

Staab-Thies Rites Sept. 17

A bride on September 17 was Miss Harriet Thies, daughter of Mrs. Harry Thies of Portland, who was married to Marcel Staab, son of Adolph Staab of Salem.

The ceremony was solemnized at a nuptial high mass at noon in St. Rose Catholic church in Portland, the Rev. Father Main officiating.

Given in marriage by her uncle, Leo Ryan, the bride wore a white brocaded gown made en train. The fingertip veil was arranged from a princess Elizabeth headdress of seed pearls. The bride carried a colonial bouquet of baby white gladioluses centered with pale pink roses and bouvardia.

Miss Lorraine Schwab of Portland was maid of honor. She wore a pale pink brocaded gown with matching crownless picture hat of net and she carried a nosegay of pink gladioluses centered with bouvardia.

Bridesmaid was Mrs. Kay J. McGuire, Jr., (Rozelle Staab) Salem, twin sister of the bridegroom. Her gown was of aqua brocade and she wore a matching picture hat and carried a nosegay of pink gladioluses centered with bouvardia.

Arlin Staab was best man for his brother. Ushering were David Lobb and Laurance Schwab.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Thies wore a navy blue dress and hat with corsage of white orchids.

The reception was given in the Blessed Sacrament hall with Mrs. Murray Thies pouring and Mrs. George Burg cutting the cake. Miss Mary Goetz passed the guest book.

Following a short wedding trip the couple will reside in Portland.
