

Miss Taylor and Mr. Haynes Wed Oct. 2 at Astoria

Miss Jean Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert C. Taylor, Astoria, was married to Robert Haynes, son of Mrs. C. A. Searcy, Newberg, at a 3 o'clock ceremony Sunday afternoon at Trinity Lutheran church in Astoria. The Rev. Roy Ryden officiated in the presence of 150 guests.

White ribbons and ivy marked the center aisle down which the wedding party marched. Candles and ivy were placed at the windows and baskets of white gladioluses, chrysanthemums and lace spirea decorated the chancel. A bowl of white chrysanthemums graced the organ.

Candles in the seven-point candelabras were lighted by the bride's brothers, Marvin Taylor, and Albert Sorkki.

During the ringing of the church bells, the bride walked down the aisle on the arm of her father. She wore a white slipper satin dress with a yoke of net edged with flower of seed pearls. The long sleeves were pointed at the wrist and the gathered skirt fell into a long train. The lace-edged full-length veil was held in place by a crown of seed pearls. The bride carried an arm bouquet of pink and white rosebuds and bouvardia and she wore her mother's diamond lavallere.

Miss Marjorie Junisko, Salem, maid of honor, wore a lavender taffeta gown fashioned with bustle back and net yoke trimmed in lace. Her matching mitts and sweetheart hat were of lavender net and she carried a fan bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums tied with lavender ribbon.

Two Bridesmaids
Miss Joyce Wyman, Astoria, cousin of the bride, and Miss Rosemarie Haglund, Kelson, the bridesmaids wore gowns of green taffeta styled similar to the maid of honor's with matching hats and mitts of net. They carried fan bouquets of lavender chrysanthemums tied with green ribbon.

Little Michael Sorkki, nephew of the bride, carried the rings for the double ring ceremony on a white satin pillow. Little Carrie Sue Davis, Portland, as flower girl, wore a champagne-colored gown and matching mitts and hand, and carried an old-fashioned nosegay and scattered yellow rose petals before the bride.

James Collins, Portland, was best man and Charles Miller and Henry Jones, both of Beaverton, brothers-in-law of the bridegroom, were the ushers.

Miss Ethel Wicks, organist, provided the music during the ceremony and accompanied Verne Esch, Salem, who sang.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Taylor chose a gown of gold crepe with matching lace hat and black elbow-length gloves. Mrs. Searcy was attired in a dark gold gown of crepe. Both mothers had corsages of Talisman roses.

At the reception which followed in the church parlors, Mrs. Minnie Taylor, grandmother of the bride, poured; Mrs. N. A. Fahlen, Portland, aunt and god-mother of the bride, cut the four-tiered cake and Mrs. Albert Sorkki, sister-in-law of the bride, served the ices. Assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Donald Maki, Miss Dorothy Agidius, Miss Helen Marx and Mrs. Elmer Forseth. Mrs. Melvin Conboy was in charge of the guest book.

A mixed bouquet of pink roses, white gladioluses, carnations and chrysanthemums flanked by two-point crystal candleholders, centered the bride's table.

For going away, Mrs. Haynes wore a forest green suit with brown accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses centered by a gardenia.

To Live in Salem

Following a short honeymoon down the coast, Mr. and Mrs. Haynes will make their home at 2173 Maple avenue, Salem. Mrs. Haynes will continue her position with the Marion County chapter of the American Red Cross at Salem. Mr. Haynes is connected with the Oregon state police, stationed in Salem.

Guests for the wedding from out-of-town were Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. West, Seattle; Jim Collins, Mr. and Mrs. N. A. Fahlen, Mr. and Mrs. Milton Taxer, Mr. and Mrs. Calvin Cross, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Santee and Mr. and Mrs. Miles Davis and Carrie Sue all of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Verne Esch, Miss Marjorie Junisko, Miss Genevieve Cockerline, Mrs. Elinor Fox, Miss Clela Turin, all of Salem; Miss Rosemarie Haglund, Kelson; Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Miller and Mr. and Mrs. Henry A. Jones and Carol Lee all of Beaverton; Mr. and Mrs. O. G. Nelson, Warren; Miss Lillian Haglund, Tillamook; Mrs. Lena Searcy and Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Searcy, Newberg; Mr. and Mrs. Dean Pinkerton, Moro; Mr. and Mrs. John Vlastelica, Mrs. Lillian B. Koppisch, Carl Haglund, Mrs. Roy Meyer and daughter, Miss Geraldine Sorkki, Mrs. Katherine Salvon, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Vinson and Mr. and Mrs. Roy Haglund and family, all of Knappa; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Hunt, Hugo Nygren, Mrs. G. A. Nelson and Douglas and Geraldine, and Mr. and Mrs. Eino Storm, all of Svenson; Mr. and Mrs. Perry Yamhill, Miss Barbara Smith, Yamhill; Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Junisko and Mr. and Mrs. T. A. Sather, Jeffers Garden; Mr. and Mrs. David Johlin, Brownsmead, and Mr. and Mrs. Leslie K. Taylor, Lebanon.

Mill City Club Hears Salem Woman

Mill City—Mrs. Beverly Wilkinson of Salem was the guest speaker at the Woman's club meeting this week, discussing "Textile Printing," and demonstrating the work and displaying many handmade articles.

During the business meeting, with Mrs. Leon Faust presiding in the absence of Mrs. Lee Rosa, the announcement was made of the district convention next Friday in Portland and of the fall Marion county convention, on October 28 in Aurora Lutheran church in Aurora. Several Mill City members plan to attend both meetings. Mrs. Curtis Cline will serve on the nominating committee at the county convention.

Members decided to enforce the article in the club by-laws whereby members will be fined for unexcused absences from regular meetings. Following the painting demonstration the hostesses, Mrs. Herbert Schroeder and Mrs. C. E. Mason, served refreshments. Members answering roll call were Mrs.

Clayton Baltimore, Mrs. R. L. Faust, Mrs. Ernest Graham, Miss Daisy Geddes, Mrs. Lester Hathaway, Mrs. Charles Kelly, Miss Daisy Hendrickson, Mrs. Arthur Kriever, Mrs. Nelson Lanphear, Mrs. Catherine Lyon, Mrs. Harry Mason, Mrs. Frederick Rugh, and the hostesses, Mrs. Schroeder and Mrs. Mason. The next meeting of the club, on October 18, will present Mrs. Walworth as speaker. Her topic will be "Hawaiian Festival" and hostesses will be Mrs. Curtis Cline and Mrs. Richard Saucier, who plan to carry out the Hawaiian theme during the evening.

Miss Frost Wed Recently

Stacyon—A pretty fall wedding took place at Immaculate Conception Catholic church in Stacyon on Tuesday, September 20, at 9 o'clock when Miss Joan Frost, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Matt Frost of Stacyon was wed to Lawrence Silbernagel, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Silbernagel of Scio, Rev. Math. Jonas officiated at the double ring ceremony and the nuptial mass that followed.

The altar was decorated with baskets of white orchids and pink asters and fern, and lighted tapers. Wedding music was played by Miss Josephine Brand, who accompanied Mrs. Lawrence Pietrok and Mrs. Lawrence Smith, who sang.

Entering the church on the arm of her father, who gave her in marriage, the bride wore a gown of white slipper satin, which had a full skirt with short train. The bodice had a yoke of nylon sheer, which was edged with a quilted design and the dress had long sleeves. A band of pearls held the fingertip veil in place. The bride carried a bouquet of red roses centered with gardenias. An heirloom worn by the bride was a gold cross belonging to her grandmother, Mrs. Kate Burger of Waterloo, Iowa, who came here for the wedding.

Miss Charlene Frost was her sister's maid of honor, wearing a gown of yellow taffeta with matching hat. She carried a bouquet of pink asters.

Miss Betty Ann Silbernagel, sister of the bridegroom and Miss Marguerite Frost, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids, wearing gowns of orchid taffeta with matching hats identical to that of the maid of honor. Their flowers were also pink asters.

Bennie Silbernagel, brother of the bridegroom was best man and Leonard Gisler and Gerald Silbernagel, cousins of the bridegroom, were ushers.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Frost chose a light brown afternoon dress with corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Silbernagel wore a black print with green topcoat. Her corsage was also gardenias.

A wedding luncheon was served at the parish hall. The reception followed in the afternoon.

Campus Clippinas By GERI BOWLES

WILLAMETTE UNIVERSITY

The university has been buzzing this past week with last minute preparations for a big kick-off Monday morning of the annual Campus Chest Drive, with committee members, students, and faculty alike pooling their energies in an effort to reach the $1200 goal set by Chairman Jean Carrico, on or before the October 15 deadline. At Willamette, all fund-raising campaigns which give support to such organizations as the YMCA, YWCA, World Student Service fund, Red Cross, Cancer fund, Heart fund, March of Dimes, and Salem Community Chest are combined in one big drive yearly, with donations being made in the form of cash contributions or under the pledge system. Climaxing the week's activities will be the popular "Varsity Varieties" for the benefit of the Chest.

Saturday evening has been reserved by the Pi Beta Phi, who will entertain with a semi-formal dance at the chapter house. The "Blue Reflections" theme will be carried out in a woven ceiling of blue crepe paper with suspended silver clouds, silver foil mirrors complete with ornate blue frames, and lighting supplied by pale blue tapers set in candelabrams. A sparkling pool surrounded by a silver fence will be the center of attraction in the Pi Phi solarium. Chairman Lu Dene Hargrave has hinted of surprise favors which will be presented to all the men.

Again absent from the week-end festivities will be the Willamette varsity football team which entrained for Caldwell, Idaho, where they will meet the College of Idaho, Saturday night.

The college of music has planned a recital by vocal and instrumental students for this afternoon in the music hall auditorium. Gloria Stone, Art Diamond, Lloyd Hansen and Robert Gwinn will be featured in the program.

Freshmen are still trying to forget the "horrors" of "Kangaroo Kourt," which was given in their "honor" Tuesday by the lettermen. Under the direction of the chief executioner, Bob

Mrs. Leo Frost, cousin of the bride, cut the cake. Mrs. Sylvester Silbernagel poured. Mrs. Henry Thomas cut the ices and Miss Marcella Silbernagel presided at the punchbowl. Miss Helen Gisler was in charge of the guest book.

In the evening a wedding dance was given at the C.O.F. hall at Jordan.

The couple left on a wedding trip to California and other points south. For traveling, the bride wore a dark green suit with black accessories and a gardenia corsage. When they return, they will make their home on a farm at Jordan.

White, rooks were penalized for many and varied infractions. Coach Chester Stackhouse's daughter, Ann, was sentenced to sit on Hank Wilson's lap and explain to him the finer points of playing center on a football squad, while Carolann Kelly, frosh journalist, was commanded to eat the words of a newspaper article which she had written against the mighty lettermen. Audrey Bliss, sophomore transfer student, protested loudly when she and Amarillis Lillis, far from being home economic majors, were ordered to sew patches on the trousers of Dick Fuuff and Jack Handy — blindfolded! And so it went — football games between co-eds, mill-stream dunking, and making love to Schneibels, the Phi Delt mascot — a whole hour of frosh repentance.

The "rains came" this past week, and to meet the winter weather co-eds have chosen a variety of clever rainwear. Outstanding was a pink and white checked raincoat with umbrella to match. Underneath, a past favorite, the all-around pleated skirt, which has returned to immense popularity, topped by colorful dolman sleeved jersey blouses. An old-fashioned watch bob fastened on a velveteen or corduroy vest makes an interesting conversation piece as well as handy timekeeper. Footwear interest has definitely centered around the multi-colored suede shoes seen everywhere — on campus, at games and shows — in "little Injun," jipper, and Oxford styles.
