand Park residence.

MEETING Wednesday is the February-August circle of the of the Jason Lee Methodist church, at 1 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Emma Tharp, 1902 North 5th.

Golden Wedding Sunday Event

Silverton — The golden wedding observance of Attorney F. E. Sylvester and Mrs. Sylvester was a delightful affair at the Mill street home Sunday afternoon. White baskets of Hawaii-an antherum of soft green and bronze featured the decorative scheme. The flowers were sent from the islands by the eldest daughter of the couple, Mrs. C. J. Bushnell (Miriam).

In general charge of arrangements was Mrs. A. J. McCannel, who was assisted about the rooms by Mrs. L. Stewart, Mrs. C. E. Anderson, Miss Shirley Sylvester, daughter of the honored couple, and her friend, Miss Ethel Allen, the latter two both of Eugene.

Mrs. W. Dale Lamar arranged a basket of golden chrysanthemums to center the gift table, presented by Miss Faye Sparke of Salem. On the entrance hall table were deep red roses given by Dr. F. N. Johnston and Mrs. Johnston, and on the buffet were roses, gift of the Earl Spencers. On the serving table and the buffet were filmy lace covers over green satin. Golden lighted tapers centered the buffet and the table, flanking long bouquet arrangements.

Pouring for the first hour were Mrs. Ronald Asboe and Mrs. Clinton Weiby, the second hour were Mrs. S. A. Gay and Mrs. Flora Thompson-Enders of Salem, and during the last hour, Mrs. Clay Allen and Mrs. Harry Richey.

Assisting in asking the guests in serving were Mrs. W. Dale Lamar and Mrs. W. P. Scarth. In charge of the guest book were Mrs. E. A. Finlay and Mrs. Harrison Fisher; and at the door were Mrs. Harry Richey and Mrs. T. R. Hobart. Introduced as special guests were Mr. and Mrs. Everett Haycroft and Mrs. Beulah Hudgins all of Washington, D.C., where Haycroft is attorney for the federal trades commission. He is a nephew of Sylvester.

Other guests included Mrs. Mary Riley, Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Anderson, Mrs. Orville Totland, Mr. and Mrs. Robert F. Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Skafie, Mr. and Mrs. R. A. Fish, Mr. and Mrs. E. S. Jackson, Mr. and Mrs. W. Clark Bachman, Mr. and Mrs. Harlan Loe, Mr. and Mrs. E. A. Kern, Mr. and Mrs. S. A. Gay, Mr. and Mrs. James L. Taylor, Rev. and Mrs. Ben F. Browning, I. B. Alfred, Mr. and Mrs. W. Dale Lamar, Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Larsen, Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Scarth, Mr. and Mrs. T. R. Hobart, Mrs. Pearl Porter, Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Mellbye, Mr. and Mrs. Claig L. Clark, Mrs. George Hubbs, of Salem were Mrs. A. H. Sparks and Miss Faye Sparks, Mr. and Mrs. Clay Allen, Mrs. Burns Renwick, Mrs.

Engagement Told — Announcement was made last week of the engagement of Miss Catherine Cooper, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Cooper, to Herbert Bauer, son of Mr. and Mrs. George M. Bauer. No wedding date has been set. (Jesten-Miller studio picture)

Amaranths Visit Old Peoples Home

Several from Salem joined the group of the grand court of Oregon, Order of Amaranth, in visiting the Masonic old people's home at Forest Grove, Sunday.

Going from Salem were Mrs. James B. Manning, grand royal matron, and Mr. Manning; Mrs. William Wilson, royal matron of Hanna Rosa court, and Mr. Wilson; Mrs. Lyle McCauley, royal matron for the new Cherry court here, and Mr. McCauley; and Mr. and Mrs. Glen Slentz and family.

There were 23 grand officers at the event, and 17 of the 19 courts in the state were represented. Fifteen royal matrons served the tea, assisted by the grand representatives. Each of the 90 residents at the home was presented with a gift.

Mrs. Sylvester was charming in an all white formal with silver trim and a lavender single orchid corsage.

Miss Hott Wed Saturday

The marriage of Miss Shirley Ann Hott, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Hott, 488 North Liberty street, Salem, to David R. Kelly, son of Mr. and Mrs. George F. Kelly of Portland, was solemnized Saturday afternoon. The service took place at 4 o'clock in the First Immanuel Lutheran church, Portland, the Rev. Carl Sodergren officiating.

The bride wore a white satin gown, the lace yoke outlined with tiny seed pearls and the skirt extending into a long train. The three-quarter length veil was lace-edged and was held in place with a satin and seed pearl crown. There was an overveil over the face. For her flowers the bride carried a bouquet of pure white gladioluses with purple orchid in the center, and white satin streamers.

Mrs. Leone Keil was matron of honor. She wore pink taffeta with deep rose colored gladioluses in her hair. Her bouquet was of pale pink gladioluses.

Jack L. Leamer was best man. Ushering were Raymond Keil and Lawrence Mitchoff.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Hott wore a black and white jersey dress with corsage of red roses and gardenias, and the bridegroom's mother wore a gray print dress, also a corsage of gardenias and red roses.

A reception followed the service. Mrs. Jack L. Leamer took charge of the gifts. Mrs. Carl Carson and Mrs. Robert Turner served.

For her going away costume the bride wore a cocoa brown dress with matching accessories and a gold pin presented as a gift by the bridegroom.

Following a trip to San Francisco the couple will be at home at 1920 N.W. 26th, apartment

205, Portland, after October 1.

THE ALL-DAY sewing meeting for Disabled American Veterans auxiliary will be Thursday at the home of Mrs. W. J. Hagedorn, 1405 Fir street, a no-host luncheon to be served at noon. Mrs. Stuart Johns is sewing chairman.
