Gardella Comes Back Organized, Inks with Cards

New York, Oct. 8 (A)-Organized baseball welcomed back the last of its exiles, Danny Gardella, today and heaved a tremendous sigh of relief over removal of its only remaining legal nightmare.

With dramatic suddenness Gardella announced last night that he was withdrawing his $300,000 damage suit and would try a baseball comeback with the St. Louis Cardinals.

This involved a bit of back room maneuvering because when the little outfielder jumped to the Mexican league in 1946 he was the property of the New York Giants, without a contract.

The matter was worked out to everybody's satisfaction, baseball officials disclosed, and all are happy.
"Danny has asked for and received his unconditional re-lease by the Giants and will sign a 1950 contract with the St. Louis Cardinals," the statement issued by Gardella's attorneys said in part.
