Suspect - "Model Citizen" Ernest B. Knight, well-to-do engineer of Chicago's suburban Naperville, who was ar-rested when his intended hold-up victims beat him and hold-up victims beat him and blackened one eye, will face questioning about the brutal sex killing of 10-year-old Roberta Rinearson, "the pret-tiest girl" in Brookfield, Ill. Knight has admitted he was the provider who terrified his the prowler who terrified his stepdaughter last April. (Acme Telephoto)

Grains Move Up For Day's Trade

For Day's Irade

Chicago, Oct. 6 69 — Grains moved steadily upward on the board of trade today. Commission houses did the bulk of the buying, but there also was some from commercial interests.

Wet weather over almost all the mid-west was one factor in the strength. Another reason was a boost in the government's buying price for cash wheat.

Wheat closed 13-11% higher. December $1.194. Sheet of the strength of soybeans were 14 to 2 cents higher. November $2.3344-2.33, and lard was 5 to 12 cents hundred course higher. a hundred pounds higher, Octo-ber $11.25.

Flexible Farm Support Price

Washington, Oct. 6 (P)—The senate agriculture committee to-day approved, 9 to 3, a flexible farm price support bill. Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois said it will be brought before the senate tomorrow.

Lucas described the Law

Lucas said the 90 percent parity provision was stricken out by committee vote and the flexible 75 to 90 percent parity provision favored by Anderson returned to the measure.

6 Die in Crash

Rocky Mount, N. C., Oct. 5 @8 -A school bus and an ice truck ideswiped on a narrow rural bridge today, killing at least six one other.

Two of the children died in a hospital here. One of the injured, suffering a punctured lung, was in criti-farm price support bill. Democratic Leader Lucas of Illinois said it will be brought before the senate tomorrow.

Lucas described the bill as following the lines of the longrange farm measure originally introduced by Senator Anderson (D-NM).

The senate sent the Anderson bill back to the agriculture committee Tuesday night, after Vice President Barkley had broken a tie to give senate approval of an amendment for price props under major crops at 90 percent of parity.

Fall Month Popular

Albany — While September did not surpass June in popularity among brides and bridegrooms, it ran a close second. County Clark R. M. Russell issued 53 marriage licenses last month in comparison with 58 in June. The September total was offset by granting of 28 divorces in circuit court, a net gain of 25 for Cupid.
