4000 MILES NON-STOP

Flight From Norway Over Pole Called 'Routine'

Washington, Sept. 29 (AP)—Col. Brent Balchen, Arctic flier and rescue expert, said today his 4,000-mile flight from Oslo, Norway, was "only a routine training mission."

Balchen expects to take off shortly in his military air transport service C-54 for Anchorage, Alaska, completing the third leg of a 12,000-mile flight, most of it over a "unique" route.

Balchen, 49, is commander of the Air Force 10th Rescue Squadron based at Anchorage. With him on the triangular trip around the top of the globe are Brig. Gen. Frank A. Armstrong, commanding general of the Alaskan Air Command, and a crew of eight.

Last week the group flew non-stop from Anchorage 4,000 miles to Norway, crossing directly over the North Pole. They left Norway at 12:19 a.m. EST Tuesday hoping to reach Washington non-stop about 10 p.m.

However, as the four-engined ship neared New York, Balchen was advised that bad weather at Washington National airport might "stack" arriving planes and delay his landing. To make sure he was not caught short of fuel he landed at Mitchell Field, N.Y. After refueling, he flew to Washington, landing at 11:59 p.m.

Coos Bay Faces Water Shortage

Coos Bay, Ore., Sept. 29 (AP)—The lowest amount of water in the Pony creek reservoir on record will force industrial water customers here and in North Bend to cut their consumption in half beginning tomorrow.

Residents in the area will be tagged by police if they wash their automobiles at their homes or at service stations.

A reading of the water level earlier this week indicated only 14,665,000 gallons of water in the reservoir.

Drouth Sends Klamath Cattle to Market

Klamath Falls, Ore., Sept. 29 (AP)—Klamath basin farmers, faced with a lack of feed for their cattle due to prolonged drouth, have marketed 15,000 cattle three to four weeks earlier this fall than usual.

Lambs, too, moved into the market earlier due to the drought. Meanwhile, ranchers considered their status for next winter. A drought in the Sacramento valley of California may prevent the wintering down of 15,000 beef cattle in the basin.

FIRST VACATION IN 20 YEARS

Family of 18 Coming West For Vacation in Own Bus

Troy, N. Y., Sept. 29 (AP)—The Bayly family—all 18 of 'em—are en route to California for a vacation. They left here yesterday in their own bus.

The party consisted of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Bayly, who are taking their first vacation since they were married 20 years ago; their 14 children and Bayly's parents.

Bayly bought a former school bus purposely for the trip. It seats 14, but he found it could accommodate a few extra passengers by "doubling up" the smaller children.

They range in age from 1 to 17, and the name of each begins with the letter B.

Bayly said he wasn't trying to break any speed records. It will be a sightseeing trip, with Cleve-

'Keep Out,' Bogart Told After Melee in Swank Club

New York, Sept. 29 (AP)—The swank El Morocco night club posted a "Keep Out" sign for film tough guy Humphrey Bogart Wednesday after two pretty girls got pushed around in a fracas involving Bogey and two toy pandas, a modern version of the Teddy bear.

This sounds confusing. It is. All that's really clear is that Bogart and a waggish pal, Bill Seeman, showed up at El Morocco late at night—not with their wives but with the pandas. "Meet our girl friends," they announced.

All went well until fashion model Robin Roberts playfully picked up one of the pandas. Robin got shoved and wound up on the club's thick carpet.

Glamour girl Peggy Rabe also made a pass at a panda. She got shoved, too. Her escort, Johnny Jelke, didn't like it. Hot words were exchanged. Somebody smashed a dinner plate over Jelke's shoulders.

Bouncers restored order and escorted Bogart and Seeman to the sidewalk, pandas and all. "Mr. Bogart no longer will be permitted," El Morocco said today.

Bogart, here between movies with wife Lauren Bacall, could not be located.

CIO Union Blasts Red Use of Veto

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 29 (AP)—A seven-point program on international affairs, including pleas for international disarmament and control of atomic energy, was approved yesterday by the 13th annual convention of the International Woodworkers of America.

Other points in the program condemned Russia's "abuse" of the veto power in the United Nations assembly, reaffirmed support of the European recovery program, called for a U. S. foreign policy aimed at lasting peace, denied Russian assertions of U. S. war-mongering as "completely unfounded," endorsed CIO opposition to recognition of "fascist Franco Spain," and urged early peace treaties with former enemy nations.

Falls City Sawmill Destroyed by Fire

Dallas, Sept. 29—Sparks from a burner are believed to have caused a fire which destroyed the W. O. Powers sawmill at Falls City Tuesday afternoon. The mill was a total loss and a tool and machine shed was also destroyed.

Loss was not covered by insurance. The sawmill had a capacity of about 15,000 feet per day and employed six men.

Powers had thoroughly wet down the mill and grounds shortly before the fire because of the low humidity and strong wind blowing. He left the mill for a few minutes and when he returned, found it blazing, beyond the power of volunteer fighters to save.

The mill was located about four blocks from the end of Falls City's main street. Mrs. Powers said that her husband probably will not rebuild the mill.

The Capitol Building in Washington, D. C., is 751 feet long and 350 feet wide, including the approaches.

Colonel Carl Visits Hubbard

When Lt. Col. Marion E. Carl returns to the old farm home near Hubbard they don't put him to work out in the barnyard where he spent a lot of time when a younger boy than he is now.

But he likes to go back home whenever he can. The farm still has its lure. So, while in Portland for National Aviation week, he has spent some of his few idle hours at the home of his brother, Manton Carl, and expects to visit there again this week-end. He was at the Hubbard place Sunday and Tuesday nights of this week.

Colonel Carl, only 32, and most famous of United States Marine corps fliers, is married, and he and Mrs. Carl have a little daughter 3 months old. Their home is at Cherry Point, N. C.

Colonel Carl will leave in a few days for Sioux Falls, S. D., where he will start a flight for a 1200-mile speed record to Cherry Point. The flight is set for next Monday.

The colonel made a speed record in 1947 when he flew a Douglas Skystrak at over 650 miles an hour.

Albany Backs New Stadium Project

Albany—Albany Junior Chamber of Commerce members donated $750 to the stymied Memorial stadium and announced plans for a giant auction sale to raise several thousand dollars more.

Larry Roth, president of this year's Timber Carnival, presented the donation in the form of a check to Harold Arnett of the stadium's finance committee.

Arnett was main speaker of the evening and told of the urgent need for immediate funds to use up forms and reinforcing steel before the winter rains set in.

He said eventual completion of the entire plant, at a total cost of about $150,000 will give Albany an athletic plant that sportsmen agree cannot be equalled in any city in the northwest, save the big metropolitan areas.

To date nearly $75,000 in materials and cash have been supplied or pledged.

War-like Indian Boys Sentenced

Portland, Sept. 29 (AP)—The war-like aspirations of three Indian youngsters who stole guns and ammunition for an ambush hideaway will have a chance to cool off in the state boys' school.

The youngsters—two aged 14 and 15—were sentenced yesterday. They had admitted breaking into a Chiloquin store September 12 and carting off their loot.

The boys were arrested in sagebrush while pointing the stolen guns at police who tracked them through the brush to a pine and boulder hidden hide-out. With them were two older youths, parolees from a Colorado reformatory.

Testimony revealed the boys took $1,450 worth of merchandise including 1000 cartridges, rifles, hunting knives and stacks of clothes and food. These were cached above the Sprague river.
