

McKay Endorses BPW Week

Governor Douglas McKay's statement in recognition of "National Business Women's Week" has been released by the Salem Business and Professional Women's club. The national week opens Sunday next, October 9.

Governor McKay's statement follows:

"Intriguing statistics come to my mind as I begin to prepare this message of congratulations to the Oregon Federation of Business and Professional Women's Clubs, Inc.

"I am reminded that (1) 51 per cent of the nation's registered voters are women (2) that women control the manner in which 85 per cent of the country's money is spent, and (3) that, in Oregon, alone, the number of Federation clubs has increased from 31 to 48 and the number of members from 1800 to 3000, all in only three years' time.

"Women are truly on the march toward the place they have always deserved in the business and political life of this Republic and this Commonwealth.

"It is a privilege to salute their impressive lists of accomplishments at community, city, county, state and national levels of responsibility. I am happy, therefore, to endorse the observance in Oregon of National Business Women's Week, October 9-15.

Douglas McKay, Governor."

Mrs. Eggiman New Auxiliary Head

Silverton—Mrs. Howard Eggiman was advanced from the vice-presidency to the position of president, following the resignation of Mrs. B. B. Howell, president of the Silverton Lions auxiliary, Monday evening at the business hour of the program and dinner at the Double J restaurant. Thirty-seven members attended.

To replace Mrs. Eggiman as vice president, Mrs. C. J. Towe was elected. On the acceptance of the resignation of Mrs. V. V. Runyan as treasurer, Mrs. Loyall Timm was elected unanimously. Both Mrs. Howell and Mrs. Runyan are planning to reside away from Silverton for several months.

Mrs. Clifton Dickerson was presented a past state secretary's pin for her recent service in that position by a past state president of the Lions auxiliary, Mrs. A. L. V. Smith.

The mother of Mrs. Dickerson, Mrs. Elizabeth Brazier of Silverton and Woodburn, was a social guest and was given a surprise, the group observing her 71st birthday anniversary with a decorated cake presented by her daughter and served during the dessert hour.

The coming year's projects of the club favorably discussed included the filling of the duffel bag at the Perry store; sponsoring the Girl Scout troop; and the individual donation for special cases of aid to children with poor eyesight.

Mrs. Eggiman gave the report of the visitation to Hollywood club in Salem, and Mrs. A. L. V. Smith told of the state convention at Astoria.

SILVERTON — Among local relatives planning to attend the Saturday morning 9 o'clock wedding of Jack Kauffman and Miss Bonnie Fahlen at Stayton Immaculate Conception Catholic church are the grandmother of the bridegroom-to-be, Mrs. Lydia Dawes, her two sisters, Mrs. Ida Makinster and the family of the George Kirks.

WELCOMED home the first of the week from a trip to the east are Mr. and Mrs. Urlin S. Page and Mr. and Mrs. Vern D. McMullen. They were at Atlantic City to attend the national meeting of the American Title association, and also stopped in New York City, Washington, D. C., Philadelphia and Chicago.

Eastern Star Chapter Meets

The regular meeting of Chadwick chapter, Order of the Eastern Star, was held in the Masonic temple on Tuesday evening.

The members were surprised to find the chapter room redecorated and equipped with new plush opera chairs. The new furnishings and baskets of asters added much to the enjoyment of the evening.

The worthy matron, Mrs. D. M. Eby, chose this time to pay honor to all the matrons and patrons under whom she had served on her way to the east as worthy matron. Those thus honored were Mrs. G. A. Reher, Mrs. Fred Keeler and Mrs. E. E. Bergman, worthy matrons of other years, and Herman Johnson, Earl Wiper and Fred Keeler, past patrons. A special guest was Mrs. William Merriott of Woodburn, who is the grand chaplain of Oregon. All guests were seated in the east and presented with corsages and gifts from the worthy matron.

Invitations were read to be guests of Albany chapter on Oct. 25 and Venus chapter on Oct. 21 for their friendship nights. Also, invitations to various receptions for grand officers, including one to Independence chapter on Oct. 29, honoring Mrs. Paul Robinson, grand conductress.

It was announced that Chadwick chapter will participate with the other Masonic orders of the Salem in religious services at the Masonic and Eastern Star home at Forest Grove on Nov. 27, and that on Nov. 1, Chadwick chapter will have another friendship night with members of nine chapters as guests.

All guests spoke to the members for the good of the order and the worthy patron, Jason Frizzell, also told of the work of the chapter for the home at Forest Grove.

Refreshments were served on the fifth floor at the close of the meeting. Mr. and Mrs. Mem Pearce were in charge of the serving assisted by Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Van Wyngarden, Mrs. Gordon Johnson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Bramble and Mrs. Leona Stutzman.

Club Elects

The Young Woman's club for young men and women in domestic and industrial work held its meeting this week at the YWCA and elected officers as follows:

Miss Katherine Hansson, president; Jack Leo, secretary; Benny Gearheart, treasurer; Miss Dolly Wood, Bobbie Shultz, Miss Edna Fitzloff, refreshments committee; Miss Betty Otis, Ross Hannawell and Kenneth Wright, social committee.

Next meeting is October 17, at the YW, sponsor of the group.

HOSTESSES this evening for a supper will be Mrs. Thomas Holman and Mrs. Floyd W. Shepard, the affair to compliment Mrs. Gregory Lancaster. The party will be at the Holman home.
