

JANE RUSSELL'S SISTER-IN-LAW

Blonde Beauty, Bible Student Signs 'Cheesecake' Contract

Hollywood, Oct. 6 (AP)—A beautiful blonde who spends her spare time in Bible study is the newest addition to the ranks of movie hopefuls. And she's Jane Russell's sister-in-law, too.

Universal-International announced today the signing of Leslye Banning, 18. She is married to Jane's brother, Wallace, a navy aviation machinist's mate. Miss Banning signed the studio's new clause which requires bathing suit art for the first five years with one proviso:

"I see no harm in posing in a bathing suit," said the shapely Leslye. "But I feel it will be time to stop when I have children. I expect to have six, four boys and two girls."

The studio agreed that after she's a mother there will be no more cheesecake.

Miss Banning is a member of the Lutheran church in nearby Glendale. She spends spare evenings studying the Bible at a Van Nuys class conducted by Mrs. Geraldine Russell, Jane's mother, which the latter also attends frequently.

She says she hopes soon to become a Sunday school teacher.

IOOF Honors Wm. Sigmund

William Sigmund, 86, was honored with a surprise birthday party by Chemeketa lodge No. 1, IOOF Wednesday night in observance of his 60 years of membership. The program included community singing and refreshments served by Rebekah lodge No. 1.

Sigmund joined the organization July 3, 1889 and is a past noble grand. He has represented the lodge at numerous state affairs. He was married to Lucy Barzee Jan. 5, 1891, and they expect to celebrate their 60th anniversary in 1951. Sigmund is a member of a Marion county pioneer family.

The honored guest had little to say other than "I hope the next 60 years are just as good."

Tribute was paid by County Judge Grant Murphry, who recalled that when Sigmund was a boy wheat was selling for 30 cents a bushel, bread five cents a loaf, a shave cost 15 cents and a good cigar a nickel.

"This fellow," Judge Murphry said in referring to Sigmund, "was around when the farms were divided by crooked rail fences, fields were plowed by oxen and the roads passable only in the summer."

Canadian Lumber Imports Protested

Seattle, Oct. 6 (AP)—Enough Canadian logs were brought into Washington state last year to have given every logger in Wacoma and Skagit counties full-time employment, a resolution adopted by the Seattle Congress of Industrial Organization council last night said.

The council's resolution urged that an import quota be placed on Canadian logs to maintain American forest industry employment at levels above 88 percent.

Lumber Market On Upgrade

Portland, Oct. 6 (AP)—The lumber industry has perked up favorably in the past few weeks according to trade reports from Washington and Oregon mill points.

The West Coast Lumbermen's association reported orders for Douglas fir in the last week of September totaled 108,547,000 board feet. This was compared with 80,554,000 the same week a year ago. Orders have been running 10 to 25 percent ahead of production for the last few weeks.

The association said both production and shipments were ahead of a year ago.

Demand has affected prices, too. Quotations regained some of the cut of the summer's slump in the industry. Green two-by-fours were at $49-$52 a thousand feet compared with $46-$48 in mid-summer. Last year the item was priced at $60-$65.

Fisheries to Be Topic
Astoria, Oct. 6 (AP)—Fisheries problems related to construction of dams will be taken up here October 12 at a public hearing of the Columbia basin inter-agency committee.

Minnesota Brings Paul Bunyan Home

Chicago, Oct. 6 (AP)—Paul Bunyan was headed for his Brainerd, Minn., home today because Minnesota Gov. Luther W. Youngdahl won a nationwide fight over other states who claimed the legendary lumberjack.

Bunyan, in the person of a giant-size animated replica, spent 100 days on exhibit at the Chicago Railroad fair.

Youngdahl won the fight for possession of the giant statue by saying "any inference or contention that Bunyan was not a native of Minnesota is as presumptuous as it is ridiculous."
