

Campus Clippings UNIVERSITY OF OREGON

By CHARLOTTE ALEXANDER

It looks like the thought of picnics will have to be put away until another spring term. California are finding out what Oregon rain is like, and Oregonians are merely frowning.

Friday night was the scene of a block party on Greek row. Kappa Kappa Gamma, Pi Kappa Alpha Chi Omega, Sigma Alpha Epsilon, Kappa Alpha Theta, Sigma Kappa and Phi Delta Theta participated. Joanne Fitzmaurice, Jeanne Hoffman, Frances Baum, Hap Englehart and Alton Chamberlain, all looked like they were having a good time. This type of party will probably stimulate others to do the same.

Friday night students were gathered around the radio listening to a victory over UCLA. Naturally we were disappointed, but despite that, 500 cars with 2500 students strong turned out at the airport to welcome home their team.

Bring out the tradition was the cry, and so we did. Oregon students again experienced a "Bunyon Derby." From its name it sounds like rather a trying affair, but I assure you it wasn't that bad. The men's living organizations on the campus went around to the various women's houses. The fellows pay five cents at the door and dance for 15 minutes. A prize was given to the house having the most men participating, and visiting the most women's living organizations. Congratulations go to the ATOs who were the winners. The AWS sponsors this and the money goes toward AWS week-end. Dave Crockett, Evan Beise, Doug Carter, Dick Barber, Bob Weber and Don Johnson were seen dashing around to each house.

These past weeks have been busy in stimulating campus activities. The two major activities for this term will be the Sophomore Wiskerino, and Homecoming. The YWCA also plays a very important part in our campus activities and their organization is split up into commissions. The Y provides a chance for each girl to select the thing she is most interested in. The drama department held its first meeting last Thursday evening and plans for the year were discussed. The meeting was climaxed with a general tour through the newly built theater. It is their hope that they can put their first production on in December. This is to urge many of you to take the opportunity to see our new theater, and I know you will be hearing much about our drama department.

Miss Olin and Mr. Dahl Wed

Silverton — Miss Dorothy Olin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gilbert Olin, Portland, and Raymond H. Dahl, son of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Dahl, exchanged their marriage vows in a ceremony Saturday evening, October 1, at the Portland Bethlehem Lutheran church in a candlelight service. The Rev. The bride was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin dress fashioned on close fitting lines, buttoned down the back, a wide old lace bertha, over-the-shoulder sleeves and a court-train. Her veil was fingertip length. She carried yellow rosebuds in a cascade arrangement. The maid of honor, sister of the bride, Miss Lorraine Olin, wore pale green satin.

For her bridesmaids the Misses Margie and Virginia Olin, Miss Beverly Beeler and Miss Donna Aigner, gowned identically in champagne colored gowns of satin fashioned similarly to that of the maid of honor, and carrying pink dahila cascades. The candlelighters were Miss Marilyn Peters and Mrs. LeRoy Janin wearing gold satin frocks with matching plume berets. Peggy Ried in a floor-length white satin dress, was flower girl.

Arthur H. Dahl of Longview was his brother's best man. Ushers were Ted Demas and Bill Duncan of Silverton, Bill Winters of Corvallis and Nathaniel Scaeva of Olympia, Wash., the latter two fraternity brothers of the bridegroom.

Assisting at the reception in the church social rooms were the church social rooms were the bridegroom, Mrs. Theo Opsund and Mrs. E. C. Richee, both of Portland.

MEMBERS of Aowakiya Camp Fire Girls troop met for a party last week at the home of the leader, Mrs. Hal DeSart, the affair honoring new members.

The new members honored included Marcia Miller, Betty Holland, Elaine Hockett and Dorothy Penharwood.

HOSTESS to her bridge club this evening will be Miss Esther Baird, a late supper to follow the hours of cards.

A NEW class in textile painting is to begin at the YWCA October 13 at 7:30 p.m. It will meet for six consecutive weeks, each session to be two hours. Persons interested may call the YWCA.
