

Low Cost Housing—This Pittsburgh policeman was astounded when he found Anthony Mangold, 49, living in a metal locker six feet long and 20 inches square but listened to the explanation. Mangold lost his job, said he bought the locker to cut expenses. It's equipped with a gasoline stove, assorted clothes, and boasts running water—when it rains, that is. (Acme Telephoto)

New Sheridan School Unit Said Finest in Yamhill

Sheridan—Planned as one of the most modern school plants in Yamhill county, the school district will ask for bids next month. The ultimate school will be located on a 14-acre site in southwest Sheridan and will contain 18 classrooms, kindergarten, health unit, administrative unit, library, teachers' lounge, multi-purpose room, kitchen and food storage rooms, gymnasium, dressing and shower facilities and a boiler room. According to plans, corridors within classroom units will be lighted with a continuous prefabricated skylight and are double-loaded with classrooms on each side and will have bi-laterally lighted rooms. Inside walls of classrooms will borrow light with a strip of glass reflecting and borrowing from the continuous corridor skylight. All exterior windows will be pre-glazed metal sash. Construction of the building will be of wood frame with the use of brick veneer at entrance ways. The exterior finish will be a combination of brick and cedar siding. Floors will be concrete slab with asphalt tile floor covering. The roof will be covered with a built-up composition roofing with an inch of fiber glass rigid thermal insulation mopped into place between layers of roofing. Other features include dry-wall construction on the interior with plywood treated naturally. Insulation tile will be used on ceilings. Incandescent concentric ringed lighting fixtures will be used and a low-pressure steam heating system and oil burner installed. The first unit, for which a $105,000 bond issue has been sold, will include six classrooms, multi-purpose room with stage, administrative unit with health room, service unit, boiler room and toilet facilities. The U. S. population increased 28 per cent between 1924 and 1949.

TEN YEARS TO DO IT IN

Ex-Fighter Pilot, 30, Sets Out to Make First Million

By JOHN ROSENBERG
New York, Sept. 28 (AP)—George I. Stanford, handsome 30-year-old ex-fighter pilot, set out today to earn $1,000,000 before he's 40 and preserve a family tradition. He expected at least 25,000 American housewives and factory girls to help him. Stanford revealed that both his father and grandfather—starting from scratch—each earned $1,000,000 before their 40th birthdays. "I'm next," he said. "But even though it's going to be tough, I'm not worried. I've got the answer." Stanford has a scheme to sell imported French perfumes on a door-to-door basis, the first time such a venture has ever been attempted. The plan, he said, would enable the average American woman to enjoy the world's most sought after perfumes for as little as $3 an ounce. In contrast to the $25 to $50 an ounce charged in leading stores. "I'm now hiring housewives and factory girls to sell the perfume in their spare time," he said. "I pay them one third of their earnings. I will also give any salesgirl who sells $2,500 worth of perfume a two-week trip to Paris aboard the Isle de France." Stanford says he's tested the plan in the area of Southport, Conn., his home town. Stanford, a Yale man, had another brain child that gave him a start on his million. He manufactured a bath salt advertised to put its users to sleep. "But it didn't always work," he said, "and it didn't sell as well as expected." Stanford said he discovered the source of his perfume while celebrating his liberation from a German prison camp in Paris, 40.

Tin Pan Alley Stars Fete Guy Lombardo

New York, Sept. 28 (AP)—A group of famous figures in Tin Pan Alley and the band business headed by Irving Berlin assembled Monday night in the Hotel Roosevelt to help Guy Lombardo celebrate his 25th anniversary in the band business. In addition to a gigantic birthday cake from which Berlin cut the first slice, Lombardo was presented with a gold-plated record. On one side of the record was "Auld Lang Syne" and on the opposite side were recorded verbal greetings from Berlin, Paul Whiteman, Gene Buck, former president of the American Society of Composers, Authors and Publishers, and others. Lombardo's band still includes eight of the nine players who began with him 25 years ago in Cleveland, O. The Lombardo band has always been a family affair. On its 25th anniversary, the band included three brothers and a brother-in-law.

Albany Area Removed From Rent Control

Rent control has been removed from the Albany area by Housing Expediter Tighe E. Woods, according to a United Press dispatch from Washington, D.C. Some time ago Governor McKay, acting on the recommendation of the Albany city council, approved decontrol of rents in that city and forwarded his recommendation to Woods. At the end of World War II. He claimed it is tops in quality. "I knew there was nothing American women wanted more than a bottle of French perfume," he said. "I'm convinced that if I can bring it to them at prices they can afford, I can make a million before I am 40."
