

Calumet Aims for Third Futurity

By FRANK ECK
New Features Sports Editor

New York — The Futurity, which often decides the two-year-old thoroughbred championship, this time is a wide open affair.

The good ones, like King Ranch's record breaking Mid-ground and C. T. Chenery's Hill Prince, will be missing. They are ineligible for the $50,000 added juvenile classic to be run Saturday Oct. 1 over 6 1/2 furlongs down Belmont Park's Widener chute.

The Widener course is the straightaway at Belmont, best described by Cas Adams when he said "the Japanese could have surprised us by coming down the chute," so difficult is it to distinguish the silk of the jockeys as the horses run diagonally toward the grandstand.

Best Horse Wins
In the last five runnings of this race such odds-on stars as Pavot, Star Pilot, First Flight, Citation and Blue Peter have triumphed. It is a race usually won by the best horse. A colt or filly on the outside can run along the outside rail without covering any more ground than the inside rail horses.

Some experts undoubtedly will go for Calumet Farm's Re-armed, a colt that has been successful on Chicago tracks this summer. Calumet has won two Futurities, Some Chance in 1941 and Citation in '47. Citation, incidentally, is the only Futurity winner that has gone on to win the Kentucky Derby.

With Middleground, Hill Prince, Greek Ship and some of the good western campaigners like Wisconsin Boy and Currier Ineligible, the race figures to have little bearing on the 3-year-old picture of next year.

Two Others Figure
After Re-armed, two other juveniles that will get good support are Brookmeade Stable's More Sun, a chestnut colt that won the U.S. Hotel and Saratoga Special stakes during the Saratoga meeting, and C. V. Whitney's Mr. Trouble, a Mahoud colt that finished in the money in his first nine starts.

Other possibilities are closely bunched.
Stars and Oaks Win First Games In Cash Playoff

(By the Associated Press)
Hollywood and Oakland, the Pacific coast league's No. one and two clubs, held an early lead in the loop's $35,000 Governor's Cup playoffs.

The Oaks had much the easiest time of it last night, plastering four San Diego pitchers for 16 hits for a 13 to 3 win. Milo Candini, meanwhile, was limiting the Padres to seven hits. The Oaks started off in the first with a two run lead on Dick Krychok's homer and never headed.

In the other playoff opener, the champion Hollywoods squeezed out a 12th inning 4 to 2 win over Sacramento. Shortstop Johnny O'Neil slid home with the winning run on Jess Dobson's wild pitch. O'Neil had singled off pitcher Don Johnson's shin, sending the right-hander to the pits. He was not hurt badly.

Tonight's probable pitchers: San Diego (Dick Barrett 12-6) at Oakland (Earl Harritt 4-2).

Sacramento (Orval Grove 9-7) at Hollywood (Gordy Maltzberger 18-10).

Sacramento ..... 001 101 000 000-3 14 6
Hollywood ..... 000 000 001 001-4 13 7
Maltzberger, Johnson 18; Dobson 13; and Sacramento, Ramirez, Robinson 18; Roy 10; and Harritt 6.

San Diego ..... 000 010 011-3 7 3
Oakland ..... 305 000 012-12 14 2
Adams, Jerkins 10; Klop 13; Thompson 12; and Moore, Candini and Pedretti.

'Cat President Guest of Ham 'n' Eggers on Friday

Dr. G. Herbert Smith, president of Willamette university, will be a special guest for Friday morning's weekly session of the Salem Breakfast club. The entire program will be devoted to the Bearcat institution with emphasis on Coach Chester Stackhouse and his squad of assistants.

Ham and eggs or a reasonable facsimile thereof, will be served at 7:30 and all men who would care to partake will be made welcome.

Coach Stackhouse may reveal what his squad hopes to accomplish when they meet the Chico State Wildcats Saturday afternoon on Sweetland field.

Scandinavian Game Birds Enter U. S. Hunting Areas

Washington, Sept. 29 (AP)—Two new game birds from Scandinavia are to be introduced to American hunting areas, a fish and wildlife service official said today.

They thrive in a climate similar to that of the northern states. They are hardy. They are good to eat.

And, said Dr. Gardiner Bump—the man who rounded them up—they are going to make very sporty shooting.

They are the European black grouse and the capercaillie. The grouse is about what a hunter would expect the grouse to be, only bigger.

And the capercaillie? "It looks as big as a turkey but has a chunkier build," Bump told a reporter.

Bump returned this week from a four-month field study of game species in Sweden, Finland, Norway, Denmark and Scotland.

He sent back from Sweden more than 50 grouse and capercaillie. Some have been released vers. So he wrote a letter to Mr. Leahy at Notre Dame. "Maybe I could be a mascot or an office boy or do something for your team while you are here in order to get to the game," he wrote as only a 10-year-old can.

Yesterday, his mother revealed that Coach Leahy had replied, asking the red-haired lad to "kindly call us at the hotel where the team is staying, and we'll see to it that you see the game."

His mother said the reply had arrived some time ago, but she kept it hidden.

"After all, Saturday is a long time away, especially for Pat," she said.

Warren Gray, regular quarterback was hospitalized following the game for an appendix operation.

WVL Grid Opens Action in Four Contests Friday

The eight teams of the Willamette Valley league will open their seven rounds of competition Friday. All games except the Silverton-Woodburn mix are slated for 8 o'clock. Woodburn will entertain the Silver Foxes at 2 p.m.

The balance of the schedule calls for Molalla at Sandy, Estacada at Mt. Angel and Dallas at Canby.

All of the clubs have seen pre-league competition. Silverton gained a 7 to 7 tie with the strong Beaverton eleven while Mt. Angel indicated considerable offensive strength in whitewashing Sacred Heart of Salem, 30 to 0.

Estacada and Molalla turned in lopsided scores, the former downing Odell 31 to 0 and Molalla blanking the Stayton Eagles 33 to 0.

Woodburn turned in a four touchdown performance against Willamina to win 27 to 0. Dallas bowed to an exceptionally strong Taft squad, 34 to 13.
