

Style Revue Successful

Climaxing a series of fashion shows marking the early fall was the successful one presented by the Salem Woman's club Monday afternoon at the group's clubhouse. More than 175 attended the event. Proceeds will go to the club's General Federation of Women's Clubs convention fund. Mrs. Grant C. Rogers and Mrs. Estill L. Brunk headed the committee as co-chairmen for the event.

All types of new fall attire—dresses, suits, blouses, hats, fur coats and as a finale a beautiful bridal gown, featured the array of fashions presented by Sally's and Schlesinger's.

Setting off the parade of styles were the arrangements of varied fall blooms, both on the stage and around the rooms.

Forty tables were served dessert, 23 tables remaining for cards following the style revue. The special prizes, donated by Sally's and Schlesinger's, went to Mrs. William Johnston and Mrs. W. W. Harder. Mrs. Bert A. Walker had charge of the card prizes which went to Mrs. P. C. Harland, Mrs. Roy Houck, Mrs. David Wright, Mrs. Ray Sanford, Mrs. Robert D. Gregg, Mrs. Paul H. Hauser and Mrs. Charles Heiserman.

HOME from three weeks in California are Mr. and Mrs. Harlan A. Judd. They went first to San Francisco, Mr. Judd being there for one week, Mrs. Judd for two weeks. Mr. Judd went on to Coronado for two weeks training in active army duty, Mrs. Judd joining him there for the last week. They went into Mexico for a day before motoring home.

RETURNING Monday evening from a two-day motor trip to Port Angeles, Wash., were Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Winkler.

Ingredients: 1 cup plus 2 tablespoons sifted cake flour, 1½ teaspoons double-acting baking powder, ½ teaspoon salt, ¼ cup salad (not olive) oil, 2 egg yolks, 3 tablespoons cold water, ½ cup sieved very ripe bananas (1 to 1½ large or 2 small), ½ teaspoon vanilla, ¼ cup egg whites (4), ¼ teaspoon cream of tartar.

Method: Mix and sift the cake flour, baking powder, and salt into a medium-size mixing bowl. Make a well in the center and add salad oil, egg yolk, water, sieved bananas, and vanilla. Beat with a spoon until there are no lumpy flour particles. Put the egg whites and cream of tartar into a large mixing bowl and beat until the whites form very stiff peaks that stand straight up when beater is slowly withdrawn. (If bowl is tipped whites should not slide.) Pour the egg yolk mixture slowly over the egg whites, gently folding in with a rubber spatula or large spoon until just blended and no white streaks or blobs remain. Do not stir. Pour into an ungreased 8-inch square cake pan and bake 30 minutes in a slow (325 F) oven, or until the top springs back when lightly touched with fingertips. Turn

Silbernagel-Frost Wedding September 20

Stayton—The immaculate Conception Catholic church was the scene of a wedding Tuesday, September 20, at 9 o'clock in the morning when Miss Joan Frost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Frost of Stayton, was married to Lawrence Silbernagel, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Silbernagel of Scio. Rev. Math Jonas officiated in the double ring ceremony.

Baskets of white, orchid and pink asters and fern decorated the altar. Wedding music was played by Miss Josephine Brand at the organ, and she accompanied Mrs. Lawrence Smith and upsidedown at once, place corners of pan on two inverted custard cups or similar objects, so cake will hang free of table. When cold loosen sides from pan with spatula, and hit edge sharply on table, so cake will slide out.

Note: Slice cake in two layers, if desired, cutting through diagonally with saw-edged knife and fill with a custard filling made from the two remaining egg yolks; frost with confectioners' frosting.

Mrs. Lawrence Pietrok who sang.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride was gowned in white slipper satin, fashioned with full skirt and short train. The fingertip veil was held in place by a bandeau of pearls. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses which was centered by gardenias. The bride wore a gold cross which belonged to her grandmother, Mrs. Kate Burger, Waterloo, Ia., who was present at the wedding.

Miss Charlene Frost was her sister's maid of honor. Her gown was of yellow taffeta and she wore a large matching hat. She carried a bouquet of pink asters.

Miss Betty Ann Silbernagel, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Marguerite Frost, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids.

Their gowns were fashioned like that of the honor maid, in orchid taffeta and they also wore large matching hats and carried pink asters.

Bennie Silbernagel was best man for his brother, and Leonard Giesler and Gerald Silbernagel, were ushers.

In the afternoon a reception was held in the parish hall. Mrs. Leo Frost, a cousin of the bride, cut the wedding cake, and Mrs. Sylvester Silbernagel, aunt of the bridegroom, cut the ices.

Mrs. Henry Thomas pointed and Miss Marcella Silbernagel presided at the punch bowl. Both are sisters of the bridegroom. Miss Helen Giesler, cousin of the bridegroom, was in charge of the guest book.

The couple left on a wedding trip which will take them to California and into Mexico, by

Ferguson-Dawes

Mill City—United in marriage Saturday were Mrs. Ann Dawes and Dr. David J. Ferguson, both of Mill City. The marriage ceremonies took place in the Portland Presbyterian church with only close relatives attending. The couple returned to Mill City following the ceremony, Dr. Ferguson being in the pulpit Sunday morning in the Presbyterian church where he has served as minister for the past five years. The couple are well known in this vicinity, the bride having been a resident here for more than 20 years. Dr. Ferguson

Beautiful Beautiful Barbizon Broadloom...

Daringly new, Alexander Smith's Barbizon is the first broadloom to give you the serene beauty of self-tone shadow pattern, in luxurious deep-piled carpet. For Barbizon's gentle pattern is created, not with yarns of different hues, but with yarns of different textures. The plume-and-scroll design is soft, plushy, high-piled. The background is loomed of twisted yarns, dyed the same subtle shade. And the design is sculptured, to heighten the bas-relief effect. See how gracefully Barbizon blends with both traditional and modern furnishings. Feel its luxurious texture. Choose from five lovely shades—green, grey, beige, blue and rose. Order it for wall-to-wall carpeting, or cut and bound as a rug for your room. 10.95 sq. yd.
