BRIDE this afternoon was Miss Pauline Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Miller, who was married to Chester Ross Morrow, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. R. Morrow of Hubbard. The service was solemnized at 2:30 o'clock in St. Joseph's Catholic church, the Rev. John O'Callaghan officiating.

Lavender and yellow chrysanthemums and asters were arranged at the front of the church for the wedding, and yellow and white chrysanthemums, tied with matching satin ribbons, set off the first few pews.

For the music, Mrs. Frank S. Thompson of Gervais sang. Mrs. Mary Barton playing the organ.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore a slipper satin gown designed with a fitted bodice and a row of tiny buttons down the back, a lace yoke and long pointed sleeves. The full skirt had insets of lace and the train was edged with a ruffle of the satin. With the dress the bride wore a strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom. The fingertip veil, lace edged, was arranged from a tiara of seed pearls. For her flowers the bride carried a bouquet of pink Turner chrysanthemums with a white orchid in the center.

Miss Caroline Miller was maid of honor for her sister. Her gown was in lavender and with it she wore a halo of lavender chrysanthemums in her hair and carried a nosegay of the yellow chrysanthemums. Mrs. John Hagan and Mrs. Lena Goodman, both aunts of the bride, were the other two attendants. Their gowns were identical to that of the maid of honor, but in yellow, and they wore the yellow flowers in their hair and carried nosegays of the lavender blooms.

Rudolf Eckstein was best man. Ushers were Joe Pettit and Gordon Bennett. The two mothers both wore plum-colored gowns with black accessories and corsages of orchids.

Following the church service was a reception in Mayflower hall. Mrs. Wayne Kinze and Miss Jacqueline Allport had charge of the gifts and passing the guest book was Miss Betty Miller, sister of the bride. Mrs. Leo Miller and Mrs. Lena Goodman, both aunts of the bride, served the cake. Miss Verline Walker was at the coffee urn, Miss Evelyn Benn at the punch bowl. Assisting with the serving were Mrs. Clarence Cox, Mrs. John Coater, Miss Dorothy Neuharth, Miss Fay Rolfe, Mrs. Fabian Nelson, Jr., Mrs. Robert Swanson.

Among out-of-town guests at the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Leo Miller and son, Duane, and Mrs. Lena Goodman, Mrs. Fred Crooks, Mr. and Mrs. William Davis of Camas, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Marion Crews of Stevenson, Wash.; Mr. and Mrs. Fred Crooks, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Richleiderer and sons, Malcolm and Theron, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Kase, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Patrick and Larry, all of Wash. Ore.; Miss Shirley Utlin, and Elmo Manno of San Francisco, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Aebischer of Sherwood, Oregon.

For going away the bride wore a cardinal red fitted suit with black hat and gloves, and a program meeting for Monday evening at 8 o'clock in the YWCA. Mrs. Katherine B. Hughes of the Stevens and Sons store staff is to show a picture on Gorham's silver, presenting the history of silver and how it is made. A question period will follow.
