Bogey Girl Melee Victims 'Too Pretty' to Pull Stunt

New York, Sept. 30 (AP)—Assault charges brought by a pretty model against movie tough guy Humphrey Bogart were thrown out of court today.

New York, Sept. 30 (AP)—Movie toughie Humphrey Bogart was served with a summons charging simple assault Thursday for dumping two New York glamour girls on the floor of the El Morocco night club. He said he would see the girls in court.

The summons was served on Bogart in his suite at the St. Regis hotel.

"I thought this was a tempest in a teapot," he said. "But it has grown into a full sized hurricane. Sure, I'll appear in court Friday. They tell me I'd better or else. They send policemen after you, put you in jail and other bad things."

Bogart said he had no comment on the night club sitdown on which he allegedly gave the girls an assist.

"I think they are both very pretty. Too pretty to have to do anything like this for publicity. So I don't know what the score is. I'll tag along and see."

Miss Roberts, a pretty brunette, said Bogart sent her sprawling on El Morocco's plush carpet early Sunday morning when she playfully picked up a large panda doll he had put in a chair at his table.

Bogart and Bill Seeman, a playboy pal, had entered the night club, each carrying a panda doll. They seated the dolls at their table and introduced them as their "girl friends."

Bogey alleged shoved Miss Roberts and Peggy Rabe, a banker's daughter, when the girls playfully picked up the dolls. In the melee that followed, Miss Rabe's escort had some crockery smashed on his shoulder.

Miss Roberts' attorney said she suffered a back injury and chest contusions as a result of landing on her derriere on the carpet.

Bogart denied pushing Miss Roberts. He said he and Seeman were "sitting quietly at a table when some dame I never saw before tried to steal one of the pandas on a bet or something. So I wrestled the panda away from her. I guess she did fall down."

Mandel said Miss Roberts was not interested at the present moment in bringing any damage action against Bogart.
