Plugged Ditch Flooded Farm

O. O. Ogdin, Aurora, has written the county complaining that because of a plugged ditch along the road in front of a 50-acre field at his Ogdin farms half a mile east of Hubbard, the field became a haven for sea gulls last winter and he lost his crops completely. He says that because of the plug up in the ditch the water flowing down Hubbard in his direction backs up over his fields.

Result, he says, that the fall crop put in last year was flooded out and the ground dried out too late to put in a spring crop. He says there is little to do now but let it lie idle and pay $205.73 taxes on it, as he doesn't want the whole thing to recur again. "Last winter it was just a haven for sea gulls," he says. "I'd like to have it cleaned out in time for fall planting."

Verne L. Ostrander, named deputy chief of staff, Oregon department, Order of the Purple Heart.

Honor Comes To Ostrander

Verne L. Ostrander of Salem has received notice of his appointment as deputy chief of staff, for the department of Oregon in the Military Order of the Purple Heart.

Ostrander received his Purple Heart in World War I. He was wounded in the Meuse-Argonne drive where he fought as a member of the 91st division.

His appointment, says the general order from Lester J. Hawkins of Portland, commander of the Oregon department, is "in recognition of the valuable work performed by Patriot Verne L. Ostrander in organizing the chapter in Salem."

Ostrander has been in the employ of the Southern Pacific company in Salem for 22 years.

Cain Attacked By Anderson

Sharp disagreement over "what's wrong with the republican party" broke out at a Young Republican conference held at Hayden Lake, Wash., when Steve Anderson, Salem attorney, attacked specific party leaders.

Anderson specifically pointed to Senator Cain of Washington, a suggestion which met with violent reaction on the part of some of the Washington senator's cohorts.

Max McMillin, executive board member from Salem, provoked considerable discussion in the panel on membership when he said the party must make some changes in its method of salesmanship and must quit trying to regard the general public as people who must be educated by "wise party leaders."

"Party leaders could in many instances stand education by party members" McMillin said, "inasmuch as the leaders' task was to reflect the will of people rather than to dictate to them."

Anita Holmes of the University of Oregon and Bill Marriam of Willamette university participated in the conference discussion college programs with John Pope, national Young Republican chairman, Marion Putnam and Bill Maul, students, were the only high school students attending the conference.

Criminal Trial

Harold Collins was sentenced by Judge Duncan to six months in jail, with credit for time already served, on a charge of obtaining money by false pretenses. His record showed a considerable amount of check juggling with some check difficulties in California in 1946, further ones around Detroit this year, some checks admitted out at Prineville. His attorney Tom Gabriel explained that the defendant's tribulations were due probably to an ignorance of the law than an attempt to swindle anybody.

Stanley McAllister and Raymond Nelson Jr., were due to be up for sentence also on check charges.

Rape Cases Heard
Monday afternoon another procession was due for arraignment including Forrest C. Brown and Delbert Smith, charged with contributing to the delinquency of a minor; William Hamilton, assaulted with intent to commit rape; Percy Eugene McCarthy and Willard Pollard, larceny; Bob McCully and Larry Fields, giving alcoholic liquor to minors; Everett Ward, promoting a lottery; Roy Clifford Brass, obtaining money by false pretenses, and Vera Mills, for alleged contributing to the delinquency of her minor son.

5 Die in 2 Days Deer Hunting

The toll of human life in the third day of Oregon's deer hunting season stood today at five: Three deaths from bullets and two from over exertion.

Two hunters were slain yesterday in southern Oregon when companions fired at deer. They were Frank Lee Balcomb, 32, of (705 West 23rd St.) Eugene, and Howard Thomas Breen, 27, of Talent.

The third gun victim was Elmer W. Webb, 25, Brownsville. He was fatally wounded Saturday in Wasco county near Wamic.

Balcomb was shot in the head with a 30-30 caliber bullet while hunting with a party of eight other men on the Frank Oben-chain ranch north of Bly. Klamath county Deputy Sheriff Murray Britton said the shot was fired by rancher Harry Oben-chain from about 50 yards in dense underbrush.

Breen died near Gold Hill from a shot fired by Robert Fisher, 22, Gold Hill. Jackson County Coroner Carlos Morris said Fisher told of the two men separating and working along a mountain ridge. He had fired across a meadow at a deer, Fisher said.

Balcomb is survived by his widow and a six-week-old daughter. He was a lumber inspector. Breen is survived by his widow and two children, ages two and five years. Webb is also survived by a widow and two children.

Heart attacks claimed Walter Cobb, 74, Roseburg, Friday night while preparing to camp in Lake county highlands, and Benjamin H. Rider, 49, Salem, who was found dead Sunday in his car. Rider, a postal clerk, had returned to the car after complaining of fatigue.

Mrs. Marie S. Olsen Dies in Portland

Funeral services will be held at the Colonial mortuary in Portland Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock for Mrs. Marie S. Olsen, mother of Mrs. Grant C. Rogers of Salem.

Mrs. Olsen, who made her home in Portland, died at a Portland hospital Sunday following a short illness. Interment will be in the Riverview cemetery in Portland.

Surviving besides the daughter in Salem are three other daughters, Mrs. Harry G. Webster of Rockford, Ill.; Mrs. Douglas Page Chapman of Chicago and Mrs. Harry E. Brown of Los Angeles; six grandchildren and five great-grandchildren.

Hunting Party Leaves—Hunting in the Silver Lake area are Robert Bartruff, William Massey, John and Dale Van Laanen, all of the Middle Grove community. Earl and Orville Malm, of the same district, were in the Silvertown area over the weekend.

Scotts Mills First—First place in the annual Garden club flower show Saturday was awarded the Scotts Mills Garden club. The Lobbish club placed second and Woodburn club third. All sections of the county were represented.

Governor Gets Shirt—Si Touloumis of Si's Designs, Inc., of Portland measures Governor Douglas McKay for a red flannel sports shirt which will be presented to the state executive at the Pacific International Livestock Exposition at Portland, starting October 7, by the Pacific Coast Wool Growers association. Larry Benedict of the association's Portland supply department admires the shirt fabric which is so expensive that its use for regular commercial purposes is not feasible. Benedict said it was originated for the Russian army by Juilliard's nationally known American makers of wools and gabardines, and was handled under lend-lease. Russian officers used it for lapels, cuffs and spaulders on their dress uniforms.

Miners Return

Most lively development would be new efforts by Chief Government Mediator Cyrus Ching to get bargaining sessions under way again.

The union leaders are company-paid in the demanding company-paid pensions and insurance. The companies say they won't agree to a plan that eliminates employe payments entirely.

In the Hawaiian dock strike, employe and union representatives held a secret session Sunday, before which Dwight Steel, president of the Hawaiian Employers' council, said "There is a good chance for settlement." Another meeting was held today.

With 17,000 of its 40,000 employes idled by a strike of 4,600 in its Chicago Tractor works, International Harvester met today with the CIO United Farm Equipment Workers to discuss the union's demands for a "substantial" wage increase, pensions, insurance and a cut in the work week from 40 to 35 hours.

Russia Breaks

(Reports from inside Yugoslavia say tension is mounting among the people, as Tito's cold war with Russian-led Cominform reached its toughest stage yet. There were unconfirmed reports in Belgrade that Tito was shifting his troops from Western Yugoslavia to the eastern borders facing Hungary and Romania.

(Associated Press Correspondent Alex H. Singleton reported, however, there appears to be no shift in Belgrade that actual war is imminent.

(The people realize, nevertheless, that the Soviet satellites are united in a diplomatic-economic effort to oust Tito's regime.)

Russia's action on China came while eastern Europe was observing International Peace Day.
