Peer Weds Commoner

London, Sept. 29 (AP)—The Earl of Harewood, 26-year-old nephew of King George VI, took a pretty little Viennese commoner for his bride today.

The tall young earl, eleventh in line for the throne, and slim 22-year-old Marlon Stein were married at St. Mark's church in the heart of Mayfair.

Among the 900 guests who saw the climax to this romance born of music were the royal family and some of the most distinguished folk in Britain.

It was the first wedding in the royal family since that of Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip in November, 1947. Miss Stein is the first commoner to marry into the royal line since the Duke of Windsor took Mrs. Wallis Warfield Simpson as his bride 12 years ago.

As the service came to an end the earl led his new countess to the vestry to sign the register. Among those who signed as witnesses were King George, Queen Elizabeth and Princess Elizabeth.

Then, as the earl led his countess from the church, he beamed happily on a crowd of 4,000, among them some 200 employes of his Yorkshire estates and many of the middle class friends of the Stein family.

West Salem PTA Discusses Plans

During a luncheon held in the cafeteria of the West Salem school Thursday noon, officers and committee chairmen of the West Salem PTA discussed plans for the year's activities. The group, after organization has been perfected, plans to meet the second Tuesday of each month.

The organization is headed by Gus Moore as president; Mrs. A. O. Flint, vice president; Mrs. D. K. Crenshaw, treasurer. Others meeting Thursday were Principal T. J. Means; Gurnee Fletcher, chairman of the program committee; Mrs. Robert Brownell, room mothers; Mrs. Amy Murray, membership; Mrs. Melvin Gallaspy and Mrs. Kenneth Dodge, hospitality; Don Crenshaw, projects, and Mrs. W. A. McCormack, county contacts.

Purchase of an intercommunicating system for the school is one of the first projects of the group.

32 Children Get Home Care

Thirty-two dependent and delinquent children from Marion county have this year been afforded opportunities of family home life or institutional care through Catholic Charities, a Red Feather agency of the Oregon Chest, according to Daniel J. McLellan, trustee chairman of the Salem branch.

Through the Salem office's affiliation with the archdiocesan office in Portland, complete referral services are provided. One completed adoption and two placements have been arranged and there are several applications pending.

The local office is always pleased to receive requests from Catholic families who will receive one or more children into their homes on a foster parent basis. There are different categories of these homes. Some supply free care, some pay wages, and others are eligible for supplementary state aid, and if conditions warrant, the child will in time be returned to its parental home.

In its local work, the charities office supervises the activities of the Catholic Youth organization, engages in family welfare, and assists transients or itinerant workers who have been referred by private agencies or the Public Welfare commission.

Rockwell Kent Hospitalized
Plattsburgh, N.Y., Sept. 29 (AP)—Rockwell Kent, artist and author, was reported in good condition today following an emergency appendectomy. Kent, 67, underwent the operation last night. His home is at Ausable Forks, near here.

West German Mark Devalued

Bonn, Germany, Sept. 29 (AP)—The West German federal government announced today a devaluation of the Deutschemark exchange rate from 30 cents American to 23.8905 cents.

The federal chancellor announced that "the allied high commission has stated that it had no objection to this state of exchange." The announcement said the government fixed the rate at the request of the central banking council of the Bank Deutscher Laender (German States bank).

Earlier Chancellor Konrad Adenauer had conferred for four hours with the U. S., British and French high commissioners for Germany. He had asked the meeting chiefly to protest German coal price regulations which the allies had proposed yesterday along with the new exchange rate.

A subsequent communique had indicated the meeting broke up without decision.

The new exchange rate is substantially what the western occupying powers wanted. The German had wanted a lower rate, 22.5 cents.

Trout Season Closes
Portland, Sept. 29 (AP)—The state game commission warned sportsmen today that the general trout season in Oregon closes tomorrow. The commission also reported that applications will be taken after Oct. 7 for waterfowl and pheasant hunting on the newly-established public shooting area at Sauvie island.
