DAR Birthday Event Due November 4

Plans for their 34th anniversary event were outlined for members of Chemeketa chapter, Daughters of the American Revolution, at their Saturday meeting at the home of Mrs. Nettie C. Roberts.

The birthday party will be a dinner and program the evening of Friday, November 4, in the Marion hotel Marine room.

Governor Douglas McKay is to be the guest speaker for the occasion. Mrs. Homer Goulet, Sr., heads the committee in charge, and reservations for the dinner may be made with her or with the chapter regent, Mrs. Ruth A. Herndon.

The event is for all DAR members and their husbands and friends, also for DAR members of other chapters.

At Saturday Meeting
The Rev. Roy C. Ferguson talked to the group at the Saturday meeting on the Chin-Up club, its history and the program it is carrying on.

C. L. Burggraf of Albany showed colored movies he had taken of Williamsburg, Va., the reconstructed colonial city, and gave a resume of the history of the city and of that section of Virginia.

Mrs. M. A. Pekar, state radio chairman, reported on the program plans for the year, regular programs being given over KOAC.

Visitors besides the speakers included Mrs. C. L. Burggraf, Mrs. C. H. Burggraf, Mrs. L. L. Swan, all of Albany, Mrs. James Lugenbeel, a newcomer to Salem and the member of the Sheridan, Wyoming, chapter of the DAR, and Mrs. Eric Horlin.

Announcement was made that new members include Mrs. Horlin, Miss Elizabeth Russum and Mrs. Florence R. Parrish.

In Graduate Work

Miss Roberta Meyer has registered in the graduate school at University of Washington and is specializing in education, drama and radio work.

Miss Meyer was graduated in June from Willamette university and also had attended Oregon State college. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Meyer.

Miss Meyers To Wed Soon

Among brides of mid-October will be Miss Maxine Meyers, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. L. Meyers, who is to be married October 16 to E. David Bartruff, son of Mrs. Lena Bartruff.

The ceremony is to be an afternoon one in the First Evangelical United Brethren church at 2:30 o'clock with the Rev. Wilmer Brown officiating.

William Fawk will be the organist. Lighting the candles will be Mrs. Harold Meyers, sister-in-law of the bride-elect, and Miss Celesta Bartruff, niece of Mr. Bartruff.

Mr. Meyers will give his daughter in marriage. She has asked her three sisters to be her attendants. The honor matron will be Mrs. C. L. Cox and bridesmaids will be Mrs. Nicodemus Weiser and Miss Peggy Meyers.

Leo Hammer will serve as best man and ushers will be George Bartruff, J. Omer Bartruff, Earl V. Hammer and Harold Meyers.

A reception will follow in the church parlors.

MRS. HENRY STORLA will entertain the Grace Lutheran Ladies Aid society at her home, Independence, October 7, Friday, luncheon to be at 1 o'clock.

Is Bride-elect—The engagement of Miss Leona Curtis, above, to Warren Paynter, son of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Paynter, was announced recently by the bride-elect's mother, Mrs. Grace Curtis. No date is announced for the wedding. (Jesten-Miller studio picture)

Kolousek-Polge Rites at Woodburn

Woodburn—The marriage of Mrs. Hazel Polge of Lexington, Mo., daughter of Mrs. George Ruth of Spokane, Wash., to Frank Kolousek of Woodburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. James Kolousek, was solemnized September 19 at St. Luke's Catholic church in Woodburn. Father Francis Hanley officiated at 10 a. m. and read the double ring service. Bernard Smith was soloist with Mrs. Marie Donnelly at the organ.

Mr. James Kolousek gave the bride in marriage. She wore a beige sheer dress and matching hat and brown accessories, and carried a white prayer book topped with two orchids.

Miss Betty Kolousek was maid of honor, wearing a blue satin frock with white accessories and a corsage of pink carnations. Laurence Ruth of Spokane was best man for Mr. Kolousek.

Both Mrs. Ruth and Mrs. Kolousek, mothers of the bridal couple, were gowned in black with corsages of pink carnations. A reception at the home of the bridegroom's parents followed the ceremony, with Mrs. Stanley Kolousek and Mrs. John Kolousek serving.

After spending their honeymoon in Bremerton, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Kolousek returned to Woodburn to make their home.

NOTICES have come to interested groups in Marion county of the meeting of the Willamette Valley Association of Matrons and Patrons, Order of Eastern Star, in Eugene the evening of Thursday, October 13, at 8 o'clock.

The meeting is to be held in the River Road Woman's club house, just north of Eugene at Hillcrest drive and the old 99 highway. Members of Evangelical chapter and Blue River chapter in Eugene and of the Oakridge chapter are hosts for the meeting.

MR. AND MRS. Sidney B. Lewis returned last evening from Seattle. Mrs. Lewis had been there the past week, visiting friends and relatives. Mr. Lewis went up at the weekend and they attended the Washington-Notre Dame football game Saturday afternoon.

A GROUP of Salemites taking in the Oregon State-California game at Portland Saturday included Mr. and Mrs. Sam C. Campbell, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Wood, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Atwood and Mr. and Mrs. E. C. Nilsen.

Miss Myers Is Bride Sunday At Presbyterian Service

Ice blue and burgundy colors in the decorations and the gowns of the attendants made a charming setting for the Sunday afternoon wedding of Miss Jeanne Myers, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. Burton A. Myers, who was wed to Ensign Henry B. Johnson, USN, son of Mrs. Dora Johnson, the vows being exchanged at 3 o'clock in the First Presbyterian church with Dr. Chester W. Hamblin officiating.

The garnet king maroon chrysanthemums and blue delphiniums decorated the church front, together with burgundy tapers in candelabras.

The bridal gown was of ice blue satin, designed with fitted bodice, a yoke of the blue net, and a low fichu bordering the yoke and standing out from the shoulders. The dress had long sleeves, a slight peplum extending to around in back, and a train, both the fichu and the peplum being of fine white lace over the blue satin. The fingertip circular veil was lace-edged and was arranged from a Juliet cap, lilies of the valley being caught in the twisted net bandings over the head. The bride carried a white Bible with pink cymbidium orchids. Dr. Myers gave his daughter in marriage.

The two attendants, Mrs. Lloyd V. Lewis (Janice Myers) of Eugene, twin sister of the bride, and Miss Grace Shields, were both in powder blue taffeta gowns fashioned with yokes of net, pointed Peter Pan collars, and a banding of the taffeta outlining the yoke and extending down the bodice both in front and back. The dresses had short sleeves with cuffs and full skirts. The two attendants wore burgundy satin ribbons with clusters of flowers in their hair, and they carried nosegay types of bouquets of burgundy carnations and fluffed tulle with long burgundy colored ribbons.

Sharon McNeil, the little flower girl, was attired in a dress designed identically styled to those of the two attendants. Preceding the service, Mrs. Robert Siddoway of Portland and Mrs. E. A. Melanson of Los Angeles, the latter a cousin of Dr. Myers, sang and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs was at the organ.

Daryl Sim was best man for Ensign Johnson and ushering were Bland Simmons of Portland, Courtney Jones, Wallace Palmateer and Lloyd V. Lewis. For the wedding the bride's mother wore a teal blue gown with black accessories and an arrangement of feathered maroon carnations in her hair. The bridegroom's mother wore a royal blue gown with gray feathered hat, gray accessories and a corsage of red rosebuds.

Immediately following the service the receiving line greeted guests informally in the vestibule, the reception following being in the downstairs room.

Again the burgundy-maroon and light blue theme featured the decorations at the reception. The bride's table was set with arrangements of the maroon and blue flowers, ribbons in the same colors flaring out from the candelabras. The maroon and blue flowers were caught up in the corners of the blue satin cloth.

Miss Minnie Just and Mrs. E. A. Melanson served the cake. Mrs. Paul Lewis of Merrill and Mrs. James Teed were at the coffee urns and Mrs. Fred Thompson and Mrs. C. L. Newman at the punch bowl. Mrs. Gerald Robison, Miss Margaret Moritz, Miss Anita Hager, Mrs. Kenneth Prince, Miss Jeanne Busick, Mrs. Richard Kuhn of Oregon City, Mrs. John Syme of Corvallis, Mrs. Raymond Crumme of Eugene, Mrs. Donald Wells of Modesto, Calif. Miss
