

Princess Faces Problem: Home or Follow Husband

London, Oct. 6 (AP)—Princess Elizabeth faced a problem today confronting the wife of every sailor—to stay at home with her baby or follow her husband overseas.

Informed sources said that Princess Elizabeth was expected to leave baby Prince Charles in Britain and join her husband, the Duke of Edinburgh, in Malta shortly before Christmas.

The duke is scheduled to join the British Mediterranean fleet, based on Malta, as first lieutenant in the Destroyer Chequers on Oct. 17.

No definite plans have yet been announced from Buckingham Palace. It was understood the princess was torn between leaving her 11-month-old baby or joining her sailor husband.

Banking Hours Here Extended

Banking hours are being extended at the Salem branch of the First National bank of Portland, it was announced by Guy N. Hickok, manager.

Effective October 10 this branch will be open for regular banking business from 10 a.m. till 5 p.m. Monday through Friday and from 9 a.m. till 5 p.m. on Saturday.

The move not only offers First National customers all day banking six days a week, but also includes a new work schedule for employees of the bank, Hickok announced. Employees, including officers, will henceforth work a five day week on a rotating schedule.

The longer banking hours on Saturday were first tried out in several of the Portland branches of the First National, where several thousand customers took advantage of the opportunity to bank between noon and 5 p.m. on Saturdays, thus testifying to the popularity of the plan. The longer banking hours for customers were then extended to all the Portland branches of the bank and to 11 other upstate branches.
